TO THE TEACHER

Welcome to the new edition of Level 1 in the Longman Academic Writing Series, a five-level series that prepares learners of English for academic coursework. This book, formerly called Fundamentals of Academic Writing, is intended for beginning students in university, college, adult, or secondary school programs. It offers a carefully structured approach that helps students develop basic writing skills, understand writing as a process, and build a solid foundation for becoming independent writers.

Like the first edition, this book uses a clear, step-by-step approach as it introduces students to the requirements of academic writing in English. You will find a wealth of realistic models to guide student writers, along with clear explanations of sentence structure, paragraph organization, grammar, and mechanics. The explanations are followed by the extensive practice that learners need in order to assimilate the material and write with accuracy and confidence.

The text focuses on the elements of good sentences but within the context of simple descriptive and narrative paragraphs on student-centered topics. It effectively combines an introduction to basic paragraph structure with an emphasis on personal writing, the kind of writing that is most appropriate and motivating for learners at the beginning level. There are interactive tasks throughout the text—pair work, small-group activities, and full-class discussions—that engage students in the learning process and complement the solitary work that writers must do. There are also directions for keeping a journal so that students can write for fluency-building in addition to doing the more formal paragraph assignments. Finally, the extensive appendices and a thorough index make the text a valuable and easy-to-use reference tool.

What's New in This Edition

Instructors familiar with the first edition will find these new features:

- Chapter objectives provide clear goals for instruction;
- Two new vocabulary sections, Looking at Vocabulary and Applying Vocabulary, explain vocabulary from the writing models and support its use in the Writing Assignment;
- Try It Out! activities challenge students to be creative and apply the skills they have studied;
- Writing Tips contain strategies that experienced writers use;
- Self-Assessments ask students to evaluate their own progress;
- Timed Writing practice develops students' writing fluency;
- Additional journal topics appear in a new appendix.

The Online Teacher's Manual

The Teacher's Manual is available on the Pearson English Portal. It includes general teaching notes, chapter teaching notes, answer keys, reproducible writing assignment scoring rubrics, and reproducible chapter quizzes.

Acknowledgments

I would like to thank Ann Hogue and Alice Oshima, authors of the original Books 2, 3, and 4, for their work on the Longman Academic Writing Series. By creating these wonderful resources, they have served countless teachers and students of English over the years. I would also like to acknowledge the new members of the writing team for this edition: Jennifer Bixby, Jane Curtis, Lara Ravitch, and Alan Meyers.

I am grateful to the members of the Pearson ELT team for the expertise and dedication they have brought to this product, particularly Amy McCormick, Shelley Gazes, Lise Minovitz, and Eleanor Barnes. I also wish to thank my development editor Meg Brooks for her careful editing and wise counsel.

My thanks as well to the reviewers who contributed to our planning for this edition and those whose thoughtful comments and suggestions on the first edition also helped to shape this book:

CHAPTER OVERVIEW

Longman Academic Writing Series, Level 1, Sentences to Paragraphs offers a carefully structured approach to basic academic writing. It features instruction on paragraph organization, grammar, sentence structure, mechanics, and the writing process.

Four-color design makes the lessons even more engaging.

Realistic writing models present the type of writing students will learn to produce in the end-of-chapter Writing Assignments.

Looking at Vocabulary: Phrasal Verbs A phrasal verb has two parts: a verb (such as go or get) and a particle (such as up, on, or out). The meaning of a phrasal verb is often very different from the meaning of the verb alone. gets = receives He gets a lot of email. He gets up early. gets up = leaves his bed His plane gets in at 1:00. gets in = arrives PRACTICE 1 Phrasal Verbs Find these phrasal verbs in the writing models and underline them. dress up sleep in eat out go out stay up Match the phrasal verbs from the box with their meanings. Fill in the blanks. 1. _____ = put on nice clothes 2. _____ = not go to bed until late ___ = leave home, often to do something for fun = have a meal in a restaurant instead of at home = stay in bed and sleep later than usual in the morning ORGANIZATION TIME ORDER When you write a paragraph, you must think about organization. You must plan how to present information in a clear order. Writers need to organize information to make it easy for people to read. There are many ways to do this. One way to organize information is to put it in time order (also called chronological order). This means writing about events in the order in which they happen. Start with the first or earliest event, and then tell what happens Time-order words help make information clear to the reader. They go at the beginning of sentences. A comma follows each one except Then. Do not put a comma after Then. First, Later, Then After that, Next, Finally, 72 CHAPTER 4

Looking at Vocabulary encourages students to notice useful words and phrases from the writing models that they can use in their writing assignments.

Clear instruction develops students' grasp of paragraph structure and organization.

shows students how to use new words and phrases in their writing. You may want to use some of those phrasal verbs when you do the Writing Assignment on page 84, writing about one day in a classmate's week.

PRACTICE 12 Using Phrasal Verbs

- Complete the sentences with phrasal verbs from the box above.
  - 1. When my alarm clock rings in the morning, it is time for me to  $% \left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\}$
  - 2. I do not set an alarm when I want to ______.

A Good Day 83

Grammar and Sentence Structure sections in each chapter help students understand the building blocks of sentences. Clear charts with examples make the rules easy to see and remember.

Practice activities reinforce learning and lay the groundwork for the end-of-chapter Writing Assignment.

Editing skills are sharpened as students find and correct errors in sentences and paragraphs.

Try It Out! activities challenge students to apply what they have learned.

60 CHAPTERS

NEW!

Step-by-step writing assignments make the writing process clear and easy to follow.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about a trip you took, like the writing models on pages 153 and 154. You will have a choice of prewriting activities.

Prowrite STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Get ready to write by doing a prewriting activity. Choose one of
  - Make notes about the trip in time order. (See page 133 for an example of notes in time order.)
  - Freewrite about the trip for at least five minutes.
     (See page 134 for an explanation of freewriting and an example.)

Writing Tip

When you prepare to write a paragraph, think about your readers. What will they want to know about your topic? Working with a partner during the writing process helps you understand the needs of your readers.

- b. Find a partner and take turns asking about each other's trips. Ask questions like these:
  - · Where did you go on your trip?
  - · When did you go?
  - · Who went with you?
  - · How long was your trip?
  - · What did you do on your trip?
  - · How did you feel about the trip?
  - · What do you remember most about your trip?
- Look again at your notes or freewriting. Add information as needed. Include answers to the questions above. Underline the information that will be most important to describe your trip.

Write STEP 2: Write the first draft.

Write your first draft. Begin your paragraph with a topic sentence. See the writing models on pages 153 and 154 for examples. Give details in your supporting sentences. Try to include both past time expressions and past time clauses. End your paragraph with a concluding sentence.

168 CHAPTERS

Peer Review Worksheets help students give and receive constructive suggestions in a collaborative way.

Writing Tips provide useful strategies to help students produce better writing.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

PEER REVIEW WORKSHEET

Your partner's name: ....

- 1. Read all of your partner's paragraph.
- 2. Underline any part of the paragraph you do not understand. Ask your partner to explain it.
- 3. Circle the topic sentence. If there is no topic sentence, write TS? on the paper.
- Reread the supporting sentences. Ask questions if you want more information, or if it is not clear when the events happened.
- 5. Circle the concluding sentence. If there is no concluding sentence, write CS? on the paper

Format and Language

- 6. Use this list to check your partner's paragraph. Check (✓) each item in the list as you finish.
  - □ a subject in every sentence □ the use of before and after a verb for every subject the use of past tense verbs
    - ☐ the use of commas
  - 7. Put a question mark (?) if you are not sure about something
  - c. Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
  - d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher. Mark any changes you want to make.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

Writing Tip

Experienced writers know that good writing comes from re-writing. Do more than one draft and edit carefully.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper and write a new draft.
- b. Edit your new draft carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

Memories of a Trip 169

Self-Assessment encourages students to evaluate their progress.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

- In this chapter, you learned to:
- End a paragraph with a concluding sentence
- Write past time expressions
- Use before and after as prepositions
- Write complex sentences with past time clauses
- Identify and correct sentence fragments
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a trip

Which ones can you do well? Mark them 3

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 39

EXPANSION

TIMED WRITING

Students need to write quickly to succeed in academic writing. For example, metimes students need to do a writing assignment in class or on a test, and they have only a short time to do it.

To practice writing quickly, you are going to write a paragraph in class. You will have 20 minutes. To complete the assignment in time, follow these steps.

- Read the writing prompt below (or the prompt that your teacher gives you).
   Make sure that you understand the prompt. If you have questions, ask your teacher, (2 minutes)
- Brainstorm to get ideas. On a piece of paper, make some notes. Then think about organizing your ideas. Mark up your notes with circles, arrows, and numbers to show the order of information in your paragraph. Write a topic sentence for your paragraph. (6 minutes)
- Write your paragraph. Be sure to include a topic sentence, supporting sentences, and a concluding sentence. (10 minutes)
- 4. Check your paragraph. Correct any mistakes. (2 minutes)
- 5. Give your paper to your teacher.

Prompt: Write a paragraph about an experience you remember from when you were a child.

170 CHAPTERS

NEW

Timed Writing activities help prepare students to write well on tests. Expansion sections, such as timed writing, additional writing practice, and journal writing, encourage students to develop fluency.

EXPANSION

ON YOUR OWN

Write a paragraph about your sleep habits. You can use "My Sleep Habits" as a title. You can begin your paragraph with one of these sentence

I am happy with my sleep habits.

My sleep habits are not good.

- 1. Use these questions to help you take notes before you begin writing your first draft. Follow the steps of the writing process described on pages 40-42.
  - Do you get enough sleep, or are you often tired?
  - · How many hours of sleep do you need? · What time do you usually go to bed?
  - · What time do you usually get up?
  - · Are weekday and weekend nights the same or different for you?
- 2. Write your first draft.
- Ask a classmate to review your paragraph, or use the Peer Review Worksheet on page 41 to help you revise and edit.
- 4. Prepare a new draft, and give it to your teacher.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. Write as much as you can. Write as often as you can.

Do not worry about writing perfect sentences. Your journal entries are not formal compositions. A journal entry is like a message to a frien

You can think of your own topics for your journal entries. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

• Write about a favorite food or drink. When and where do

- you have it? Do you make it, does someone make it for you, or do you buy it?
- · Draw a picture or put a photo in your journal. Then write about it.
- Write about how you learn new words in English. Where do you find them? Do you write new words in a notebook? What kind of dictionary do you have?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A, page 193.

Everyday Routines 43

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCING YOURSELF

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Put sentences into paragraph form
- Identify subjects and verbs in sentences
- Use capital letters and end punctuation in sentences
- Write sentences with the verb be
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph to introduce yourself

It's nice to meet you!

INTRODUCTION

Before you write something, it helps to look at models. Models are examples. Model sentences will help you write your own sentences. Model paragraphs will help you write your own paragraphs. In this book, you will see many model paragraphs.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, three students introduce themselves to their teachers and classmates.

Work with a partner. Read the models. Then check (✓) the information you find in each model.

	 v name	□ family
I would like to introduce myself. My	□ home country	□ work
e is Shaukat Matin. My nickname is	□ languages	□ classes at school

Writing Model 3

PRACTICE 1

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Zhang Minxiong, but please call me Calvin. Zhang is my family name. Minxiong means smart and heroic. I am 21. I am taking classes in English and math. I live with my cousin and his family. I work part-time in his restaurant. I want to have my own business.

Looking at Vocabulary: Words for Names

Learning about words for names will help you introduce yourself. It will also help you learn other people's names. Look at the words for the name in the name tag.

The words last name and family name have the same meaning.

Names in Introductions

A	Look at the writing models.	Find an example for	each word in the lis	t. Write the number of the model. Marta __ in Writing Model ___2__ 1. A first name:

2. A nickname: in Writing Model _____

3. A full name: _ in Writing Model _____

4. A family name: _ _ in Writing Model _____

- B Read the questions. Complete the answers.
  - 1. What is your full name?

My full name is _____

2. What name do you want to use in this class?

Please call me _____

ORGANIZATION

FROM WORDS TO SENTENCES TO PARAGRAPHS

We use words to form sentences.

We use sentences to form paragraphs. A paragraph is a group of sentences. All the sentences are about the same person or thing. That person or thing is the topic of the paragraph.

The topic of the following paragraph is Yelena Politova. All the sentences in the paragraph are about Yelena.

My classmate Yelena Politova is an interesting person. She is from Ukraine. She speaks Ukrainian and Russian. She lives with her family. She is married. She has one son and one daughter. She works part-time at an animal hospital. I hope to learn more about her.

PARAGRAPH FORMAT

Look at two things in the paragraph about Yelena.

- The first sentence is indented. There is a space before it. Remember to indent the first sentence when you write a paragraph.
- The second sentence follows the first sentence on the same line. It does not go on a new line.

INDENT

→ My classmate Yelena Politova is an interesting person. She is from Ukraine. She speaks Ukrainian and Russian. She lives with her family. She is married. She has one son and one daughter. She works part-time at an animal hospital. I hope to learn more about her.

PRACTICE 2

Using Paragraph Format

These sentences are not in the form of a paragraph. Take a sheet of paper and copy the sentences in paragraph form.

My classmate Jason Kim is an interesting person.
He is from Seoul, South Korea. He speaks Korean.
He is not married.
He lives on campus. He has a roommate.
He likes to play soccer and video games.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE AND MECHANICS

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete idea. A sentence has a subject and a verb.

SUBJECT VERB SUBJECT VERB Hiro plays the guitar. He loves music.

The subject of a sentence can be a noun, like Hiro, classroom, or students, or it can be a subject pronoun (I, you, we, he, she, it, or they). The verb follows the subject. A verb often describes an action, like the word play or eat.

Subjects and Verbs

Work alone or with a partner. Circle the verb in each sentence. Write V above it. Then underline the subject of the verb. Write S above it.

- 2. We come from seven different countries.
- 3. The class starts every day at 9:00 A.M.
- 4. We meet in Building C, Room 301.
- 5. Our teacher is Mr. Robinson.
- 6. He is young and friendly.
- 7. He speaks slowly.
- 8. I understand him most of the time but not always.
- 9. I am a beginner.
- 10. In this class, all the students are beginners.

STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

There are different kinds of sentences. Some sentences are statements, and some sentences are questions.

Look at the example sentences in the chart.

- How are statements and questions the same?
- How are they different?

SENTENCES
Statements	Questions
I am from Somalia.	Where are you from?
My name is Mumina.	What is your name?
I am a new student.	Are you a new student?
My first language is Somali.	Do you speak Spanish?

Word Order in Statements

Work alone or with a partner. Put the words in order. Write statements. Add periods.

- 1. is / My class / big My class is big.
- 2. 24 classmates / have / I ______
- 3. from many countries / come / We _____
- 4. friendly / My classmates / are _____
- 5. Ms. Green / is / The teacher's name _____
- 6. We / in room 245 / meet _____
- 7. from / I / China / am _____
- 8. language / first / is / My / Chinese _____

PRACTICE 5

Word Order in Questions

- Mork alone or with a partner. Put the words in order. Write questions. Add question marks.
  - 1. your name / What is What is your name?
  - 2. How / your name / do you spell _____
  - 3. from / are you / Where _____
  - 4. What / your first language / is _____
  - 5. live / do you / Where _____
  - 6. are there in your family / people / How many _____
- B What are the students in this picture saying? Write a question from Part A. Write an answer.

SENTENCE MECHANICS

Sentences need capital letters and punctuation. A sentence begins with a capital letter and has a punctuation mark at the end.

Rules	Examples
1. Use a capital letter for the first word in a sentence.	T the class is in room 342.
2. Put a period (.) after a statement.	This sentence is a statement .
3. Put a question mark (?) after a question.	Do you have any questions ?

PRACTICE 6

Capital Letters and End Punctuation

Add a capital letter to each sentence. Put a period after each statement. Put a question mark after each question.

- 1. are you married?
- 2. my friend speaks English
- 3. are you from China
- 4. he is from Mexico
- 5. do you drink coffee
- 6. our class starts at eight o'clock
- 7. where do you live
- 8. how do you spell your name
- 9. she works part time
- 10. we like to go dancing

PRACTICE 7

Editing for Errors with Capital Letters

Find four more missing capital letters. Make corrections.

M

my name is Mayra. I am from the Dominican Republic. my first language is Spanish. now I live in Hartford. today is my first day in this school. I want to learn English. it is very important for my future.

Editing for Errors with Capital Letters and Periods

Correct the errors in this paragraph. Add five more capital letters and seven more periods.

Kazumi is one of my classmates . she is from Japan she speaks Japanese her parents live in Tokyo she has no brothers or sisters she is single Kazumi likes music and fashion her clothes are beautiful

TRY IT OUT!

Complete the information about your class. Then take a sheet of paper and write your six sentences as a paragraph.

	Examples
	1. I am taking English 10 (course name / number)
	2. My class meets on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday
	(day or days)	11.45 A M
	3. It meets from 9:30 A.M to to	(end time)
1.	I am taking (course name / number)
2.	My class meets on (day or days)
3.	It meets from to (start time)	end time)
4.	We meet in (building name / room number)
5.	Our teacher's name is (name)
6.	The work is (easy / hard / interesting)

VERBS

On page 5, you learned about sentences. A sentence needs a verb.

Some verbs are words for actions. This kind of verb describes movement or change. The verbs in these two sentences about Miki are action verbs. They tell what Miki does. You can see Miki in action.

Miki drives a convertible.

She sings.

Verbs do not always describe actions. The verbs in these two sentences about Miki do not describe any movement or change. They are non-action verbs. In the pictures, Miki is not doing anything.

Miki is a student.

She has friends at school.

Recognizing Verbs

Circle the verb in each sentence.

- 1. I have a cell phone.
- 2. I make calls to my friends every day.
- 3. My friends call me, too.
- 4. We talk a lot.
- 5. Sometimes my friends leave me a voicemail.
- 6. I listen to my messages.
- 7. Sometimes my friends send me text messages.
- 8. My phone has a camera.
- 9. I take a lot of pictures with it.
- 10. My phone is very important to me.

PRACTICE 10

Building Sentences

Work alone or with a partner. Write six statements. Use words from the box. Use all six verbs.

THE SIMPLE PRESENT OF THE VERB*BE*

The words am, are, and is are verbs. They are the simple present forms of the verb be. The verb be is the verb that people use most often in English. Be is the base form of the verb.

The chart shows statements with am, are, and is. It shows affirmative statements and negative statements. To make a statement negative, use not.

Statements with the Verb Be

Singular		Plural
Subject	Be	(Not)		Subject	Be	(Not)
I	am are	(not)		We
You				You
Не			( ()	( 1)		() 1			( ()	1
She			ot) ready.	They	are	(not)	ready.
It	is
Bill				Bill and Al

See Appendix C3, page 199, for contractions with the verb be.

PRACTICE 11 The Verb Be in Affirmative Statements

Underline the subject of each statement. Write the correct form of the verb be.

- 1. This exercise easy.
- 2. I ______ a new student.
- 3. You _____ my partner.
- 4. We ______ on page 12.
- 5. My classmates ______ all here today.
- 6. The class ______ in Room C250.
- 7. My classes ______ all in one building.
- 8. You and I ______ in the same group.
- 9. The teacher ______ in the classroom.
- 10. Her first language _____ English.

The Verb Be in Negative Statements

Write negative statements. Use the correct form of the verb be + not.

- 1. You / late You are not late.
- 2. The exercises / difficult _____
- 3. It / cold today _____
- 4. My friends / here _____
- 5. The teacher / in his office _____
- 6. You and Olga / in this group _____
- 7. I / hungry _____
- 8. We / on page 12 _____

BASIC SENTENCE PATTERNS WITH THE VERB BE

The verb be has many uses. Here are three ways to use be in sentences.

Rules	Examples
1. To identify a person or thing: Use be + a noun.	I am a new student.  Mali is a country in Africa.
2. To tell where someone or something is: Use be + an expression of place.	Our room is on the third floor.  I am from Lebanon.
3. To describe someone or something: Use be + an adjective or age.	Maria and Luis are married.  I am 20 years old.

Sentence Patterns with the Verb Be

Work alone or with a partner. What follows the verb be in each of these statements? In each statement, underline the form of be and the words after it. Then circle noun, place, or adjective or age.

1. I am 30 years old.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
2. My nickname is Niko.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
3. I am not married.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
4. My family is not here.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
5. My parents are teachers.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
6. I am from a small town.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
7. My eyes are brown.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
8. My favorite sport is soccer.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
9. This work is easy.	be + noun / place / adjective or age
10. We are on page 14.	be + noun / place / adjective or age

PRACTICE 14 Statements with the Verb Be

Marco is writing about himself and his school. Complete Marco's statements with a subject from the box + am, is, or are.

THE WRITING PROCESS

You are going to write a paragraph to introduce yourself. To write the paragraph, you will follow a process.

A process is a series of steps or actions. Many things we do in our everyday lives involve following a process. For example, we follow a process when we do laundry or when we follow a recipe to cook something.

Writers also follow a process. Following the steps in the writing process can help you write clear and correct paragraphs.

THE STEPS IN THE WRITING PROCESS

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

You begin the process by getting ideas for your paragraph. There are many ways to get ideas. You can look at models, make lists, or get ideas from talking with a partner. You will learn about other prewriting activities, too.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

The first time that you write a paragraph, you produce your first draft. Your work is not finished! Writing the first draft is only one step in the process. Writers usually need to write more than one draft to produce good work.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

Revising and editing are important parts of the writing process.

- Revise means change. For example, you can revise a plan or revise your opinion about something. When you revise a paragraph, you add new information, take out sentences, or change the order of the ideas.
- Edit means check for mistakes and make corrections.

Sometimes you will do peer review before you revise and edit. Your peers are your classmates. When you do peer review, you work with a classmate as your partner. You read each other's paragraphs and talk about them.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

Sometimes a writer's first draft needs no changes. This does not happen often! Most of the time, a writer needs to write two drafts—or more. Give your new draft to your teacher.

PRACTICE 16

Discussing the Writing Process

Look at the picture of the writing process. Talk about these questions with your class.

- What is happening in these pictures?
- Where does the writing process begin?
- What is the next step?
- What happens next?
- What happens after the teacher looks at a student's paragraph?

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph to introduce yourself. Follow the steps in the writing process.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

a.	Think about what information you want to give in your paragraph Check $(\checkmark)$ five or more boxes in this list.
		□ my family
	□ my home country	□ my classes at school
	□ the language(s) I speak	□ my job
	□ my age	$\hfill\Box$ what I like to do in my free time
	□ where I live	$\square$ my plans for the future
	□ other information:

b. Look at the three writing models on pages 2 and 3. Underline any words or sentences you want to use in your paragraph.

EXAMPLE

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

a. Take a sheet of paper. Begin to write your paragraph. Indent the first sentence. Write:

I would like to introduce myself.

b. Write sentences about yourself. Use your ideas from Step 1. Write your sentences in the form of a paragraph. This is your first draft.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

Writing Tip

A good way to review a first draft is to read it out loud. You can read it out loud to yourself, or you can read it to a classmate or a friend. It is also good to have someone read your draft out loud while you listen. Hearing your paragraph can help you revise and edit.

- a. Work with a partner. Take turns reading your paragraphs out loud.
  - Is anything unclear? Tell your partner, "I don't understand."
  - Do you want more information? Say, "Tell me more
- b. Do you need to make any of these changes to your paragraph?
  - Adding more information
  - Changing words
  - Adding capital letters or periods
  - Indenting
- c. Mark any changes on your paper.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper. Write your paragraph again.
- b. When your new draft is ready, hand it in to your teacher.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- O Put sentences into paragraph form
- Identify subjects and verbs in sentences
- Use capital letters and end punctuation in sentences
- O Write sentences with the verb be
- O Write, revise, and edit a paragraph to introduce yourself

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 🐧

YOUR JOURNAL

Keeping a journal can help you become a better writer. In a journal, you write about your life and your ideas. You can write in a notebook, or you can keep a journal online. An online journal is sometimes called a blog.

Each time you write in your journal, you make a journal entry. Your teacher will read your journal entries and write back to you about them. Your journal will be like a conversation between you and your teacher. In your journal, you can ask your teacher questions. Your teacher can ask you questions, too. Write the answers or talk to your teacher.

Your journal writing will be different from the other writing you do for this class. You will not need to correct any mistakes in your journal entries.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) about Journals

1. What should I write about?

You can write about things that happen in your life or things you are thinking about. You will also find ideas for journal entries in this book.

2. Who decides on the topic for a journal entry?

Sometimes your teacher will give you a topic. Sometimes you can choose your own topic.

3. Who will read my journal?

Your teacher will. You can share it with friends and classmates, too, if you want to.

4. How long should my journal entries be? How often should I write journal entries? How often will the teacher read them? Ask your teacher.

Look at this example of an entry in Murat's journal and the teacher's comments.

	April 26
	Soccer is my favorite sport. I played soccer at my high school. Now I
This is called play with friends every day at 4:30 or 5:00 p.m. We play near with anyone who comes).	Great! I'm glad you have a chance to play your sport.

	Do you ever watch soccer on TV?

- 1. Get a notebook to use for your journal. If you are writing your journal on a computer, follow your teacher's instructions. Remember to:
  - Put the date before each journal entry.
  - Leave margins on the left and right side of each notebook page.
  - Leave some space after each journal entry, too. Your teacher will need space in your journal to write back to you.
- 2. For your first journal entry, write about yourself. What do you want your teacher to know about you? What is important in your life?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 2

EVERYDAY ROUTINES

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Use correct page formats for paragraphs
- Identify and use different types of nouns
- Write and edit sentences with nouns and subject pronouns
- Use simple present verbs in sentences
- Give feedback on a partner's first draft
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about your morning routine

Time to get up

A morning run

INTRODUCTION

A routine is your normal or usual way of doing things. If you usually do the same things every morning, you have a morning routine. In this chapter, you will write a paragraph about what you do to get ready for the day.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, two students describe their morning routines.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

and eat breakfast with my friends. That is my morning routine.

My Morning Routine It is easy for me to get ready for the day. I wake up at 8:30 A.M., and I get up right away. I brush my teeth and wash my face. I get dressed and comb my hair. I check my phone for messages. Then I put it in my pocket. I put my books and my notebook in my backpack. I leave my room by 8:50 A.M. I walk to the University Language Center. My first class is from 9:00 to 10:20 A.M. After class, I am very hungry. I go to the dining hall

Getting Ready for the Day

I do many things to get ready for the day. My alarm goes off at 6:30 A.M., and I get up. First, I make coffee. Then I take a shower. I get dressed, fix my hair, and put on my makeup. At 7:15 A.M., I wake up my husband and my children. I help my children get dressed. Then we have breakfast. At 8:00 A.M., I walk my daughter to the school bus stop. After that, I drive my son to daycare. Finally, I go to school for my 9:00 A.M. class. That is my busy morning routine.

Questions about the Model

1.	What is the topic of the paragraph?
2.	What word describes the morning routine of this writer? Circle it: (easy / busy)
3.	How much time does the writer need before class?
4.	What simple present verbs does the writer use in these sentences? Fill in the blanks.

Looking at Vocabulary: Word Partners

Word partners are words that go together, like the verb wash and the noun face in I wash my face. Do not use the verb clean with face. Those words do not go together. Learning about word partners (also called collocations) will help you write better.

Identifying Word Partners PRACTICE 1

- Circle the verb that goes with the boldfaced noun in each sentence. Find the sentences in the writing models on pages 23 and 24 to check your answers.
  - 1. I (clean / brush) my teeth and wash my face.
  - 2. I (do / make) many things to get ready for the day.
  - 3. First, I (do / make) coffee.
  - 4. Then I (get / take) a shower.
  - 5. I get dressed, (fix / make) my hair, and put on my makeup.
  - 6. Then we (have / take) breakfast.
- Complete the sentences with word partners. Use the verbs in the box. You can find all these verbs in the writing models.

FORMATTING THE PAGE

You will write many paragraphs for this class. When you write a paragraph, you need to think about format—the way everything looks on the page.

The paper

Use lined paper. Paper that is 8 1/2 by 11 inches is a good size.

The heading

The heading goes at the top of the page. It includes your name and the date. Your teacher may ask you to add other information, too.

The title

A title tells the topic of the paragraph. A title is not a sentence. It is just a few words or sometimes only one word. The title goes on the top line, in the middle.

Skipping lines

Do not write on the line below the title. Skip that line. Begin writing on the third line. The teacher may ask you to continue skipping lines. Skipping lines makes your paragraph easy to read. It also gives the teacher space to write in.

Margins

Leave spaces on the left and right sides of the page. These spaces are the margins.

Words at the end of a line

Sometimes a word is too long to fit at the end of a line. Do not divide the word into two parts. Move the whole word to the beginning of the next line.

Do Noт Do Tнis:	Do Тніs:
I do not always take time for breakfast in the morning. Sometimes I skip it.	I do not always take time for breakfast in the morning. Sometimes I skip it.

The formatted page should look like this:

MARGIN	Paolo Romano  December 8  English	MARGIN
	My Sunday Routine
	Sunday is a day for family. In the morning, I have SKIP LINES	breakfast with my wife and daughter. Later, we go to my parents' house. My brother and sister come with their families. 1 help my father in the garden. At 1:00, we have a big dinner. I always eat too much. After dinner, we clean ир. Then we go home. I like Sundays with my family.

PRACTICE 2 Identifying Errors in Format

Mork alone or with a partner. Look at Vu's paragraph. What problems do you see in the format? Mark them with circles or arrows.

Rewrite Vu's paragraph on a sheet of paper. Use the correct format.

Page Format for Work Done on a Computer

Margins

Set margins at the top and bottom of the page and on the left and right sides of the page. Make them about one inch (or 3 cm) wide. Most computer programs do this for you.

The heading

The heading goes at the top of the page. The heading includes your name and the date. The teacher may ask you to add other information, too.

The title

The title goes above the paragraph. Put it lower than the heading, centered on the page.

Line spacing

Double space your paragraph. The spaces between the lines make it easy to read. They give the teacher room to write.

Do Noт Do Tнis:	Do This:
These sentences are single-spaced. There is very little space between the lines. There is not enough space to write corrections.	These sentences are double-spaced.  There is space between the lines for corrections.

Spaces in sentences

Leave only one space after each word. Do not leave a space before a period or other end punctuation.

Do Noт Do Tнis:	Do Tнis:
This spacing is not correct.	This spacing is correct.

Saving your work

Remember to save your work. Ask your teacher how to name files.

PRACTICE 3

Identifying Errors in Format

Work alone or with a partner. Look at Deko's paper. Mark any problems you see in the format. Check the:

- Margins
- Heading
- Title
- Space between the lines
- Spaces in the sentences

My Computer

by Deko Hussein

My computer is helpful. I use it for school. I do homework on my computer. I also use my computer to write to my family and friends. Sometimes I use my computer for phone calls and video calls. I use my computer for the Internet, too. I use Facebook and watch videos online. I am very happy to have my computer.

GRAMMAR AND SENTENCE STRUCTURE

NOUNS

A noun is a word for a person, a place, a thing, or an idea. Look at the chart. The boldfaced words in the sentences are nouns.

Nouns Can Be:	EXAMPLES
1. Words for people	My daughter is at school. Do you know David?
2. Words for places	We usually eat in the kitchen . They are going to San Diego .
3. Words for things	I love ice cream . He drives a Hyundai .
4. Words for ideas	My education is important to me. Do you speak French ?

Some nouns in the chart begin with capital letters: David, San Diego, Hyundai, and French. These words are proper nouns. A proper noun is the name of a specific person, place, thing, or idea. A proper noun always begins with a capital letter.

The other nouns in the sentences (daughter, kitchen, ice cream, education) are common nouns. A common noun does not need a capital letter.

PRACTICE 4

Identifying Types of Nouns

Work alone or with a partner. Write person, place, thing, or idea above each boldfaced noun in the paragraph. For some nouns, there may be more than one answer.

This is what I usually do in the afternoon.

place/thing
I leave school and take the bus downtown with my friends. I do not go home. My little brothers are there, and the television is always on, so our apartment is noisy. Instead, I go to the library. There
I can do my homework. On some days, I can get help from a tutor. I like to look at magazines, too, like

Sports Illustrated. I usually spend two hours there.

Singular and Plural Nouns

Most nouns have singular and plural forms. Singular means "only one." Plural means "more than one." Plural nouns usually end in -s.

Some plural nouns are irregular. They do not follow the rules for plural nouns. They do not end in -s.

Regula	r N ouns	Irregular Nouns
Singular Plural		Singular	Plural
1 hot dog	2 hot dogs	1 person	2 people
1 watch	2 watch es	1 man	2 men
1 city	2 cit ies	1 woman	2 women
		1 child	2 children

See Appendix C2, page 197, for spelling rules, plural forms of regular nouns, and more irregular nouns.

PRACTICE 5

Editing for Noun Errors

Work alone or with a partner. Find 13 more errors. Make corrections.

I come from a big family. There are nine peoples in my immediate family: my parent, my three brothers, my three sister, and me. My extended family is much bigger. It includes my four grandparent, 14 aunt, and 14 uncle. My aunt and uncle all have childrens, so I have many cousin. Ten of my cousin are boy (or men), and 12 of them are girl (or woman). When my family has a party, sometimes 50 or 60 relative come to our house.

Count the people and things in the picture. Write 12 sentences with There. Use:

There is + one + (singular noun).

There are + (two or more) + (plural noun).

For help with spelling plural nouns, see Appendix C2 on page 197.

- 1. (man) There is one man.
- 2. (child) There are three children.
- 3. (woman) _____
- 4. (baby) _____
- 5. (person) _____
- 6. (family) _____
- 7. (table) _____
- 8. (banana) _____
- 9. (bowl) _____
- 10. (box) of cereal _____
- 11. (glass) of juice _____
- 12. (teapot) _____

SUBJECT PRONOUNS

A pronoun takes the place of a noun. A subject pronoun takes the place of a noun as the subject of a sentence. Look at this example:

He

Ahmed studies at home. Ahmed studies in his room.

THE SUBJECT PRONOUNS
Singular	Plural
I	we
you	you
he she	they it

Rules	Examples
1. Use a noun or a subject pronoun, not both.	My brother has a new car.  He has a new car.  NOT: My brother he has a new car.
<ul> <li>2. Use it to tell:</li> <li>the time</li> <li>the day</li> <li>the date</li> <li>the weather</li> </ul>	It is nine o'clock. / It is 9:00. It is Wednesday. It is September 25. It snows in the mountains in winter.
3. Use they to refer to people or things.	The children are small. They are two years old.  The cars are not new. They are two years old.
4. Use I , not me , as the subject of a sentence.	My wife and I  Me and my wife get up early.

Using Subject Pronouns

Write a subject pronoun in place of the crossed-out words.

- 1. My brother does not like to get up in the morning. My brother likes to sleep.
- 2. My mother is an early riser. My mother gets up at 5:00 A.M.
- 3. My father likes mornings. My father is a morning person.
- 4. My roommate and I are not morning people. My roommate and I are night owls.
- 5. My alarm clock wakes me up in the morning. My alarm clock is loud.
- 6. My friends do not drink coffee in the morning. My friends prefer tea.
- 7. Our classes start early. Our classes start at 8:00 A.M.
- 8. What time is it? The time is 7:30.
- 9. How is the weather? The weather is warm and sunny today.
- 10. What is today's date? Today's date is February 2.

PRACTICE 7

Correcting Subject Pronoun Errors

Find one pronoun error in each statement. Make corrections.

- 1. My friends and i'like to go out in the evening.
- 2. The evening it is my favorite time of day.
- 3. Is Saturday today.
- 4. He is the weekend.
- 5. Me and my friends want to see a movie.
- 6. Is a good idea.
- 7. Where are your friends? She are at the mall.
- 8. Is six o'clock now.
- 9. My friends and I we like scary movies.
- 10. How much are the tickets? Are $5 for students.

THE SIMPLE PRESENT

Use verbs in the simple present to describe routines and habits—actions that happen again and again. For example:

I always eat lunch with friends.

Our class meets at 7:00 P.M. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The form of a simple present verb depends on the subject of the verb.

SIMPLE PRESENT: AFFIRMATIVE STATEMENTS
Singular Subject	Verb	Plural Subject	Verb
I You	sleep.	We
He She It	sleeps.	You They	sleep.

Rules	Examples
1. After he , she , it , or a singular noun subject, the verb ends in -s , -es , or -ies . These are third person singular subjects and verbs.	He buys things online.  She does homework after school.  My mother worries about me.
2. The verb have is irregular . It is not like other verbs.	I/You/We/They have juice. He/She/It has water.

See Appendix C4, page 203, for spelling rules for third person singular verbs.

PRACTICE 8 Using Simple Present Verbs

Complete each sentence. Write the correct form of the verb.

- 1. (have / has) I _____ two roommates, Joe and Michael.
- 2. (do / does) My roommates and I ______ the same things every weekend.
- 3. (work / works) Joe ______ at a restaurant on Friday and Saturday nights.

- 4. (have / has) It ______ good pizza.
- 5. (eat / eats) I ______ there with friends every weekend.
- 6. (spend / spends) Michael ______ time outdoors on weekends.
- 7. (go / goes) He ______ for long rides on his bike.
- 8. (play / plays) He and his friends ______ soccer, too.
- 9. (have / has) Joe, Michael, and I ______ a good time on weekends.
- 10. (study / studies) On Sunday evening, we all _____ at the library.

PRACTICE 9

Spelling Third Person Singular Verbs

Write the simple present verb. Use the third person singular form. For help with spelling, see the rules on page 203.

- 1. (fly) A pilot _____ flies ____ a plane.
- 2. (cook) Jason ______ for his family.
- 3. (fix) He _____ cars.
- 4. (wash) Who _____ the dishes?
- 5. (study) She _____ math.
- 6. (watch) Sarah ______ sports on TV.
- 7. (have) She ______ brown hair.
- 8. (rain) It ______ every day in some places.
- 9. (read) She ______ her email.
- 10. (go) Gina ______ to work by train.

PRACTICE 10

Correcting Verb Errors

Find one verb error in each statement. Make corrections.

- 1. I am get up at 7:00 A.M.
- 2. First, I am take a shower.
- 3. A hot shower feel good in the morning.
- 4. We has a small TV in the kitchen.

- 5. Sometimes we watches the news on TV.
- 6. Pancakes my favorite breakfast.
- 7. We drinks coffee in the morning.
- 8. Coffee get me ready for the day.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Word Partners

You will need to use word partners when you write about your morning routine on page 40. Review what you learned about word partners on page 25. Then study this list of verbs and nouns that go together.

Sometimes two verbs can go with a noun and both have the same meaning. For example, I have tea in the morning has the same meaning as I drink tea in the morning.

Word Partners
Verb Noun
drink/have	coffee, tea
make	a phone call
take	the bus, my car
wash/do	the dishes
watch	TV

PRACTICE 11

Using Verb + Noun Word Partners

Complete the sentences with verbs from the box. Choose the verb that goes with the boldfaced noun in the sentence.

check	do	fix	have	make	take
1. In the r	nornin	g. I	check	mv	phone f
2. Next, I	·			,	Promo
3. After the	nat, I _			breakfas	st.
4. Then I			the d	ishes.
5. Someti	mes I _			. phone o	calls.
6. I		1	ny hair be	efore I go	out.

TRY IT OUT!

Write five or more true statements about yourself. In each statement, use one verb and one noun from the boxes. Use word partners.

Verbs brush comb		fix have	make take	wash watch
Nouns breakfast bus	coffee face			tea teeth	thing TV	gs
EXAMPLE  Every morni	ing, I make	e breakfas	st for m	y family.

THE WRITING PROCESS

Your writing assignment for this chapter will be a paragraph about your morning routine. To complete the assignment, you will follow the steps of the writing process.

Step 3 in that process is "Revise and edit the first draft." To help you revise and edit, you are going to do peer review.

PEER REVIEW

When you do peer review, you work with a partner and give each other feedback. You say what you think about your partner's paragraph, and your partner does the same for you.

When you look at your partner's paragraph, you need to think about these things:

- the content (the ideas and information)
- the words and sentences
- the page format

When you give feedback, it is important to be honest.

- When something in the paragraph is not clear, ask your partner, "What does this mean?"
- When the paragraph needs more information, say what you think is missing.
- When you see problems in grammar or spelling, tell your partner.

When you give feedback, it is also important to be kind. Remember that it is easy to hurt a writer's feelings. Always find something nice to say about your partner's work. For example, you can say:

"Your paragraph is interesting."

"I liked reading about ____."

"Nice work!"

"Thank you for showing me your paragraph."

PRACTICE 12

Doing Peer Review

Work with a partner. Henry and his partner did peer review. Look at the first draft. Answer the questions.

- What changes does Henry's partner think Henry should make?
- What do you think they talked about?
- Do you agree with the feedback?
- What other problems do you see with this draft?

Comparing First and Second Drafts

Work with a partner. Look at Henry's second draft. Henry revised and edited his paragraph after peer review. What is different? What changes did Henry make and why?

Henry Liu February 1 English 112-01

Getting Ready for the Day

It is easy for me to get ready for the day. My alarm clock wakes me up at 7:30 A.M. I get up and take a shower. Then I get dressed. I drive to school at 8:15 A.M. First, I go to the cafeteria. I am very hungry in the morning. I eat cereal, fruit, eggs, and toast. I drink juice and tea. I talk with my friends. Finally, I go to my class at 9:00 A.M. That is my morning routine.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about your morning routine. Follow the steps in the writing process.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Take a sheet of paper. Make a list of the things you do in the morning to get ready for the day. Begin with the time you get up. Do not write complete sentences. Just take notes—write a few words.
- b. Work with a partner. Ask your partner, "What do you do in the morning?" Take turns describing your morning routines. Try to use the words from the box.

7:00 A.M.—get up check phone shower, shave first then next after that finally

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

- a. Choose a title for your paragraph. You can use one of these titles:
  - Getting Ready for the Day
  - My Morning Routine
- b. Begin your paragraph with a general statement about your morning routine. Look at the writing models on pages 23 and 24 for examples.
- c. Continue your paragraph, using your notes from Step 1.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet. Remember to be honest but kind.

- Return your partner's paper. Remember to say something nice about it.
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher. Mark any changes you want to make.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper. Write your second draft.
- b. Check your paragraph carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

Writing Tip

When you check for mistakes, read slowly. Sometimes using a ruler (or a sheet of paper) can help. Place it under the line you are checking. Move the ruler down as you read. Look at your paragraph word by word, one line at a time.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- Use correct page formats for paragraphs
- Identify and use different types of nouns
- Write and edit sentences with nouns and subject pronouns
- O Use simple present verbs in sentences
- O Give feedback on a partner's first draft
- O Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about your morning routine

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 🐧

ON YOUR OWN

Write a paragraph about your sleep habits. You can use "My Sleep Habits" as a title. You can begin your paragraph with one of these sentences:

I am happy with my sleep habits.

My sleep habits are not good.

- 1. Use these questions to help you take notes before you begin writing your first draft. Follow the steps of the writing process described on pages 40–42.
  - Do you get enough sleep, or are you often tired?
  - How many hours of sleep do you need?
  - What time do you usually go to bed?
  - What time do you usually get up?
  - Are weekday and weekend nights the same or different for you?
- 2. Write your first draft.
- 3. Ask a classmate to review your paragraph, or use the Peer Review Worksheet on page 41 to help you revise and edit.
- 4. Prepare a new draft, and give it to your teacher.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. Write as much as you can. Write as often as you can.

Do not worry about writing perfect sentences. Your journal entries are not formal compositions. A journal entry is like a message to a friend.

You can think of your own topics for your journal entries. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Write about a favorite food or drink. When and where do you have it? Do you make it, does someone make it for you, or do you buy it?
- Draw a picture or put a photo in your journal. Then write about it.
- Write about how you learn new words in English. Where do you find them? Do you write new words in a notebook? What kind of dictionary do you have?

CHAPTER 3

EVERY PICTURE TELLS A STORY

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Use topic sentences in paragraphs
- Identify noun and pronoun subjects of sentences
- Identify and correct incomplete sentences
- Use the negative forms of simple present verbs
- Use adjectives to describe people, places, things, and ideas
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a person in a photo

Who are the people in these photos? What are their stories?

INTRODUCTION

When you look at a picture of someone new, you know some things about that person, but not everything. You can use your imagination to create a story about the person's life. Your imagination is your ability to form new ideas or pictures in your mind. In this chapter, you will use your imagination to write about a person in a photo.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

Two students used their imaginations to write about the man in the photo. They have different ideas about him, so their paragraphs tell different stories about his life.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

The Man in the Photo

The man in the photo is a hardworking man. His name is Ryan Murphy. He lives in Dallas, Texas. He is single. He lives with his two brothers. Ryan works in a factory. He works the second shift five days a week. He does not like this job. He wants a better job, so he goes to school. He is a part-time college student. He has classes three mornings a week. His classes are not easy. He works hard in school. In his free time, Ryan goes running and works out. On weekends, he plays basketball with friends. He leads a busy life.

Looking at Vocabulary: Go + -ing Verbs

The verb go is often used with a verb ending in -ing to describe an activity.

We go swimming in the summer.

Do you ever go bowling?

  - □ go fishing □ go swimming

Do you ever go camping?

ORGANIZATION

Writers need to make their paragraphs easy for readers to understand. One way to help the reader is to use a topic sentence.

TOPIC SENTENCES

A topic sentence comes at the beginning of a paragraph. The topic sentence gives the writer's main idea about the topic. A good topic sentence helps readers understand the paragraph.

The Parts of a Topic Sentence

A topic sentence has two parts:

- a topic—what the paragraph is about, and
- a controlling idea—what the writer is going to focus on in the paragraph.

David Freeman is a good father.

This topic sentence tells the reader that the paragraph will be about David Freeman. It will be about David as a father. The paragraph will not have other information about David. For example, it will not tell the reader about his education, his friends, or his future plans.

Either the topic or the controlling idea can come first in a topic sentence. Compare these two topic sentences:

Scuba diving requires careful preparation.

CONTROLLING IDEA

TOPIC

TOPIC

You must prepare carefully before going scuba diving.

Sometimes the topic and the controlling idea are in two sentences. In this example, the topic is the twin sisters Emma and Alyssa. The controlling idea—that they have different interests—is in the second sentence.

Emma and Alyssa are twins. They look very much alike, but they have different interests. For example, Emma likes to . . .

Not all paragraphs begin with a topic sentence, but topic sentences are an important part of academic writing in English. You will need good topic sentences for paragraphs that you write as a student.

PRACTICE 2

Analyzing Topic Sentences

Find the topic sentence of each paragraph. Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea.

PARAGRAPH 1

The man in the photo has a terrible job. His name is Bob Walker, and he works for Bigg Computers. Every day, customers call him on the phone. They are unhappy about their computers. He does not like to listen to them. Sometimes they get angry, and they yell at Bob. Then he gets angry, too. He needs a new job.

PARAGRAPH 2

It is easy to make good chocolate chip cookies. Just buy a bag of chocolate chips at the supermarket and look for the recipe on the back. The recipe will list the other ingredients you need. At home, measure the ingredients and mix them to make the cookie dough. Put the dough into the refrigerator and wait for 24 hours. (That is the only hard part—waiting!) Follow the instructions to bake the cookies. The last step is the easiest part of all: eating the cookies warm from the oven.

Paragraph 3

A betta makes a good pet for several reasons. First, it is a beautiful fish, especially in the sunlight. The light brings out its amazing color. Second, it is easy to take care of a betta. Just feed it every day, and give it clean water once a week. Finally, a betta is not expensive. You do not have to spend much money on the fish, its food, or its fishbowl. I tell all my friends to get a betta.

Paragraph 4

My five-year-old nephew is a very funny little boy. I like to listen to him sing along with the radio. He often gets the words wrong. Sometimes he does it by mistake, and sometimes he does it on purpose, to make me laugh. I enjoy spending time with my funny little nephew.

PRACTICE 3

Choosing a Topic Sentence

Work alone or with a partner. Read each paragraph and the three sentences that follow it. Choose the best topic sentence for the paragraph and write it on the line.

PARAGRAPH 1

He was the captain of two sports teams at our high school. He was our best wrestler and our best tennis player. He is also a good swimmer and a fast runner. He runs every day to stay in shape. Sometimes Kai and I play pingpong together. Kai usually wins. He is good at ping-pong, too.

- a. Kai is a great friend.
- b. My friend Kai and I like sports.
- c. My friend Kai is good at sports.

Paragraph 2

. For example, butterflies called Painted Ladies fly all the way from Europe to Africa. They also fly from Australia to New Zealand. Monarch butterflies fly from Canada to Mexico. That trip can be 3,000 miles long. It is amazing how far some butterflies can fly.

- a. Butterflies are beautiful.
- b. Some butterflies are great travelers.
- c. Butterflies live in many parts of the world.

A monarch butterfly

Paragraph 3

I like to have photos of family and friends to look at. I live far away from many of them now, and I miss them. The photos remind me of good times together. I also have many photos of my daughters growing up. It makes me happy to look at these photos and remember when my girls were babies. My daughters like to look at their old photos, too. The photos are fun for us to talk about.

- a. Photos are important to me.
- b. Everyone needs a good camera.
- c. Taking pictures can be quick and easy.

PARAGRAPH 4

_ First, I admire her because she has many talents. She is a very good actor and singer. Second, she is also a movie producer, so I think she is smart. Finally, she seems like a good person. She visits schools to talk to teenagers about the value of education. She also talks about good health care for all women. I respect her ideas and her work. I hope she has a great career.

- a. America Ferrera is an unusual woman.
- b. I admire America Ferrera for several reasons.
- c. America Ferrera was in the TV series Ugly Betty.

TV and movie star America Ferrera

Topic Sentences and Titles

Each paragraph you write for a Writing Assignment in this book should have a title. The title and the topic sentence both help the reader understand what the paragraph will be about.

A title is usually not a complete sentence, and it does not do the job of a topic sentence. The topic sentence, not the title, has the topic and the controlling idea for the paragraph.

Writing Tip

It is a good idea to wait and write the title after you write your first draft of a paragraph. When you do that, the title does not affect your thinking about the topic sentence. Finish the first draft, check the topic sentence, and then add a title.

A topic sentence cannot refer back to the title, so sometimes the topic sentence must repeat words from the title. Do not begin a topic sentence with He or She, even when the person's name is in the title.

Do Noт Do Tнis:	Do Тніs:
Gustavo's Favorite Day	Gustavo's Favorite Day
He likes Saturdays because he	Saturday is Gustavo's favorite can sleep in. He	day of the week. He likes Saturdays

PRACTICE 4

Topic Sentences and Titles

Underline the topic sentence in each paragraph. Choose the best title for that paragraph and write it on the line.

PARAGRAPH 1

Why I Like Classroom Discussions

I enjoy classroom discussions for several reasons. For example, I like to hear my classmates talk. There are some interesting people in my class, and I like to hear their ideas and opinions. I also like to practice speaking English. Classroom discussions help me learn to speak better. They make time in class go by faster, too. These are just a few of the reasons why discussions make classes more interesting.

- a. My English Class
- b. Speaking English in Class
- c. Why I Like Classroom Discussions

Paragraph 2

Everyone in my family loves music. We listen to music all the time. My parents like classical music and jazz. My sisters like popular music, and they love to sing karaoke. My brother likes rock music and plays guitar in a rock band. I like all these kinds of music at different times. People in my family sometimes argue about music, for example in the car, but we all agree on one thing. Life is better with music.

- a. Music in My Life
- b. A Family of Music Lovers
- c. The Importance of Music

PARAGRAPH 3

Bicycling is a smart form of transportation. A bicycle is inexpensive, so everyone can afford to own and ride one. Bicycles are quiet and clean, unlike cars or buses. Also, riding a bicycle is good exercise, and most people today need more exercise. More people should try bicycling to school or work. It is the smart way to get where you are going.

PARAGRAPH 4

My sister Anna is a very outgoing person. She loves to be with people, and she loves to talk. She has many friends, and she is on the phone with them all day long. She is happy to meet new people, too. She makes friends easily. She is never shy. She has a warm and friendly nature, and I am happy that she is my sister.

- a. A Very Outgoing Person
- b. My Sociable Sister
- c. My Sister and I

TRY IT OUT!

Work alone or with a partner. Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea in each topic sentence. Then write two sentences you might find in that paragraph. Write a possible title for the paragraph.

1.	Topic Sentence: Cities are exciting places to live.
	There are interesting things to do, like going to restaurants, movies, and clubs.
	You can meet many new people in cities.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

SUBJECTS OF SENTENCES

In Chapter 1, you learned that a sentence has a subject and a verb. Here is more information about subjects.

Rules	EXAMPLES
1. A subject can be a noun or a subject pronoun.	Ryan likes sports. He watches sports on TV.
2. The subject comes before the verb in a statement.	On weekends, he plays basketball.
3. A verb can have more than one subject.	s s v  Ryan and his friends play at the park.

PRACTICE 5

Identifying Subjects and Verbs

Work alone or with a partner. Find the subject and the verb in each sentence. Circle the subject and write S above it. Underline the verb and write V above it.

1 My friend Mark Khajavi) is a talented photographer and a successful businessperson. 2 His photos are beautiful. 3 He takes pictures of people, places, and products. 4 People often ask him to take pictures at their weddings. 5 Companies hire him to take pictures of their products for advertisements. 6 Hotels and restaurants hire him to take pictures for their websites. 7 Most of the time, he works in Chicago. 8 Sometimes he travels to other parts of the country. 9 You can see examples of Mark's work on his website.

WRITING COMPLETE SENTENCES

These groups of words are not complete sentences. What is missing from each sentence?

INCORRECT: Is friendly.

INCORRECT: Has five people in her family.

Who is friendly? Who has five people in her family? The subjects of the sentences are missing. A sentence needs a subject. For example, you could write:

correct. Bella is friendly.

CORRECT: She has five people in her family.

These groups of words are not complete sentences either. What is missing from each sentence?

INCORRECT. My brother in Los Angeles.

INCORRECT: Apples, bananas, and pears good.

There are no verbs in the sentences. A sentence needs a verb. For example, you could write:

CORRECT: My brother is in Los Angeles.

CORRECT: Apples, bananas, and pears taste good.

PRACTICE 6

Identifying Incomplete Sentences

Work alone or with a partner. Look at each sentence. Check ( ) Complete or Incomplete. Correct each incomplete sentence and identify the problem: Write No subject or No verb.

	Сомрете	INCOMPLETE	WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?
1. a. The capital of China is Beijing.	V
b. Beijing a big city.		 ✓	No verb
c. The city 5,000 years old.
2. a. San Francisco has many attractions.
b. Is cool in the summer.
c. It has some interesting buildings.
3. a. Many tourists travel to Mexico.
b. Like Mexican food.
c. Visit the beaches there.

				PROBLEM?
4.	a.	The beaches of Thailand nice, too.
	b.	Tourists like the beaches of Thailand.
	c.	Many tourists photos.
5.	a.	Sydney a city in Australia.
	b.	It has a famous opera house.
	c.	Many visitors to Sydney.

COMPLETE INCOMPLETE WHAT'S THE

Railay Beach, Thailand

PRACTICE 7

Editing for Incomplete Sentences

Find six more incomplete sentences in this paragraph. Make corrections.

1 My friend Yasmin is an interesting person. 2 She lives in Seattle, She is Washington. 3 Is young and single. 4 She 24 years old. 5 Works in a women's clothing store. 6 Is a nice place to buy clothes. 7 Yasmin likes her job. 8 Clothes very important to her. 9 Loves to shop. 10 She spends her money on new clothes and shoes. 11 She has a plan to open a clothing store. 12 She wants to have her own business. 13 It a good idea.

NEGATIVE VERBS

In Chapter 1, you learned about the verb be in negative statements. Review the information in the chart.

THE VERB BE IN	NEGATI	VE STAT	EMENTS
Subject	Be	Not
I	am
You/We/They	are	not	ready.
He/She/It	is

In Chapter 2, you learned about simple present verbs in affirmative statements. These verbs have two forms.

SIMPLE PRESENT VERBS IN AFFI	RMATIVE STATEMENTS
Subject	Verb
I/You/We/They	work.
He/She/It	works.

Simple present verbs in negative statements have three parts:

- (1) do or does
- (2) not
- (3) the base form of the verb

SIMPLE PF	RESENT VERBS	IN N EG	ATIVE STATEMENTS
Subject	Do/Does	Not	Base Form of the Verb
I/You/We/They	do	not	work.
He/She/It	does	not	WOFK.

See Appendix C4, page 201, for contractions.

PRACTICE 8

Simple Present Verbs in Negative Statements

Underline the simple present verb in the first statement. Use the same verb to complete the second statement, but make it negative.

- 1. In soccer, the goalkeeper catches the ball with his or her hands. The other players do not catch the ball that way.
- 2. The goalkeeper wears gloves. The other players _____ gloves.
- 3. All the players on a team wear the team uniform except the goalkeeper. The goalkeeper ______ that uniform.
- 4. The goalkeeper stays near the goal. The other players ______ near the goal.
- 5. Some soccer players score goals. A goalkeeper _____ goals.
- 6. Most soccer players do a lot of running. The goalkeeper ____ much running.

PRACTICE 9

Affirmative and Negative Verbs

Complete the paragraph. Fill in each blank with the correct affirmative form of the verb in parentheses.

My brother Raúl leads a busy life. He 2. (have) a full-time job, and he long hours. He good money, and he spending  4. (make) spending money. He out on weekends with his friends. Raúl eating in restaurants and going shopping. He a nice car. On weekends, Raúl usually out having fun.

Rewrite the paragraph. Change Raúl to Hector. Make all the verbs negative.

My brother Hector does not lead a busy life. He does not have a full-time job, and ...

Correcting Verb Errors

Find one verb error in each statement. Make corrections.

needs

- 1. My best friend is need a new job.
- 2. My friend's name Massimiliano.
- 3. People calls him Max.
- 4. He work for a bank.
- 5. He is not like his job.
- 6. His job it's not the right job for him.
- 7. He is not want to stay at the bank.
- 8. He want to play his guitar all the time.
- 9. Max and his friends has a rock band.
- 10. They are good musicians, but they are not make any money.

TRY IT OUT!

Work alone or with a partner. On a sheet of paper, write eight or more sentences about the Kim sisters. Use your imagination. Include both affirmative and negative verbs in your sentences.

Ronnie teaches math at a high school.

Allison does not have a job.

All the sisters have boyfriends.

The Kim sisters: Lizzie, Emily, Ronnie, and Allison

ADJECTIVES

The different types of words are called the parts of speech. Verbs and nouns are two of the parts of speech. Adjectives are another part of speech.

Adjectives are used to describe people, places, things, and ideas. The highlighted words in the example sentences are adjectives. Each of the adjectives describes a noun or a subject pronoun. The words described are boldfaced.

The elevator is full.

He is tall.

I like my new phone.

Look at the chart for rules on using adjectives in sentences.

Rules		Ex	AMPLES
1. Use be + an adjective.		Be	Adjective
	She I	is am not	intelligent. shy.
2. Use an adjective + a noun.		Adjective	Noun
	He is a	serious Close	person. friends	tell the truth.
3. You can use more than one adjective.		and handsor rt, dark, curly
4. Do not add -s to adjectives.		are good-look girls are good	•

See Appendix C9, page 212, for information about the order of adjectives before a noun.

PRACTICE 11

Adjectives and the Words They Describe

- Work alone or with a partner. Read the email. Decide if you think Jess likes the class or not. Then choose one of the two adjectives to fill in the blank and tell the story.
  - 1. great / terrible

5. easy / hard

2. small / huge

- 6. good / bad
- 3. comfortable / uncomfortable
- 7. interested in / tired of
- 4. interesting / boring
- 8. best / worst

B Look at the adjectives you wrote in Part A. Circle the noun or subject pronoun that each adjective describes.

I'm in my economics class, and its _____great

TRY IT OUT!

On a sheet of paper, write six or more true statements about school. For example, you can describe your classes, your friends, or places at school. Use an adjective in each statement. Underline the adjective.

I have friendly classmates.

The cafeteria is noisy.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Go + -ing Verbs

You saw the expressions go running, go dancing, and go shopping used in the writing models on pages 45 and 46. You also learned these expressions:

go camping go fishing go swimming

You may want to use one of these expressions when you do the Writing Assignment on page 64, writing about a person you see in a photo.

PRACTICE 12 Using Go + -ing Verbs

Mork in a small group. Ask the group about the activities in the list. When someone answers, "I do," ask that person "Where?" or "When?" or "Who do you go with?" Take notes.

А	sk:	Names/Notes camping?
	dancing?
TA71	fishing?
Who goes	running?
	shopping?
	swimming?

Take a sheet of paper. Use your notes to write eight or more true statements about the people in your group. Write affirmative and negative statements.

Natasha does not go camping.

Dao and her husband go fishing in the Gulf.

Oscar goes running every day.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about a person in a photo, like the writing models on pages 45 and 46. You will need to use your imagination. Follow the steps in the writing process.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

a. Choose a person from one of these photos to write about. Imagine that you know the person well. On a sheet of paper, make a list of ideas about the life of the person in the photo. Do not write complete sentences. Just make notes.

Photo B

Photo D

Writing Tip

When you are prewriting, the most important thing is to put your ideas down on paper quickly, before you forget them. Do not worry about organizing them at this point.

- b. Find a partner who has chosen a different photo. Ask your partner about the person in his or her photo. For example, ask:
  - What is his/her name?
  - Where is he/she from?
  - Where does he/she live?
  - How old is he/she?
  - Does he/she have a family?
  - Does he/she go to school?
  - Does he/she have a job? What does he/she do?
  - What does he/she like to do for fun?
  - What do you think about his/her life?
- c. Add to your notes or make changes, if needed.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

a. Begin the paragraph with a topic sentence. The topic sentence should tell which person you are writing about and state the main idea about the person.

The woman in photo A has a/an _____ life. The man in photo B is a/an _____ person.

- b. Use an adjective in the topic sentence to describe the person or the person's life. In the paragraph, show your readers why that adjective is true for the person you are writing about.
- Use your notes to complete the first draft. Add a title. See the writing models for examples of titles.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet. Remember to be honest but kind.

PEER R	EVIEW WORKSHEET

6. Put a question mark (?) if you are	e not sure about something.
See Henry Liu's first draft on page 3	39 for an example of how to mark a paper.

- c. Return your partner's paper. Remember to say something nice about it.
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, then ask another student or your teacher.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. On your first draft, mark any changes you want to make. Then take a new sheet of paper. Write a new draft.
- b. Check your paragraph carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- Use topic sentences in paragraphs
- O Identify noun and pronoun subjects of sentences
- O Identify and correct incomplete sentences
- O Use the negative forms of simple present verbs
- Use adjectives to describe people, places, things, and ideas
- O Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a person in a photo

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 🐧

EXPANSION

ON YOUR OWN

Write a paragraph about a person you know well and like. Start by taking a sheet of paper and writing some notes about this person. Use the list of questions on page 65 for ideas. Think of some adjectives that describe this person. Decide on a topic sentence and write a first draft. Use the paragraph to help you.

My Grandmother

My grandmother is a helpful person. She helps our family, her friends, and people in the neighborhood. Everyone goes to her for advice. You can tell her about your problems. She listens and she does not tell your secrets to other people. She is patient and calm with my little cousins. She always talks to them in a quiet voice. We are happy to have our kind and helpful grandmother.

Ask a friend or a classmate to review your first draft. Ask your friend or classmate to use the Peer Review Worksheet on page 66. Then prepare a new draft and give it to your teacher.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. Remember to read your teacher's comments. Sometimes your teacher will write questions in your journal. Write the answers, or talk to your teacher about the questions.

If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Who do you talk to on the phone? Name three people. When do you talk to them? What kinds of things do you usually talk about?
- Do you take photos or videos? Do you use a camera, your phone, or another device? Where do you keep your photos? How do you share them with friends?
- When do you usually do your homework? Where do you do it? Do you work alone, or do you work with other people? Do you listen to music while you work? Do you eat or drink while you work?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 4

A GOOD DAY

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Use time order and time-order words in paragraphs
- Recognize two types of simple sentences
- Use adverbs of frequency in sentences
- Use prepositional phrases to show time
- Apply rules for using capital letters
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a classmate's typical day

A day in the park

INTRODUCTION

In this chapter, you will write about someone in your class, and someone will write about you. To get the information you need, you will interview each other. That means you will ask each other questions. Then you will write paragraphs about each other.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

The writing models are about two students, Karl and Tomiko. Tomiko interviewed Karl and wrote about what he usually does on Fridays. Karl interviewed Tomiko and wrote about what she usually does on Saturdays.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

Karl's Fridays

Karl's Fridays are always busy days. He gets up early. Then he works from 6:00 A.M. to 2:30 p.m. After work, he gets his little boy from daycare. Sometimes they go shopping or play in the park. Then they go home. Karl's wife gets back from work at 5:30 р.м. They usually have dinner at home. In the evening, Karl puts his son to bed. Then he finally has time to relax. He and his wife sometimes watch a movie, but they do not stay up late. Karl is tired after his long day.

Questions about the Model

- 1. What is the topic sentence of the paragraph? Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea.
- 2. What information does the paragraph have about Karl's Fridays? Check  $(\checkmark)$  your answers.
  - □ what Karl does in the morning
  - □ what he does in the afternoon
  - □ what he does in the evening
  - □ how he feels about Fridays

a. Then he \_\_\_\_\_\_ from 6:00 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. b. Karl's wife \_\_\_\_\_\_ back from work at 5:30 P.M. c. In the evening, Karl \_\_\_\_\_\_ his son to bed. d. Then he finally \_\_\_\_\_\_ time to relax. Writing Model 2 ··X····1···1···2···2···3····4···4···5····5····6A·· Tomiko's Favorite Day Saturday is Tomiko's favorite day of the week. In the morning, she always sleeps in. Sometimes she does not get up until noon. Then she usually meets her friends in the dining hall. In the afternoon, they spend time outside or go shopping. It depends on the weather. On Saturday evenings, she likes to dress up and go out. She and her friends often eat out, see a movie, or go to a party. Tomiko loves Saturdays. Questions about the Model 1. What is the topic sentence of the paragraph? Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea. 2. What information does the paragraph have about Tomiko's Saturdays? Check  $(\checkmark)$  your answers. □ what Tomiko does in the morning □ what she does in the afternoon □ what she does in the evening □ how she feels about Saturdays 3. What does "It depends on the weather" mean? Circle a or b. a. The weather is not important to them. b. In good weather, they go outside; in bad weather, they go shopping. 4. What adverbs of frequency did the writer use? Fill in the blanks. a. In the morning, she \_\_\_\_\_\_ sleeps in. b. \_\_\_\_\_ she does not get up until noon. c. Then she \_\_\_\_\_ meets her friends in the dining hall.

d. She and her friends ______ eat out, see a movie, or go to a party.

3. What simple present verbs did the writer use? Fill in the blanks.

Looking at Vocabulary: Phrasal Verbs

A phrasal verb has two parts: a verb (such as go or get) and a particle (such as up, on, or out). The meaning of a phrasal verb is often very different from the meaning of the verb alone.

He gets a lot of email. gets = receives

He gets up early. gets up = leaves his bed

His plane gets in at 1:00. gets in = arrives

PRACTICE 1

Phrasal Verbs

A Find these phrasal verbs in the writing models and underline them.

dress up sleep in eat out go out stay up

B Match the phrasal verbs from the box with their meanings. Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ = put on nice clothes

2. _____ = not go to bed until late

3. _____ = leave home, often to do something for fun

4. _____ = have a meal in a restaurant instead of at home

5. _____ = stay in bed and sleep later than usual in the morning

ORGANIZATION

TIME ORDER

When you write a paragraph, you must think about organization. You must plan how to present information in a clear order. Writers need to organize information to make it easy for people to read. There are many ways to do this.

One way to organize information is to put it in time order (also called chronological order). This means writing about events in the order in which they happen. Start with the first or earliest event, and then tell what happens after that.

Time-order words help make information clear to the reader. They go at the beginning of sentences. A comma follows each one except Then. Do not put a comma after Then.

First, Later, Then After that, Next, Finally,

	<ul><li>He turns the pancakes so they cook on both sides.</li></ul>
	_ Finally, he calls the children.
1_	Martin likes to make pancakes for his children on Sunday mornings.
-	Next, he gets out the eggs, milk, flour, and other ingredients.
	_ He mixes the ingredients in a large bowl.
-	First, he puts the griddle on the stove to heat up.

A Work alone or with a partner. Read the sentences. Then number them from

PRACTICE 3

Using Time-Order Words

Work alone or with a partner. Complete the paragraph with words from the box. For some sentences, there may be more than one possible choice.

After that Finally First Later Next Then

Simone has a regular routine on Saturday mornings. She always gets up around 8:00 A.M.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE AND GRAMMAR

SIMPLE SENTENCE PATTERNS, PART 1

There are several kinds of sentences in English. Understanding sentence patterns will help you write correct sentences.

First, there are simple sentences. A simple sentence has one subject-verb combination. Look at these two patterns for simple sentences:

1 subject + 1 verb

I like watermelon.

Watermelon is my favorite fruit.

2 subjects + 1 verb

Alfredo and I like strawberries.

Watermelon and strawberries are both delicious.

One or more subjects with the same verb means one subject-verb combination.

PRACTICE 4

Simple Sentence Patterns

Circle the verbs and write V above them. Underline the subjects and write S above them.

- 1. In North America, Saturday and Sunday are weekend days.
- 2. In some other places, Friday and Saturday are the weekend days.
- 3. Saturday gets its name from the Roman god Saturn.
- 4. Monday means "moon day."
- 5. In the United States, elections are always on Tuesdays.
- 6. In Thailand, a color goes with each day of the week.
- 7. Green and orange are the colors for Wednesday and Thursday in Thailand.
- 8. In England, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday are lucky days for weddings.

ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY

Meanings

Adverbs of frequency tell how often something happens.

How often do they eat breakfast?	Sun	М	Tυ	W	Тн	F	SAT
Alex always eats breakfast.	1	1	1	1	1	√	1	100%
Uma usually eats breakfast.		√	1	√	√	√	√
Olivia often eats breakfast.		1		√		√	√
Saeed sometimes eats breakfast.	√						√
Norberto never eats breakfast.								0%

Use almost with always or never to change the meaning to "nearly 100% of the time" or "nearly 0% of the time."

I almost never eat breakfast in a restaurant. I do that about once a year.

Writing Tip

Knowing the parts of speech can help a writer use words correctly. Dictionaries tell what part of speech a word is. They usually use abbreviations. For example, the abbreviation v. means verb, n. means noun, adj. means adjective, and adv. means adverb.

Placement in Affirmative Statements

The rules in the chart tell where to put an adverb of frequency in an affirmative statement.

Rules	Examples
1. In most affirmative		Adverb	Verb statements: Put the adverb before the verb.	I Tanya	usually never	arrive comes	on time.
2. In affirmative statements		Be	Adverb with be : Put the adverb after the verb be .	I Jeremy	am is	often sometimes	early.

The adverb of frequency sometimes can also come at the beginning or end of an affirmative statement.

Sometimes Jeremy is early.

Jeremy is early sometimes.

PRACTICE 5

Adverbs of Frequency

Rewrite each affirmative statement. Add the adverb in parentheses.

- 1. (always) Valentine's Day is on February 14. Valentine's Day is always on February 14.
- 2. (usually) People think of Valentine's Day as a holiday for people in love.
- 3. (always) The dates of some holidays change, depending on the moon.
- 4. (never) Some people celebrate the new year on January 1.

	5. (usually) Mother's Day is a popular holiday.
	6. (often) Schools are closed on holidays.
	7. (often) Workers have a holiday in their honor.
	8. (never) Some women work on International Women's Day.
PRACTICE 6	Using Sometimes
	<ol> <li>Rewrite each statement three times. Add sometimes in three different places.</li> <li>My family has a special holiday meal.</li> </ol>

Placement in Negative Statements

The rules in this chart tell where to put an adverb of frequency in a negative statement.

2. Stores are closed on holidays.

Rules	Examples
1. Put the adverbs always,		Not	Adverb usually, and often after not.	He does They are	not not	always often	sleep well. late.
2. Put sometimes at the beginning of a negative statement.	Sometimes he does not call.
3. Do not use not with never .	He is never ready on time. NOT: He is n't never ready on time.		on time.

Adverbs of Frequency

Rewrite each negative statement. Add the adverb in parentheses.

- 1. I am not at home on New Year's Eve. (never)
  - I am never at home on New Year's Eve.
- 2. People in different countries do not have the same holidays. (always)

  People in different countries do not always have the same holidays.
- 3. Halloween is not an important holiday outside the United States. (usually)
- 4. Father's Day is not on a weekday in the United States. (never)
- 5. Some businesses do not close on holidays. (never)
- 6. For example, airports do not close on holidays. (often)
- 7. People do not celebrate every holiday in the same way. (usually)
- 8. In some countries, birthdays are not special days. (usually)

Happy New Year!

TRY IT OUT!

Look at the activities in the list. How often do you do these things? Take a sheet of paper, and write a true statement with an adverb of frequency about each activity.

watch the evening news on TV write letters drink milk go shopping on weekends get hungry in class be in a bad mood be tired in class

I almost never watch the evening news on TV.

USING PREPOSITIONS TO SHOW TIME

A preposition, such as in, at, by, or with, goes in front of a noun. The preposition and noun form a prepositional phrase. Prepositional phrases have many uses. For example, they can identify a place (at home, in South America) or a direction (to school, up the stairs).

Prepositional phrases can also be time expressions. Time expressions tell when something happens.

A time expression can go at the beginning or at the end of a sentence. Put a comma after a time expression at the beginning of a sentence.

PREPOSITION + NOUN On Saturdays, I like to sleep late.

PREPOSITION + NOUN

I sometimes get up in the afternoon.

Here are five rules you need to know for using prepositions to show time.

Rules	Examples
1. Use on + a day or days.	Do we have class on Friday?
	They see each other on weekends.
2. Use in + a part of the day.	Call me in the morning.
Exception: Use at + night .	He gets home late at night.
3. Use at + a time.	He starts work at 8:30 A.M.
	Lunch is at noon.
4. Use from + a starting point + to +	From 7:00 to 10:00 p.m., he studies.
the end point.	The course runs from January to May.
5. Use for + an amount of time.	They will be on vacation for a week.

See pages 99–100 and 160–162 for more information on prepositions.

Prepositions in Time Expressions

Underline six more time expressions with prepositions.

The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio, welcomes music fans 363 days a year. The hall is closed only on Thanksgiving and Christmas. It is usually open from 10:00 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. On Wednesdays, it is also open in the evening. In the summer (from Memorial Day to Labor Day), it stays open late on Saturdays, too. There are exhibits, films, concerts, and a museum store. Each year, half a million people visit the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. It is great fun for rock-and-roll fans.

PRACTICE 9 Prepositions in Time Expressions

Complete the time expressions in the sentences. Use the prepositions at, for, from, in, on, and to.

- 1. Gary's rock-and-roll band always plays at a club ______Saturdays.
- 2. The show starts ______ 9:00 _____ the evening.
- 3. The band usually plays ______ 9:00 _____ midnight.
- 4. In the middle of the show, they take a break ______ 10 minutes.
- 5. After the show, Gary stays at the club _____ a while.

USING CAPITAL LETTERS

Some words in English must begin with a capital letter. Here are five rules for capital letters that writers need to know.

Rules	Examples
1. Capitalize the subject pronoun I .	Rosa and I are in t	he same class.
2. Capitalize the first letter of a sentence.	H is first name is David.
3. Capitalize people's names and titles.	My dentist's name is Dr. Parker.
4. Capitalize words for nationalities and languages.	NationalitiesLanguagesAustralianEnglishColombianSpanishKuwaitiArabic
5. Capitalize place names.	She lives in the Dominican Republic.

PRACTICE 10

Correcting Capitalization Errors

Find one or more capitalization errors in each sentence. Make corrections.

- 1. the name of the song is "michelle."
- 2. I have an appointment with doctor Patel.
- 3. Our teacher speaks spanish.
- 4. carlo is from new york.
- 5. my roommate drives a korean car.
- 6. susan's first language is english.
- 7. People speak tagalog in the philippines.
- 8. the man's nickname is red because of his red hair.

TRY IT OUT!

Work alone or with a partner. Look at the five rules for capitalization in the chart on page 81. Write two sample sentences for each rule.

Ru	ıle 4: Maurício speaks Portuguese and English.
1.	Rule 1
2.	Rule 2
3.	Rule 3
1	Rule 4
7.	Nuie 4
5.	Rule 5

CAPITAL LETTERS FOR TITLES

Follow these rules for using capital letters in the titles of your paragraphs.

Rules	Examples
1. Capitalize the first letter of the first word of a title.	My Life The Best Day of My Life
2. Capitalize every noun, verb, pronoun, adjective, and adverb in a title. Do not capitalize a , an , the , or prepositions.	A Day at the Races  Take Me Out to the Ball Game
3. Do not put a period (.) after the title of a paragraph.	Getting Ready for the Day
4. Do not put quotation marks (" ") around the title of a paragraph.	Jae Yoon's Favorite Day

PRACTICE 11

Capital Letters in Titles

Rewrite each title with the capital letters needed.

1. the adventures of Tom Sawyer

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

- 2. Harry Potter and the chamber of secrets
- 3. a tale of two cities
- 4. around the world in eighty days
- 5. the good, the bad, and the ugly
- 6. a journey to the center of the earth

Mark Twain, author of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

Applying Vocabulary: Using Phrasal Verbs

You saw some common phrasal verbs used in the writing models on pages 70 and 71:

> dress up get up sleep in eat out go out stay up

You may want to use some of those phrasal verbs when you do the Writing Assignment on page 84, writing about one day in a classmate's week.

PRACTICE 12

Using Phrasal Verbs

- Complete the sentences with phrasal verbs from the box above.
  - 1. When my alarm clock rings in the morning, it is time for me to
  - 2. I do not set an alarm when I want to _____
  - 3. I like to _____ with my friends for a movie or a concert.

4.	1. I like to eat at home, but I like to	, too. I just like to eat!
5.	5. I when I go to a wedding	g or any formal event.
6.	6. On New Year's Eve, Ilat	e.

B Take a sheet of paper. Write six or more true sentences about what you do on Saturdays. In each sentence, use a phrasal verb from the box on page 83 and an adverb of frequency.

On Saturdays, I never sleep in.

I do not usually eat out on Saturdays.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to interview a classmate about what he or she usually does on one day of the week. Your classmate will choose which day to tell you about. Then you will use the information to write a paragraph like the writing models on pages 70 and 71.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

a. Work with a partner. Ask your partner which day he or she wants to talk about. Then ask, "What do you usually do on that day?" Take notes in the chart. Do not write complete sentences.

In the morning
In the afternoon
In the evening

b. What adjective best describes your partner's day? Talk with your partner about this question so that you can use this information to write a good topic sentence. You may want to use one of these adjectives in your topic sentence:

boring	exciting	interesting	tiring
busy	favorite	relaxing

c. Write the topic sentence for your paragraph. Look at the writing models for ideas.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

- a. Begin your paragraph with your topic sentence from Step 1.
- b. Continue writing your first draft, using your notes from Step 1.
- c. Use time-order words, time expressions with prepositions, and adverbs of frequency, as needed.
- d. Give your paragraph a title.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with the person you wrote about and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

2. Underline any part of the paragraph yo to explain it.	ou do not understand. Ask your partner
3. Tell your partner if any information is	not correct.
4. Circle the topic sentence. If there is no	topic sentence, write TS? on the paper.

5. Use this list to check your partner's paper. Mark any problems on the paper in pencil. Check (✓) each item in the list as you finish.
☐ the title ☐ the use of words to show time ☐	a subject in every sentence a verb for every subject
6. Put a question mark (?) if you are not s	ure about something.
See Henry Liu's first draft on page 39 for an example of how to mark a paper.

- c. Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your paper. If you do not agree with a comment on it, then ask another student or your teacher.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. On your first draft, mark any changes you want to make.
- b. Take a new sheet of paper and write a new draft.
- c. Edit your paragraph carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

Writing Tip

Before you give your new draft to the teacher, make sure that your paper is neat and formatted correctly. A careless paper makes a bad impression on the reader.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- O Use time order and time-order words in paragraphs
- Recognize two types of simple sentences
- Use adverbs of frequency in sentences
- Use prepositional phrases to show time
- Apply rules for using capital letters
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a classmate's typical day

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 3

EXPANSION

ON YOUR OWN

Write a paragraph about your favorite holiday. Begin by taking a sheet of paper and making notes about the things you usually do on this day. Organize your notes by time order. If you want, you can make a chart like the one on page 84.

Use your notes to write a paragraph. Begin your paragraph with a topic sentence, such as Independence Day is always a lot of fun or New Year's Eve is my favorite holiday. After you write your first draft, give your paragraph a title.

Ask a friend or a classmate to review your first draft. Use the Peer Review Worksheet on page 85. Prepare a new draft, and give it to your teacher.

Continue making entries in your journal. Do not worry about making mistakes. Your journal is a good place to experiment with new words.

If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- What is your favorite color? Do you have more than one favorite? What colors do you usually wear? Are there any colors you never wear?
- What are the seasons of the year where you live? Which season do you like most? What are some of your favorite activities during that season? Why?
- What languages do you know? Why are you learning English? Tell how you feel about learning English.

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 5

YOUR HOMETOWN

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Identify and write supporting sentences
- Use the articles a, an, and the with nouns
- Write sentences with there is and there are
- Use prepositional phrases to describe locations
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about your hometown

"Here is my hometown."

INTRODUCTION

Your hometown is the place you think of as home. Maybe it is the place where you grew up. The word town usually means a small city, but a hometown can be of any size. In this chapter, you will write a paragraph about your hometown.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, two students describe their hometowns.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

My Hometown

I am from Canóvanas, in the northeastern part of Puerto Rico, east of San Juan. My hometown is a small city with a big heart. There are about 30,000 people in Canóvanas. There are many good people in my hometown. When there is a problem, they are always ready to help. They are happy to take time out of their day to help a neighbor. My neighbors are like my family. That is the best thing about my hometown. I miss the friendly, helpful people of Canóvanas.

Questions about the Model

1.	a.	a. What is the topic of the paragraph?
	b.	What is the writer's controlling idea about the topic?
2.	Но	How many people live in Canóvanas?
	Th	ere are about people.
3.	W	nat sentences explain why the writer says that Canóvanas has "a big he	art"? Copy one of them on the line.

- 4. Where does the writer use the words there and their? Fill in the blanks.
  - a. They are happy to take time out of _____ day to help a neighbor.
  - b. _____ are many good people in my hometown.
  - c. When ______ is a problem, they are always ready to help.
- 5. What is the difference between their and there? Circle the correct word to complete each rule.
  - a. Use (their / there) + a noun to show possession.
  - b. Use (their / there) + is or are to introduce new information.

A Special City

··X····1···1···2···1···3····4···1···5···1···6

Almaty, my hometown, is a special city. Almaty is in Kazakhstan. Kazakhstan is in the western part of Asia, south of Russia. My hometown is in the southeastern part of Kazakhstan, near China. The name Almaty means "the apple place." The first apples in the world grew in that area. My hometown was the capital of Kazakhstan for a few years, and it is still the cultural center of Kazakhstan. It has wonderful theaters and museums. Also, Almaty has the world's largest speed-skating rink. It is in the beautiful mountains outside the city. I do not live in Almaty anymore, but it is still a special place for me.

Questions about the Model

- 1. a. What is the topic of the paragraph?
  - b. What is the writer's controlling idea about the topic?
- 2. Where is Almaty?

	3. Why does the writer think that Almaty is special? List three reasons.

PRACTICE 1

ORGANIZATION

In Chapter 3, you learned about introducing a paragraph with a topic sentence. A topic sentence needs support. It needs information that shows why the topic sentence is true.

SUPPORTING SENTENCES, PART 1

The sentences that follow a topic sentence are called supporting sentences. They support the topic sentence in the same way that the legs of a table support the tabletop.

The supporting sentences show us why Jack is lucky.

Some paragraphs end with a concluding sentence. You will learn more about concluding sentences in Chapter 8.

Look at the three parts of this paragraph:

The paragraph has seven supporting sentences. They support the topic sentence "New Orleans is a great place to visit." They tell why the topic sentence is true.

Read the paragraphs and follow the directions.

Paragraph 1

The Weather in My Hometown

Hong Kong, my hometown, is a wonderful place for many reasons, but the weather is not one of them. Our best weather is in the fall, but we have a lot of air pollution. For this reason, we do not see clear blue skies very often. The winters are short but cool and damp. I feel cold all the time in the winter. In the spring, there is too much rain. In the summer, it is too hot and humid. Summer is also the season for typhoons. Typhoons are the worst part of Hong Kong's weather. I love my hometown, but I do not love the weather there.

- a. Underline the topic sentence and the concluding sentence.
- b. How many supporting sentences are there?
- c. Complete this statement: The supporting sentences in this paragraph tell why

PARAGRAPH 2

The Job of a Firefighter

Firefighters do a very important job. First of all, they put out fires in people's homes and workplaces. They also respond to emergency calls. The calls may be about dangerous situations, such as car accidents or heart attacks. Many firefighters are EMTs (Emergency Medical Technicians). They can help people with many kinds of medical emergencies. Every community needs firefighters.

- a. Underline the topic sentence and the concluding sentence.
- b. How many supporting sentences are there?
- c. Complete this statement: The supporting sentences in this paragraph tell why _

PARAGRAPH 3

How to Annoy a Roommate

It is easy to annoy a roommate. One way is to make a lot of noise. Do this especially when your roommate is sleeping or studying. Another way is to leave a mess on the floor. Drop your clothes and shoes everywhere. Finally, eat smelly food in the room. When you finish, put the dirty dishes on the floor, too. If you follow this advice, you will surely drive your roommate crazy.

- a. Underline the topic sentence and the concluding sentence.
- b. How many supporting sentences are there? _____
- c. Complete this statement: The supporting sentences in this paragraph show several ways to _____

GRAMMAR

A, AN, AND THE

The words a, an, and the are articles. Articles go with nouns.

Using A and An

Rules	Examples
<ul> <li>1. Use a and an with singular nouns.</li> <li>• Use a before a consonant sound.</li> <li>• Use an before a vowel sound.</li> <li>Think about the first sound—not the first letter—of the noun.</li> </ul>	a bridge, a house, a university an apple, an hour, an umbrella
2. Do not use a or an with plural or noncount nouns.	My hometown has a parks.  I need an information.
<ul><li>3. Use a or an when:</li><li>the noun is not specific</li><li>the noun is first introduced</li></ul>	I need a pen. (Any pen—I do not care which pen.)  There is a huge park in my hometown.
4. One or more adjectives can come between an article and a noun.	an interesting museum a new, high-speed train system

See Appendix C2, pages 197–198, for information about singular, plural, and noncount nouns.

A	Complete the definitions. Write a or an, or put a dash (—), meaning "no article."
	1. A capital is a city where a state or a country has its main government offices.
	2 museums are cultural attractions.
	3 hotel is building where people pay to stay for a short time.
	4 inn is small hotel.
	5 skyscrapers are very tall buildings.  On a roller coaster
	6 theater is place to see a movie or a play.
	7 amusement park is place with rides, games, and other kinds of entertainment.
	8 roller coaster is ride at amusement park.
В	Work alone or with a partner. Write sentences that describe the places and things in parentheses. Use the words from the box. Use a or an as needed. Add more information if you wish.  building city country island language

	5. (Aruba)
	6. (the Eiffel Tower)
	7. (Japanese)
	8. (Montreal)
	9. (the Maldives)
	10. (Egypt)

Using The

Rules	Examples
1. The article the can be used with singular, plural, or noncount nouns.	Singular: the sun Plural: the stars Noncount: the weather
2. Use the when the noun means a specific person, place, thing, or idea.	Specific: London is the capital of England.  Not specific: London is a city.
3. Use the when you repeat a noun already introduced.	There is a stadium in my hometown. I watch soccer matches at the stadium.

PRACTICE 4 Using A, An, or The

Complete the sentences. Write a, an, or the.

1.	In my hometown,	there is sma	ll college and
	b.	large universityc.	college has about
	1,200 students	d. university has a	about 35,000.

Sentences with there is and there are often introduce new information.

- NEW INFORMATION There is no school on Friday!

In addition, sentences with there is and there are often:

• tell the time of something

There is a train at 7:30 A.M.

• tell where someone or something is

There are good restaurants in my hometown.

STATEMENTS WITH THERE IS AND THERE ARE
There	Is	Singular Noun/ Noncount Noun		There	Are	Plural Noun

There is		music	on the radio.	There	are	many things	to see and do.

See Appendix C2, pages 197–198, for information about singular, plural, and noncount nouns.

Rules	Examples
1. Use there is/are + no + noun to form a negative statement.	There is no stadium in my city.  There are no tall buildings in my hometown.  There is no snow in the winter.
<ul> <li>2. Do not confuse there are with they are.</li> <li>Use there are to introduce new information.</li> <li>Use they instead of repeating a noun.</li> </ul>	There are two rivers in my city.  They The two rivers are the Danube and the Sava.
<ul> <li>3. Do not confuse there with their.</li> <li>Use there + is or are.</li> <li>Use their + a noun. Their shows possession.</li> </ul>	There are two girls in the group.  Their names are Isabel and Pilar.

PRACTICE 5

PRACTICE 6

Correcting Errors with There, Their, and They Find nine more errors with there, their, and they. Make corrections.

- 1. They are two students from Korea in my class. There names are Jun Seong and Min Sup. They usually sit in the first row, but their absent today.
- 2. The teachers often meet on Wednesdays. There meetings take place in the conference room. Their is a large round table in the room. There usually have there lunch during the meetings.
- 3. They are about 100 students in this program. There are from several different countries. Their learning English.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write your answers to the questions. Use There is or There are.

There are three floors in my building.

- 1. How many floors are there in the building where you live?
- 2. How many pictures are there on the walls of your room?
- 3. How many people are there in your family?
- 4. How many movie theaters are there in your hometown?
- 5. How many doors are there to your classroom?
- 6. How many students are there in your class?

USING PREPOSITIONS TO DESCRIBE LOCATION

In Chapter 4, you learned about using prepositions in time expressions. Prepositions are also used to describe location—where someone or something is. These prepositions include between, next to, in front of, in back of, near, in, on, and at.

Costa Rica is next to Nicaragua.

Costa Rica is between Nicaragua and Panama.

Study the rules for using in, on, and at to describe location.

Rules	Examples
1. Use in + a continent, country, state, province, or city.	Canada is in North America .  There are ten provinces in Canada .
	The beautiful city of Vancouver is in British Columbia .
	My cousins live in Vancouver.
2. Use on + a street (without a specific	Their office building is on King Street.
address) or a floor of a building.	We are meeting on the tenth floor.
3. Use at + a specific address or	The Kelleys live at 132 Maple Street.
building.	He works at the hospital.

PRACTICE 7

In, On, and At for Location

- A Complete the sentences with in, on, or at.
  - 1. Nina lives _____ California.
  - 2. California is _____ the United States.
  - 3. She lives _____ Water Street ____ San Francisco.
  - 4. Her building is _____ 94 Water Street.
  - 5. Her apartment is _____ the second floor.
  - 6. She works _____ the Orchard Hotel.
  - 7. The hotel is _____ Bush Street.
  - 8. The entrance to the hotel is _____ 665 Bush Street.
- B Complete the sentences. Write about yourself.
  - 1. I live in ______.
  - 2. My hometown is in ______.
  - 3. I live on ______.
  - 4. I live at ______

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES IN SENTENCES

In Chapter 4, you learned that a preposition and a noun form a prepositional phrase. A writer can put a prepositional phrase in several places in a sentence.

Rules	Examples
<ul><li>1. A prepositional phrase can come:</li><li>after the verb be</li></ul>	Dakar is in Senegal.
• after other verbs	Miguel comes from Mexico City.
after a noun	The weather in India is usually hot.
2. A prepositional phrase can also come at the beginning or end of a sentence. Put a comma after a prepositional phrase at the beginning of a sentence.	There are beautiful forests in my country.  In my country, there are beautiful forests.

PRACTICE 8

Prepositional Phrases in Sentences

Underline the prepositional phrases in the examples on the right. Then match the patterns and examples. Write the letters.

PATTERNS

- b 1. be + prepositional phrase
  - _____ 2. another verb + prepositional phrase
  - ____ 3. noun + prepositional phrase
  - ____ 4. prepositional phrase at the beginning of a sentence
  - _ 5. prepositional phrase at the end of a sentence

EXAMPLES

- a. In the future, I hope to visit the Galápagos Islands.
- b. The Galápagos Islands are in the Pacific Ocean.
- c. Many visitors travel to the Galápagos to see the animals there.
- d. The animals in the Galápagos are very unusual.
- e. The animals are protected and safe on these islands.

TRY IT OUT!

Work alone or with a partner. Combine each group of sentences into one sentence with prepositional phrases. There is more than one way to form each sentence.

1. There are beaches. They are near my hometown. They are beautiful.

Near my hometown, there are beautiful beaches.

- 2. I go to the beach. I go there with my friends. I go there on weekends.
- 3. There are many hotels. They are for tourists. The hotels are in my hometown.
- 4. Tourists come to relax. They are from other countries. They come to my hometown.
- 5. There are good restaurants. They are on the main street. The street is in my neighborhood.
- 6. There are free concerts. They are in the park. They are in the summer.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Words for Directions

You will need to use direction words when you write about your hometown on page 103. Review the direction words you learned on page 91. Then read about how to use direction words in sentences.

Rules	Examples
1. Use north/south/east/west + of + a place.	Costa Rica is south of Nicaragua.  Belize is northeast of Guatemala.
2. Add -ern to a direction word to form an adjective.	My hometown is in southern Japan.  I come from the northwestern part of Morocco.
3. Use a capital letter for a direction word only when the word is a name or part of a name.	The state of S outh Carolina is in the southeastern part of the United States.  The state of Oregon is in the Northwest.

PRACTICE 9

Using Direction Words

Work alone or with a partner. Look at the map. Write one or more sentences about the location of each place in parentheses. Use direction words.

- 1. (Turkey) _____
- 2. (Ankara) _____
- 3. (Istanbul)
- 4. (Antalya) _____

TRY IT OUT!

Interview two or more of your classmates. Find out where they are from. On a sheet of paper, write sentences about these classmates. Use direction words.

Gustavo is from Recife. It is in the eastern part of Brazil. It is about 1,400 miles north of Rio de Janeiro.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about your hometown, like the writing models on pages 89 and 90. First, you will brainstorm. Brainstorming is a way of getting ideas. It means thinking about a topic and quickly writing down all the thoughts that come to mind. After you brainstorm, you will choose some of the ideas to use in your paragraph.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Get ready to write by brainstorming about your hometown. Quickly make a list of all the ideas that come to mind.
  - Do not write complete sentences. Just take notes.
  - Do not worry about whether an idea is good or bad. You will decide later which ideas you do and do not want to use.
  - Do not worry about the order of your ideas. You will put them in order later.

Here are the notes from one student's brainstorming:

in Kazakhstan, in the southeast, near China (how far?)
big city—population?? noisy (but I like) public transportation good some beautiful buildings culture!
mountains, beautiful nature, snow
Medeo—high in mountains, rink for speed skating—famous expensive city was capital city (dates?)
name = "the apple place"

Now brainstorm about your hometown. Take notes.

- b. Work with a partner. Ask your partner questions about his or her hometown, questions such as:
  - Where are you from?
  - Where is it?
  - What is it like?
  - What is special about it?

Answer your partner's questions about your hometown. As you get more ideas, add them to your notes.

c. Look again at the brainstorming notes from page 103. The writer has made changes. She has decided on a title. She has written a topic sentence. She has crossed out information she does not plan to use.

Almaty
topic sentence: Almaty, my hometown, is a special city.
in Kazakhstan, in the southeast, near China (how far?)

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

- a. Review your notes to prepare for writing your first draft. Decide what information you do and do not want to use.
- b. Write your first draft. Begin your paragraph with a topic sentence. See the writing models on pages 89 and 90 for examples. Remember that your supporting sentences must relate to your topic sentence.

Writing Tip

Prewriting often helps a writer decide on a topic sentence. However, some writers like to write their first draft of a paragraph without a topic sentence. Then they add it afterwards. Remember that you can change your topic sentence when you revise and edit.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

4. Read the supporting sentences again. Ask questions if you want more information.

- c. Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback, then ask another student or your teacher. Mark any changes you want to make.

Writing Tip

Help yourself do a better job of revising and editing by giving yourself time. Take a break before you start on a new draft. Work on something else for a while, or better yet, get a good night's sleep. Then go back to your paragraph with fresh eyes.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper and write a new draft.
- b. Edit your new draft carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- Identify and write supporting sentences
- Use the articles a, an, and the with nouns
- O Write sentences with there is and there are
- O Use prepositional phrases to describe locations
- O Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about your hometown

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 🕉

EXPANSION

ON YOUR OWN

Write a paragraph about a favorite place. For example, you could describe your favorite room at home or a place where you go on vacation. Before you begin, brainstorm about the place and take notes.

Use your notes to write your first draft. Your paragraph must have a topic sentence. All the supporting sentences should relate to your main idea.

Ask a friend or a classmate to review your first draft. Use the Peer Review Worksheet on page 105. Then prepare a new draft and give it to your teacher.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Do you ever watch the sun come up or watch it set? Describe a place where you like to watch the sunrise or sunset.
- Do you carry a wallet, a purse, or a backpack? Describe what is in it right now.
- Write about using English outside of class. Who do you talk to in English? When do you listen to English or read it?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 6

ON THE JOB

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Make sure that supporting sentences are relevant
- Use present progressive verbs in sentences
- Recognize and use non-action verbs
- Use have as an action verb and as a non-action verb
- Choose between the simple present and present progressive
- Write simple sentences with different sentence patterns
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about someone at work

In a meeting

On a construction site

INTRODUCTION

In this chapter, you will see many photos of people at their jobs. You will choose a photo of someone at work, and you will write a paragraph about what the person is doing in the photo and what his or her usual job responsibilities are—the things that he or she has to do at work.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In each writing model, the writer describes someone in a photo. The photo shows the person at work. The writer tells both what the person is doing in the photo and what the person usually does on the job.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Look at the photos. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

A Baker at Work

The man in Photo 1 is a baker. He has a good job, but it is hard work. He starts work at 4:00 A.m. He works long hours and never sits down. He makes many kinds of bread and pastries. In this photo, the baker is standing in the kitchen of the bakery. He is wearing a white jacket and a white apron. Behind him, there are many trays of baked goods. He is holding two pieces of bread and smiling. He feels proud of his work.

Questions about the Model

The Job of a Pharmacist

She has a very responsible job. In this photo, she is standing at a counter in the pharmacy. She is holding a bottle of medicine and is wearing a white lab coat. She is listening to someone on the phone. She looks serious.

Maybe a customer is having a problem with a prescription. Every day, the pharmacist talks prescription. Every day, the pharmacist talks to customers about their prescriptions. She answers their questions on the phone and at the counter. She has to give them the right medicine and the right information. She sometimes needs to talk to doctors or nurses about the prescriptions. People depend on her.

A pharmacist has a lot of responsibility.

ORGANIZATION

SUPPORTING SENTENCES, PART 2

Support for the Topic Sentence

In Chapter 3, you learned about topic sentences. In Chapter 5, you learned about supporting sentences. They form the body of a paragraph—the middle of the paragraph and its largest part.

Supporting sentences must show why the topic sentence is true. They must present evidence—information that helps to prove the writer's point about the topic.

PRACTICE 2

Supporting Sentences

Work alone or with a partner. Read each topic sentence. Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea. Write two supporting sentences.

- 1. Doctors need good communication skills.
  - a. They need to be good listeners.
  - b. They need to give clear explanations to their patients.

PARAGRAPH UNITY

A good paragraph must have unity. That means that all the supporting sentences in a paragraph must be relevant—they must relate to the controlling idea in the topic sentence. The opposite of relevant is irrelevant. A sentence that goes off-topic or does not support the controlling idea is irrelevant, and it does not belong in the paragraph.

In this paragraph, two irrelevant sentences are crossed out.

Being a Professional Baseball Player

Professional baseball players have a high-pressure job. When they are at work, thousands of people are watching them. They know many people will see any mistakes they make. Baseball fans feel pressure, too. When it is their turn at bat, baseball players know that their team is depending on them to get a hit. That means more pressure. They also know that they have to play well, or the team manager will take them out of the game. Professional baseball players must be able to play well under pressure. Good players make good money.

The topic of the paragraph is the job of professional baseball players. The controlling idea is that they have a high-pressure job. The two crossed-out sentences do not explain why his job is high pressure.

- The sentence about the fans is about their feelings, not the players'. It does not support the controlling idea, so it is irrelevant in this paragraph.
- The sentence about good players making a lot of money is true, but it, too, is irrelevant in this paragraph because it does not support the controlling idea.

PRACTICE 3

Identifying Irrelevant Sentences

Work alone or with a partner. Read each paragraph. Underline the topic sentence. Find two irrelevant sentences, and cross them out.

Paragraph 1

The Job of a Chef

Chefs need to be very organized. They are responsible for managing the kitchens of busy restaurants and hotels. They often direct the work of many other people. Some chefs are really bad bosses. They want their kitchens to be well-organized, with everything in its place and everyone working as a team. Many chefs like to invent new dishes. Chefs need to do a lot of planning. For example, they need to plan menus and order supplies. All these responsibilities require good organizational skills.

Paragraph 2

Conditions in Antarctica

Antarctica is a difficult and dangerous place for people. Penguins live there. It is very cold, with the average temperature about 40 degrees below zero. The air is very dry, and there are strong winds. In the winter, the sun never comes up. I would never go there in the winter. In the summer, the strong rays of the sun are bad for people's skin and eyes. They need protection from both the cold and the sun. Some people stay in Antarctica for a few days, weeks, or months, but no one calls Antarctica home.

My Favorite Holiday

I always loved the traditions of New Year's Eve in my country. First, we all cleaned our homes so they looked nice for the new year. We also put up colored lights and other decorations. Then everyone dressed up in nice new clothes. My brother never wanted to help with the cleaning or get dressed up. The best tradition was a special dinner with all our relatives. Then at midnight, everyone went outside, and there were fireworks in the streets. Sometimes we had fireworks on other holidays, too. I always loved celebrating the new year in my country.

GRAMMAR

THE PRESENT PROGRESSIVE

In Chapters 2 and 3, you learned about verbs in the simple present tense. Now you will learn about verbs in the present progressive (also called the present continuous).

A present progressive verb has two parts:

- (1) the verb be: am, is, or are
- (2) a main verb that ends in -ing.

(1) (2)

Excuse me, my phone is ringing.

Present Progressive Verb Forms

See Appendix C5, page 205, for spelling rules for verbs ending in -ing.

PRACTICE 4

Describing Actions

- Match the verbs with the pictures. Write a sentence for each picture using the present progressive form of the verb.
  - a. drive
- c. listen
- e. fix
- g. stand

- b. use
- d. run
- f. hold
- h. carry

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write four or more statements about the people in each picture. Use the present progressive to tell what is happening. Write both affirmative and negative statements.

Picture A: The people are waiting for a bus. The two men are not talking.

PRESENT PROGRESSIVE VS. SIMPLE PRESENT

Verb Functions

Compare the uses of the present progressive and the simple present.

Present progressive

The present progressive is used to describe actions happening at this moment. For example:

You are reading this sentence.

The present progressive is also used to describe actions happening over a longer time period. The period continues in the present. For example:

Habiba is taking a math course this semester.

The scientists are working in Antarctica for a few weeks.

Simple present

The simple present is used to state facts and to describe routines and habits—actions that happen again and again. For example:

The sun rises in the east.

I eat breakfast at home.

Because the present progressive and the simple present have different meanings, they are used with different time expressions. Study the rules and examples in the chart.

Rules	Examples
<ul> <li>1. Use the present progressive with time expressions such as:</li> <li>now, right now, and at this moment</li> <li>this week, this month, this year</li> </ul>	You are reading right now.  She is studying English this year.
2. Do not use the present progressive with adverbs of frequency. Use the simple present.	Sometimes I am going to the movies on weekends.

PRACTICE 5

Present Progressive vs. Simple Present

Fill in the blanks. Use the present progressive or simple present form of the verb in parentheses.

1	(Civ.) The area of a contract to the contract
1.	(fix) The mechanic my car now. Every day, he cars with many different kinds of problems.
2.	(write) Sometimes my doctor prescriptions. At this moment, she a prescription for me.
3.	(work) Veterinarians often with different kinds of animals, but Dr. Garcia always with horses.
4.	(teach) Lindsay is an English professor. At the moment, she a class in the writing lab. This semester, she three courses.
5.	(talk) My cousin is a receptionist in a doctor's office. She to everyone who comes into the office. She
	a. to patients all day every day.
	b. (continued on next page)

6. (learn) Edward is going to school to become a hair stylist. He
________ to cut people's hair. This week, he and his classmates _______ how to cut short hair on men.
7. (travel) Jack _______ this week. He _______ every week for his job. He is a sales rep for a toy company.

Non-Action Verbs

Some verbs do not express action or movement. These verbs are called non-action verbs (or stative verbs). Do not use the present progressive with non-action verbs. Use the simple present.

do not like prefer

I am not liking coffee. I am preferring tea.

The verbs in the chart are also non-action verbs like prefer and like. Remember to use only simple present forms of these verbs.

Non-Action Verbs
Description	Senses	Mental States	Emotions
be	hear	know	hate
look*	see	need	dislike
seem	smell	want	love

*look = seem or appear to be: She looks sad. Look is an action verb when it means "turn your eyes to see."

PRACTICE 6

Action vs. Non-Action Verbs

Circle the correct verb.

- 1. This pizza tastes great. I (am liking / like) it!
- 2. Please be quiet. You (are making / make ) too much noise.
- 3. I do not understand this homework. I (am needing / need) some help.
- 4. The students always (are looking / look) sleepy on Monday mornings.
- 5. Beatriz is at the mall. She (is looking for / looks for) a new dress.
- 6. Nanami has her radio on. She (is listening / listens) to the news at the moment.
- 7. Listen! Do you hear music?—No, I (am not hearing / do not hear) anything.
- 8. Tom is at the pharmacy. He (is wanting / wants) some cold medicine.

The Verb Have

The verb have can be an action verb or a non-action verb. It depends on the meaning of have in the sentence.

Rules	Examples
<ul><li>1. Have is an action verb when it means:</li><li>eating or drinking</li><li>doing or experiencing something</li></ul>	He is having lunch now. He always has lunch at noon.  They are having a party. It's noisy! They often have loud parties.
You can use either the present progressive or the simple present.
<ul> <li>2. Have is a non-action verb when it refers to: <ul> <li>possession</li> <li>relationship</li> <li>sickness</li> </ul> </li> <li>Do not use the present progressive. Use the simple present.</li> </ul>	She has a new car.  He does not have any brothers.  I have a headache.  NOT: She is having a new car.  He is not having any brothers.  I am having a headache.

PRACTICE 7

Action vs. Non-Action with Have

Circle the correct verb.

- 1. Slava likes animals, but he (is not having / does not have) a pet.
- 2. Mr. Brown is out of the office right now. He (is having / has) lunch.
- 3. My sister (is having / has) two children, one boy and one girl.
- 4. My head hurts, and I (am having / have) a sore throat.
- 5. Monique (is not having / does not have) a good job.
- 6. My friends are at a party now. I am sure they (are having / have) fun.
- 7. I am drinking tea, and she (is having / has) coffee.
- 8. Students often (are having / have) exams at the end of the school year.

Editing for Verb Errors

Find eight more verb errors in the paragraph. Make corrections.

1 Danny is wanting to buy a car. 2 He is having a new job and needing a car for work. 3 Right now, he is at Ace Used Cars. 4 He is looking at a car. 5 A salesperson is talk to Danny. 6 She describing the car to him. 7 He listens to her. 8 The car is not bad, but Danny is not liking it very much. 9 He is want a nice car, but he is not have much money.

10 The price for this car seems right. 11 He is thinking about it.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

SIMPLE SENTENCE PATTERNS, PART 2

In Chapter 4, you learned that simple sentences have one subject-verb combination. You saw simple sentences with these two patterns:

1 subject + 1 verb I work in a factory.

2 subjects + 1 verb Mark and I work in the same factory.

Here are two more patterns for simple sentences. These patterns also have one subject-verb combination.

1 subject + 2 verbs Stan sits and works in an office all day.

Stan is sitting and working now.

2 subjects + 2 verbs Stan and Lisa sit and work in an office all day.

Study the rules and examples in the chart.

Rules	Examples
Use and to add a second subject or a second verb.  Do not use a comma.	Doctors and nurses work in hospitals.  They examine and treat patients.
2. Use or to connect two negative verbs.	Nurses' aides do not examine or treat patients.
3. When you connect two verbs, do not repeat do/does not or am/is/are not .	My doctor is on vacation, so he is not taking calls or is not replying to email.

PRACTICE 9

Recognizing Simple Sentence Patterns

Work alone or with a partner. Underline the verbs and write V above them. Underline the subjects and write S above them.

- 1. Eva exercises and eats healthy food.
- 2. She takes vitamins and gets plenty of sleep.
- 3. She eats fresh vegetables and avoids fast food.
- 4. Her parents and her brother also eat well and exercise.
- 5. Eva and her brother work out six days a week.
- 6. She walks on a treadmill and rides an exercise bicycle.
- 7. She does not lift weights or run.
- 8. Eva and her brother look good and feel great.

She is on a treadmill.

He is lifting weights.

PRACTICE 10

Combining Sentences

- Combine each pair of sentences into one simple sentence. Use and or or to connect the present progressive verbs.
  - 1. The bus driver is not listening to music. He is not talking to the passengers. The bus driver is not listening to music or talking to the passengers.
  - 2. The players are putting on their uniforms. They are getting ready for the game.
  - 3. The security guard is not watching TV. He is not sleeping on the job.
  - 4. The teacher is sitting at his desk. He is correcting students' papers.
  - 5. The fashion model is not smiling. She is not speaking to the photographer.
- Combine each pair of sentences into one simple sentence. Use and to connect two subjects. Use and or or to connect the simple present verbs.
  - 1. Police officers wear uniforms. Soldiers wear uniforms.

Police officers and soldiers wear uniforms.

- 2. A dentist examines people's teeth. A dentist fixes tooth problems.
- 3. Computer technicians understand computers. Computer technicians fix computer problems.
- 4. Farmers do not sleep late. Farmers do not take many days off.
- 5. Cooks work in kitchens. They prepare food. Bakers work in kitchens. They prepare food.

Writing Tip

Make your writing more interesting by using a variety of sentence patterns. When you revise a paragraph, try combining short sentences.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Words for Jobs

You will need to use words for jobs when you speak and write about the people in the photos on page 125. Review the words for jobs on pages 110 and 111, such as baker and pharmacist.

You have seen many other words for jobs in this chapter. Practice 11 will let you test your memory of words for jobs and discuss job responsibilities.

PRACTICE 11 Words for Jobs

- Complete the sentences. Check your answers by looking at the list of words in Part B on the next page.
  - 1. A person who fixes problems with computers is a computer technician
  - 2. A person whose job is to stop fires is a ______.
  - 3. A person whose job is to repair cars or other machines is a
  - 4. A person who works with doctors to take care of sick or injured people is a ______.
  - 5. A person who operates the controls of an airplane or helicopter is a ______.
  - 6. A person whose job is to report the news in a newspaper or on TV, radio, or the Internet is a ______.
  - 7. A person whose job is to give medical care to sick or injured animals is a ______.
  - 8. A man who serves food in a restaurant is a _____

A computer technician

Work with a partner. Complete the statements with words from the box. There is more than one way to complete each statement.

computer technicians	mechanics	pilots	veterinarians
firefighters	nurses	reporters	waiters

EXAMPLE

	Nurses	help in emergencies.
1.		help in emergencies.
2.		fix machines.
3.		wear uniforms.
4.		interview people.
5.		need good communication skills.
6.		use computers at work.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about a person in a photo, like the writing models on pages 108 and 109. Your paragraph will describe both the person's job and what the person is doing at this moment in the photo.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Choose one of the four photos to write about.
- b. Work with a partner who has chosen a different photo. Tell your partner about the person in your photo. Talk about:
  - what the person's job is
  - what you think about this job
  - what the person usually does at work
  - where the person is at this moment
  - what the person is doing now
  - what the person is wearing
  - how the person feels and why
- c. Take notes about your photo on a sheet of paper.

Writing Tip

When you are planning to write a paragraph, it is natural to think about the topic in your first language. But you also need to ask yourself, "What can I say about this topic in English?" Be sure to choose a topic that is a good match for your English writing skills.

Photo 1

Photo 4

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

- a. Use your notes to write the first draft of a paragraph. At the beginning of your paragraph:
  - Identify which photo you are writing about.
  - Write a topic sentence.

Look at the writing models on pages 108 and 109 for examples.

You can use an adjective to express the controlling idea about your topic.

He has an interesting job.

Her job is sometimes difficult.

Here are some other adjectives that can describe jobs: boring, easy, exciting, great, important, satisfying, and stressful.

- b. Continue writing your first draft. Make sure that your supporting sentences about the person's job show why your controlling idea is true.
- c. Give your paragraph a title.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the first draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed. Check for mistakes. Cross out any irrelevant sentences.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

- c. Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher. Mark any changes you want to make.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper, and write a new draft.
- b. Check your paragraph carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

In this chapter, you learned to: Make sure supporting sentences are relevant Use present progressive verbs in sentences Recognize and use non-action verbs Use have as both an action verb and a non-action verb Choose between the simple present and present progressive Write simple sentences with different sentence patterns Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about someone at work Which ones can you do well? #### EXPANSION

TIMED WRITING

Students need to write quickly to succeed in academic writing. For example, sometimes students need to do a writing assignment in class or on a test, and they have only a short time to do it.

To practice writing quickly, you are going to write a paragraph in class. You will have 20 minutes. To complete the assignment in time, follow these steps.

- 1. Read the writing prompt on page 128 (or the prompt that your teacher gives you). Make sure that you understand the prompt. If you have questions, ask your teacher. (2 minutes)
- 2. Brainstorm to get ideas. On a sheet of paper, make some notes. Then think about organizing your ideas. Mark up your notes with circles, arrows, and numbers to show the order of information in your paragraph. Write a topic sentence for your paragraph. (6 minutes)
- 3. Write your paragraph. Be sure to include a topic sentence and supporting sentences. (10 minutes)

- 4. Check your paragraph. Correct any mistakes. (2 minutes)
- Give your paper to your teacher.

Prompt: Write a paragraph about a person who has a good job. You can write about someone you know ("My uncle has a good job.") or about anyone who does a certain kind of job ("A news photographer has a good job."). Write what makes the job a good one.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas.

- Where are you at this moment? Describe what you are doing and what you are wearing. Are there any other people around you? Tell what they are doing.
- Name a job that interests you, one that you might like to do in the future. Why are you interested in this job?
- These days, you are going to classes and you are using this book. What else are you doing—in and outside of school to learn English? What helps you the most?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 7

REMEMBERING AN IMPORTANT EVENT

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Organize your ideas during prewriting
- Write compound sentences with and, but, and so
- Apply rules for using commas in sentences
- Use simple past verbs
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about an important event in your life

A big day

INTRODUCTION

In this chapter, you will be reading about people's memories of important events in their lives. An event is something that happens, especially something important, interesting, or unusual. You will write a paragraph to share your memories of an important event or a special day in your own life.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, two students describe special events in their lives.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

An Important Day in My Life

The day of my high school graduation was a good day for me. It was a Saturday. In the morning, I got dressed. I had a new suit and tie for that day. Then I went to a friend's house. Six of my friends were there. Later, we rode to the school together in my friend's car. At 2:00 P.M., all the students in my class entered the school gymnasium. My parents and grandparents were already in their seats, and they took a lot of pictures. The principal called the names of the honor students first. I was in that group, and I won a prize because I was the best math student. I was very happy about that, and my family was proud of me that day.

Questions about the Model

- 1. What is the topic sentence? Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea.
- 2. Why was it a good day for the writer? Give one reason.

3.	What details does the	writer include in his description of the day?
	□ the weather	□ places he went
	□ other people	□ things he did
	□ his clothing	□ his feelings

5.	What simple past forms of the verb be did the writer use? Fill in the blank
	a. It a Saturday.
	b. Six of my friends there.
6.	What simple past forms of regular verbs did the writer use?
	a. At 2:00 P.M., the students in my class the gymnasium
	b. The principal the names of the honor students first.
7.	What simple past forms of irregular verbs did the writer use?
	a. In the morning, I dressed.
	b. I a new suit and tie for that day.
	c. Then I to a friend's house.

My Wedding Day

I have many wonderful memories of my wedding day. I would like to tell you about three of them. First of all, I remember the beautiful weather. The week before was cold and cloudy, but my wedding day was sunny and warm. I felt lucky. I also remember seeing smiles all around me that day. Almost 100 of my relatives and friends were there. They liked my future husband, so they were happy for me. Most of all, I remember walking up the aisle with him after the ceremony. I carried a bouquet of yellow flowers, and I held his arm tightly. My heart was very full. This unforgettable day began a new life for me.

Questions about the Model

- 1. What is the topic of the paragraph? ____
- 2. What is the controlling idea about the topic?

Looking

Sometimes an adjective is followed by a prepositional phrase, as in . . . they were happy for me (from Writing Model 2). Some adjectives always take the same preposition. Other adjectives can take more than one preposition.

Use happy + for + a person: I was happy for my friend when he won first prize.

Use happy + about + a thing, idea, or event: I was happy about my grade.

Adjectives + Prepositions PRACTICE 1

- A Find the adjectives happy and proud in Writing Model 1 and happy in Writing Model 2. Circle the prepositions that follow them.
- B Fill in the blanks. Use the adjective + preposition combinations from the box. There is more than one way to complete each statement.

1.	. I was		getting married.
2.	I was always _		sports.
3.	My parents we	re	me.
4.	. I was		getting lost.
5.	I was	t	he changes in my li
6.	. I was	r	naking decisions.

ORGANIZING YOUR IDEAS

The information in a paragraph needs to be organized. The writer must put the information in some kind of order. This makes the paragraph easier to read and understand.

There are many ways to organize a paragraph. For example, you can use time order. You studied time order in Chapter 4, and the author of Writing Model 1 in this chapter used time order for his paragraph. Writing Model 2, however, is different. The writer used listing order. When using listing order, the writer divides the topic into separate points and then discusses them one by one.

Writers need to make some decisions about organization early in the writing process, during prewriting. Read about how the two writers did their prewriting and organized their ideas.

Getting Organized: Time Order

For a prewriting activity, the author of Writing Model 1 made a list of notes about the day. He wrote the list in time order.

gotup had breakfast made phone calls got dressed—new clothes T's house-6 friends driving around town, then to school walking into the gym with my class parents, grandparents, pictures honor students first, my prize dinner at restaurant parties

The writer needed to limit his paragraph. He had to decide what information from his list to keep and what information to leave out.

PRACTICE 2

Choosing Ideas from Prewriting

Work alone or with a partner. Reread Writing Model 1 on page 130. In the list of notes above, underline the details that the writer chose to use in his paragraph. Cross out the notes the writer did not use.

Getting Organized: Listing Order

As a prewriting activity, the author of Writing Model 2 tried freewriting. Freewriting means writing about a topic for five or ten minutes without stopping.

The author of Writing Model 2 wrote quickly, keeping her fingers moving on the keyboard. She did not worry about mistakes in spelling or grammar. She did not worry about writing incomplete sentences or repeating ideas. She thought only about getting her ideas out as fast as possible. That is the goal of freewriting.

The writer needed to limit her paragraph. She could not use all the ideas in her freewriting. She had to decide what to keep and what to leave out.

After looking at her freewriting, the writer decided to use listing order for her paragraph. She decided on three important memories of her wedding day: the lovely weather, the smiles of her friends and relatives, and the walk up the aisle with her husband after the ceremony. Then she chose details to support each point, to explain why each of these memories was important to her.

You will see that in the final paragraph, she also added some details that were not in her freewriting.

PRACTICE 3

Choosing Ideas from Prewriting

Work alone or with a partner. Reread Writing Model 2 on page 131. Then look at the writer's freewriting on page 134. Underline the parts of her freewriting that she decided to use for her paragraph. Cross out the ideas the writer did not use.

PRACTICE 4

Listing Order and Supporting Sentences

- A Look again at Writing Model 2 on page 131. Put a check (√) before each sentence that introduces a key memory of the writer's wedding day. Underline the six sentences that give details.
- B Compare Writing Model 2 with the writer's freewriting on page 134. Look for details in the writing model that were not in the freewriting. Double underline those new details in the writing model.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE AND MECHANICS

SIMPLE VS. COMPOUND SENTENCES

Review of Simple Sentences

In Chapters 4 and 6, you studied four patterns for simple sentences. Each pattern has one subject-verb combination.

1 SUBJECT + 1 VERB
I watched the World Cup.
2 SUBJECTS + 1 VERB
My friends and I watched the World Cup.
1 SUBJECT + 2 VERBS
We watched the game and cheered for our team.
2 SUBJECTS + 2 VERBS
My friends and I went to a café and watched the game on their big TV.

Simple Sentence Patterns

Match each sentence with a sentence pattern. Write the letter.

- a. 1 SUBJECT + 1 VERB
- b. 2 SUBJECTS + 1 VERB
- C. 1 SUBJECT + 2 VERBS
- d. 2 SUBJECTS + 2 VERBS
- 1. My friends and I play soccer and watch it on TV, too.
- 2. My friends get excited and yell at the TV.
- 3. We all have our favorite players.
- 4. Soccer and basketball are my favorite sports.

Compound Sentences

A compound sentence has two subject-verb combinations. To make a compound sentence, connect two simple sentences. Put a comma after the first simple sentence, and then use a coordinating conjunction, such as and, but, or so.

My friends and I have TVs at home, but we like watching games at a café with other fans.

PRACTICE 6

Recognizing Compound Sentences

Find four compound sentences in the paragraph. Mark the subjects S and the verbs V. Circle the comma and the coordinating conjunction.

And, But, and So in Compound Sentences

The coordinating conjunctions and, but, and so have different meanings.

Rules	Examples
1. Use and to add information.	I went shopping, and I bought souvenirs of my trip.
2. Use but when the second idea is different or surprising.	I bought a lot of things, but I did not spend a lot of money.
3. Use so to show a result.	My family liked their gifts, so I was happy about that.

See Appendix D, page 212, for more information about coordinating conjunctions.

PRACTICE 7

Creating Compound Sentences

Combine each pair of simple sentences into a compound sentence. Use the coordinating conjunction in parentheses.

- 1. In April of last year, my son was six years old. My daughter was four. (and) In April of last year, my son was six years old, and my daughter was four.
- 2. One day, my children were at home. My friend's little boy was there, too. (and) _____
- 3. The children were in the kitchen. I was not with them. (but) _____

4.	My friend's son picked up the phone. He called 911.
	(and)
5.	He did not talk to the operator. She saw our address on her computer screen.
	(but)
6.	She believed that we had an emergency. She sent the police to our house.
	(so)
7.	There was no emergency. The police officers were angry about the call.
	(so)
8.	I was upset with the children. I had a serious talk with them.
	(so)
9.	It was just a child's mistake. I had to pay a $50 fine.
	(but)
10.	I learned a lesson. The children did, too.
	/ 1\

Coordinating Conjunctions

Circle the correct coordinating conjunction.

- 1. It was a beautiful place, (and / but) I was happy there.
- 2. Hee Eun did not study for the test, (but / so) she got a good grade.
- 3. I liked the movie, (and / but) I did not understand all of it.
- 4. First, I cleaned the kitchen, (and / so) then I cleaned the bathroom.
- 5. It rained all day, (but / so) they did not play baseball.
- 6. The music was great, (and / but) there was free food.
- 7. Their apartment building is nice, (but / so) that part of the city is not.
- 8. The shoes did not fit right, (but / so) I did not buy them.

Using Commas

On page 136, you learned about using commas in compound sentences. Here are four more rules for using commas.

Rules	Examples
1. Use a comma between the date and the year.	I was born on March 1 , 1991 .
2. Use a comma after a time expression or a time-order word at the beginning of a sentence. (Exception: Do not use a comma after Then .)	Last year, we took a family vacation.  First, we decided where to go.  Then I did some research online.
3. Use a comma between items in a series of words or phrases.  (Make sure that the items in a series are the same part of speech.)	Lucia, Rosa, and I went to the beach.  We went swimming, read magazines, and took long walks.
4. Do not use a comma when you connect only two words or phrases.	My parents and friends came to see me in the hospital.  I do not remember the accident or the ambulance ride.

PRACTICE 9

Correcting Comma Errors

Find the places where 12 commas are missing. Make corrections. One sentence needs no comma.

- 1. In August of 2012 we celebrated my parents' 25th wedding anniversary.
- 2. They were married on August 7 1987.
- 3. My parents invited all our relatives and everyone came to our house for the day.
- 4. My grandparents aunts uncles and cousins brought many kinds of food.
- 5. We ate together at a table in our backyard.
- 6. There were many delicious main dishes salads and desserts.
- 7. After that the children played games and the adults sat and talked.
- 8. In the evening we said our goodbyes and everyone went home.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write answers to the questions. Use the words in parentheses. You will need one or more commas in each sentence.

What are three things you do not own? (or)

I do not own a motorcycle, a horse, or a boat.

- 1. What are three foods you like? (and)
- 2. What are three subjects you are interested in studying? (and)
- 3. What are three subjects you are not interested in? (or)
- 4. What are three things you do in the morning? (In the morning)
- 5. What are two things you often do on weekends? (On weekends)
- 6. What is today's date? (Give the month, the day, and the year.)

GRAMMAR

THE SIMPLE PAST

Verbs in the simple past describe events that began and ended in the past.

IN THE PRESENT IN THE PAST

I watch the news on TV every day. I watched the news on TV yesterday.

Mr. Lee is a grandfather now. Mr. Lee was a child in the 1950s.

The Simple Past of the Verb Be

In Chapter 1, you learned that the verb be has three present forms: am, are, and is. In the simple past, the verb be has only two forms: was and were.

Simple Past of Be in Statements
Singular Subject	Be	(Not)		Plural Subject	Be	(Not)
I	was		(not) here last week.	We
You	were			You	were	(not)	here last week.
Не		(not)		They
She	was
It

Rules	Examples
1. The past of there is/are is there was/were.	There was a meeting yesterday.  There were no cars 200 years ago.
2. A past time expression can go at the beginning or end of a sentence.	I was at home yesterday morning.  In 1999, Jack was in Singapore.

See Appendix C3, page 200, for contractions with not. See page 159 for more information about past time expressions.

PRACTICE 10	Was/Were in Statements
PRACTICE IV	Was/Were III Statements

4.	There is never much rain here.
		last year.
5.	My family is not here.
	In 1008

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Answer the questions in complete sentences. Use was or were.

- 1. When you were a child, what were your favorite TV shows?
- 2. How was the weather yesterday?
- 3. Where were you at 6:00 P.M. yesterday?
- 4. Where were you five years ago?
- 5. What color was your first (bicycle/car/pet)?
- 6. How many students were there in your high school?

The Simple Past: Regular Verbs

All regular verbs end in -ed in simple past affirmative statements. The verb is the same for all subjects.

REGULAR VERBS IN THE SIMPLE PAST: AFFIRMATIVE STATEMENTS
Subject	Simple Past Verb
I	lived	in Kiev for 17 years.
She	studied	engineering at the university.
Не	stopped	working at age 68.
They	arrived	in this country six months ago.

See Appendix C6, page 207, for spelling rules for regular verbs in the simple past.

REGULAR VERBS IN THE SIMPLE PAST: NEGATIVE STATEMENTS
Subject	Did Not	Base Form of Verb
I		live	with my family.
She	did not	study	music or art.
Не		stop	his volunteer work.
They		arrive	by plane.

Spelling Practice

Write the simple past form of each verb. Check Appendix C6 on page 207 for spelling rules.

1. listen	listened	6. plan
2. fix		7. carry
3. need		8. decide
4. stay		9. worry
5. cry		10. stop

PRACTICE 12

Regular Verbs in Negative Statements

Complete the sentences. Repeat the same verb, but make it negative. Use the past time expression in parentheses.

1. (last night) I often watch TV at night, but I did not watch TV last night. 2. (last year) They often visit us, but they ______. 3. (yesterday) She often calls me, but she ______. 4. (last night) It often rains, but it ______. 5. (last month) We often travel, but we ______. 6. (last weekend) He often washes his car on weekends, but

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write ten true statements using the simple past. Use the verbs from the box. Include both affirmative and negative statements. Include time expressions such as yesterday, last week/month/year, or in 2012.

	fix			2
cook	listen	rain	stay	talk	walk

EXAMPLES

I listened to music and studied last night.

It did not rain last weekend.

The Simple Past: Irregular Verbs

Irregular verbs do not end in -ed in the simple past. Compare two verbs with the same meaning, the irregular verb begin and the regular verb start:

VERBS IN TH	THE SIMPLE PAST: AFFIRMATIVE STATEMENTS
		Simple Past Form
Regular	mai 1	started
Irregular	The class	began	on time.

Many common verbs are irregular, such as go (went), have (had), get (got), and make (made). You will need to use irregular verbs, so you will need to memorize their simple past forms. You can find a list of common irregular verbs on page 208.

In negative statements, there is no difference between regular and irregular verbs in the simple past. For both types of verbs, use did not + the base form of the verb.

Verbs in the Simple Past: Negative Statements
		Did	Not	Base Form of the Verb
Regular	The alone	a: a	m 0.1	start	1040
Irregular	The class	did	not	begin	late.

Irregular Verbs in Statements

PRACTICE 15

Statements with the Simple Past

Write six sentences about Amanda's life using information from the timeline. Use verbs in the simple past tense.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write six or more true statements about your life. Use the simple past tense. Try to include both affirmative and negative statements.

I was born in Osaka.

I loved animals, but I did not have a pet.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Adjectives + Prepositions

In this chapter, you have seen many adjectives followed by prepositions. Review the ones you learned about on page 132.

A preposition needs an object. That object is usually a noun or an object pronoun (me, you, him, her, it, us, them).

They were happy for Maria. We were happy for her, too.

He was nervous about final exams. I was nervous about them, too.

The object of a preposition can also be a gerund. A gerund looks like the -ing form of a verb, but a gerund is used as a noun.

	Adjective	Preposition	Gerund
	excited	about	going	to college.
I was	interested	in	making	new friends.
	proud	of	getting	good grades.

PRACTICE 16 Adjectives + Prepositions

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition.

- 1. I was happy _____ the result of the game.
- 2. My friends were happy _____ me when I got the job.
- 3. I was proud _____ my brother when he became a pilot.
- 4. Many people are afraid ______ public speaking.
- 5. We were excited ______ our plans for the weekend.
- 6. I was always good ______ sports.
- 7. I was never interested ______ history.
- 8. Everyone was nervous ______ the test.

Adjectives and Prepositions + Gerunds

Take a sheet of paper. Write five or more true statements, affirmative or negative. Include an adjective + preposition + gerund combination in each statement. Use the verb phrases from the box.

buy a car/house learn to drive speak English get a job make mistakes use technology make new friends go away from home

EXAMPLE

I am always interested in making new friends.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about an important event in your life, like the writing models on pages 130 and 131. Before you write, you will have a choice of prewriting activities.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Get ready to write by prewriting. Choose one of these activities:
  - Make notes in time order about what happened on the day of the event. (See page 133 for an example of notes in time order.)
  - Freewrite about the event for at least five minutes. (See page 134 for an explanation of freewriting and an example.)

Writing Tip

Some writers like to do freewriting this way: First, they freewrite for five minutes. Next, they read what they wrote and choose one idea from their writing. Then they freewrite about that idea for five minutes more.

- b. Work with a partner. Take turns describing the important event from your life. Then tell your partner three things you remember about the important event in his or her life.
- c. Look at your notes or freewriting. Decide what information is most important to your description of the event. Circle or underline it. Decide how you want to organize your paragraph. Use time order or listing order, like the writing models on pages 130 and 131.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

Write your first draft. Begin with a topic sentence. Make sure your supporting sentences show why your topic sentence is true. Add a title.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

	PEER REVIEW WORKSHEET
Yo	ur partner's name:
C	ontent
1.	Read all of your partner's paragraph.
2.	Underline any part of the paragraph you do not understand. Ask your partner to explain it.
3.	Circle the topic sentence. If there is no topic sentence, write TS ? on the paper.
4.	Reread the supporting sentences. Ask questions if you want more information.
5.	. How did your partner organize the paragraph? On the paper, write Time order or Listing order . If the organization is not clear, write Order ?.
Fo	rmat and Language
6.	Use this list to check your partner's paper. Check (✓) each item as you finish.
	☐ the format of the paper ☐ the use of simple past verbs ☐ a subject in every sentence ☐ the use of commas ☐ a verb for every subject
7.	Put a question mark (?) if you are not sure about something.

- Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with a comment, ask another student or your teacher.
- e. On your paper, mark any changes you want to make to your paragraph.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper and write a new draft.
- b. Edit your new draft carefully, and hand it in to your teacher.

Writing Tip

Contractions are fine for informal writing, but they are not used in academic writing. When you edit a piece of academic writing, such as your paragraph for this assignment, change any contractions to their full forms. For example, change wasn't and didn't to was not and did not.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- Organize your ideas during prewriting
- O Write compound sentences with and, but, and so
- O Apply rules for using commas in sentences
- O Use simple past verbs
- O Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about an important event in your life

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 🖔

EXPANSION

TIMED WRITING

Students need to write quickly to succeed in academic writing. For example, sometimes students need to do a writing assignment in class or on a test, and they have only a short time to do it.

To practice writing quickly, you are going to write a paragraph in class. You will have 20 minutes. To complete the assignment in time, follow these steps.

- 1. Read the writing prompt on page 151 (or the prompt that your teacher gives you). Make sure that you understand the prompt. If you have questions, ask your teacher. (2 minutes)
- 2. Brainstorm to get ideas. On a sheet of paper, make some notes. Then think about organizing your ideas. Mark up your notes with circles, arrows, and numbers to show the order of information in your paragraph. Write a topic sentence for your paragraph. (6 minutes)

- 3. Write your paragraph. Be sure to include a topic sentence and supporting sentences. (10 minutes)
- 4. Check your paragraph. Correct any mistakes. (2 minutes)
- 5. Give your paper to your teacher.

Prompt: Write about last weekend or some other weekend that you remember well. Choose an adjective to describe the weekend such as busy, interesting, relaxing, typical, unforgettable, or unusual. Use that adjective in your topic sentence. Describe the events of the weekend so that you support your topic sentence.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Write about your education. How old were you when you started school? What schools did you go to? How did you feel about school when you were growing up?
- Think of a time when you had some good luck. What happened? Why did you think you were lucky?
- When did you start learning English? Did you choose to study English, or did you have to learn it? Describe your first experiences with learning English.

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 8

MEMORIES OF A TRIP

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- End a paragraph with a concluding sentence
- Write past time expressions
- Use before and after as prepositions
- Write complex sentences with past time clauses
- Identify and correct sentence fragments
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a trip

Going on a trip!

INTRODUCTION

In this chapter, you will be reading about some memorable trips. If something is memorable, it is worth remembering. At the end of this chapter, you will write a paragraph about a trip of your own that you remember well.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, two students share their memories of trips they took.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

A Trip with My Family

I have a happy memory from my childhood. When I was small, my family took a trip to a lake. It was in the summer. We went there early in the morning and stayed all day. I remember playing games on the grass with my brothers and sisters. We climbed trees, too, and that was fun. At noon, my father built a fire, and we made shish kebabs. It was a delicious lunch. After that, I remember lying on a blanket while my older sister told stories. I loved listening to them. I did not want to leave when it was time to go home. I had a lot of fun that day, so I will always remember that trip to the lake.

Questions about the Model

1.	a.	What is the topic of the paragraph?
	b.	What is the writer's controlling idea about the topic?
2.		hat details does the writer give about the trip?
	a.	When did it happen?
	b.	What did the writer do? List three details.

3. Did the writer use time order to organize the paragraph? (Yes / No) 4. What simple past tense verbs did the writer use in these sentences? Fill in the blanks. a. When I \_\_\_\_\_ a trip to a lake. b. At noon, my father \_\_\_\_\_\_ a fire, and we \_\_\_\_\_ shish kebabs. c. I \_\_\_\_\_\_ to leave when it \_\_\_\_\_ time to go home. Writing Model 2 The Trip That Changed My Life My trip to the United States was a big shock. One day, my mother said, "Go and pack your clothes. Tomorrow we are going to New York. We are going to live there." The news was a complete surprise to me. I went to my room and sat on the bed for a long time. Then I called my best friend. The next morning, my mother and I got on a plane. I remember sitting next to the window and looking down on my city. I remember feeling scared about my future. After we landed in New York, my aunt picked us up, and we went to stay with her. My life changed overnight. I will never forget that trip. Questions about the Model 1. a. What is the topic of the paragraph? \_\_\_\_\_ b. What is the writer's controlling idea about the topic? 2. Why was the trip a shock for the writer? Check  $(\checkmark)$  your answers.

3. Did the writer use time order to organize the paragraph? (Yes / No)

☐ His mother's plans surprised him.

☐ He had to say goodbye to his mother.

☐ Big changes happened in his life very fast.

☐ He was afraid to get on an airplane.

PRACT

Meanings of the Word Memory

The word memory has several meanings. Write the letter for the correct definition of memory next to each example sentence.

- 1. Do you have good memories of vacations during your childhood? 2. I have a bad memory for
  - names, but I never forget a face.
  - 3. My mp3 player has enough memory to hold thousands of songs.
- a. the ability to remember things, such as people and experiences
- b. something that you remember about a person or an experience
- c. the amount of space on a computer for storing information

ORGANIZATION

CONCLUDING SENTENCES

Some paragraphs end with a concluding sentence. Concluding means "finishing" or "completing." A concluding sentence marks the end of the writer's comments on the topic. It usually connects to information in the topic sentence. Below are two ways for a concluding sentence to do that.

 Sometimes a concluding sentence repeats words from the topic sentence, to bring the reader back to the main idea:

TOPIC SENTENCE

CONCLUDING

SENTENCE

When I take a long trip, I prefer to go by train. The seats on trains are very comfortable. They give me enough space for my legs. I like the big windows on trains, too. I enjoy looking out at the views, especially in the country. I also like being free to leave my seat. I can stand up and walk around on a train when I want to. These are just a few of the reasons why I like to travel by train.

 Sometimes the writer ends the paragraph with a personal comment about the topic:

TOPIC SENTENCE

CONCLUDING

SENTENCE

The first—and only—trip by the Titanic is a well-known story. The Titanic was a British passenger ship that set out from Southampton, England, on April 10, 1912, to travel to New York City. It carried some of the richest people in the world, many of them famous. It also carried over a thousand much poorer people who were hoping to build better lives in North America. On the night of April 15, the Titanic hit an iceberg and sank, killing 1,514 people. Every time I think about the story of the Titanic, I feel a great wave of sadness.

PERSONAL COMMENT

Making Connections

Underline the topic sentence and the concluding sentence. Circle the words that connect them.

PRACTICE 4

Choosing a Concluding Sentence

Read each paragraph. Then choose the best concluding sentence. Write that sentence on the lines.

PARAGRAPH 1

The Gift

Last year, during spring break, my parents gave me the gift of a trip. They bought me a plane ticket to visit my brother in Chicago. He and his wife had a new baby boy, and I wanted to see my nephew. I stayed in Chicago for five days and helped take care of the baby. I also did some of the laundry and cooking. I especially remember making the beef stew that my brother loves.

- a. Now it is a year later, and my little nephew is learning to walk.
- b. I tried to help my brother and sister-in-law as much as possible.
- c. That trip was a gift from my parents to me and from me to my brother.

A Wonderful City

I love Florence, Italy, for three reasons. First of all, I enjoy the people of Florence. They are friendly, interesting, and good-looking. Second, I like to hear people speak Italian. I think it is a beautiful language. Finally, I love the food in Florence. You can get delicious things to eat in the markets, shops, and restaurants. -

- a. Millions of people visit Florence because it is a historic city.
- b. The people, language, and food make Florence one of my favorite places.
- c. It is also interesting to learn about the art and architecture of this beautiful city.

Paragraph 3

The Secrets to a Successful Restaurant

There are four keys to running a successful restaurant. First, the food must taste good. Boring or bad food will not bring in customers. Second, the dining room must be a comfortable and attractive place. People should feel good spending time in the restaurant. Third, there must be good service. Both the kitchen staff and the servers need to do their jobs well. Finally, the price must be right. There must be a good match between the cost and the dining experience.

- a. The restaurant should stay open late, too.
- b. A restaurant that does well in these four areas will be a success.
- c. Many new restaurants fail and have to close after just a few months.

Paragraph 4

The Power of Television

Television has a big influence on children today. In some countries, children spend a lot of time watching it. For example, in the United States, the average child watches television three or four hours a day. Many children spend more time each year in front of a TV than in school. _

- a. Personally, I worry about the influence of television on my own children.
- b. In fact, almost all American homes today have one or more TV sets.
- c. The Internet also has a very big influence on many children today.

GRAMMAR

PAST TIME EXPRESSIONS

A past time expression tells when something happened. It often comes at the beginning or end of a sentence. When it is at the beginning of a sentence, put a comma after it.

I was absent from class the day before yesterday.

The day before yesterday, I was absent from class.

Past Time Expressions with Ago or Last

The words ago and last are used in some past time expressions.

Rules	Examples
1. Use an amount of time + ago .	It happened many years ago.
	They left five minutes ago.
2. Use last + a period of time.	It happened last summer.
	They left last week.

Fill in the blanks with ago or last to complete the paragraph.

year, Raquel took several business trips. In January, she was in South Africa for ten days. Then she went to Brazil ____ March. It was not her first trip to South America. She was also there in 2000 and again four years ______. Her next trip was _____ May, to Hong Kong. She has been there several times, too. In fact, she was there a week ______. Then fall, Raquel went on two trips to Europe. Many years _____, when she was a little girl, she dreamed about seeing the world. Now her dream has come true.

Prepositional Phrases for Describing Past Time

The prepositions in, on, and for are used in some past time expressions.

Rules	Examples
1. Use in + a month, season, or year.	It happened in July. It happened in 1922.
2. Use on + a specific day or date.	It happened on July 1, 1922. The baby was born on Friday.
3. Use for + an amount of time.	We waited for 15 minutes.

In, On, and For in Past Time Expressions

Fill in the blanks with in, on, or for to complete the statements.

- 1. He graduated ______ 2006.
- 2. I was born _____ March 13, 1987.
- 3. We stayed there ______ ten days.
- 4. I bought my ticket _____ Monday.
- 5. She went on vacation _____ April.
- 6. They were away ______ a week.
- 7. Their trip began _____ August 8.
- 8. We waited _____ an hour.
- 9. We got married ______ the spring.
- 10. The wedding was _____ May 1, 2001.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write ten true statements about your life. Use the past time expressions in the list.

___ days ago I went to the zoo four days ago.

- 1. last weekend
- 2. last summer
- 3. one year ago
- 4. in 1999
- 5. in 2012
- 6. for a long time
- 7. for _____ years
- 8. ____ days ago
- 9. _____ years ago
- 10. on _____

Before and After as Prepositions

Before and after are sometimes used as prepositions. A prepositional phrase with before or after describes time. Use a noun or a gerund as the object of the preposition.

PREPOSITION + NOUN

I was nervous before the flight.

PREPOSITION + GERUND

I was nervous before getting on the plane.

Rules	Examples
1. Use after + an earlier event.	They took a trip after getting married. (first, the wedding; then the trip)
2. Do not use after without an object.	They got married and took a trip after.
3. Use before + a later event.	I talked to the teacher before class. (first, the talk; then the class)
4. Put the prepositional phrase at the beginning or end of a sentence. The meaning is the same.	Before class, I talked to the teacher. (first, the talk; then the class)

PRACTICE 7

Combining Sentences with After and Before

Take a sheet of paper. Combine the two sentences, keeping the time and word order the same. Use after or before + the boldfaced words.

After

We finished work. We went fishing.

After work, we went fishing.

before

I washed my hands. I had lunch.

I washed my hands before lunch.

- 1. I studied. I took the test.
- 2. He had an interview. He got the job.
- 3. I spent a day at the beach. I had a sunburn.
- 4. I sent out invitations. I had my birthday party.
- 5. We went on our vacation. We told our friends about it.
- 6. He read the newspaper. He went to work.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write four true statements with before and four true statements with after. Use the nouns and gerunds from the box, or choose other objects.

I was nervous before taking my final exams. I had coffee after my first class.

breakfast class graduating from lunch exam getting married dinner doing homework having a baby

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

SENTENCES WITH PAST TIME CLAUSES

Past Time Clauses and Independent Clauses

A past time clause tells when something happened.

PAST TIME CLAUSE

They saw the Taj Mahal when they were in India.

A past time clause must have three things:

- (1) a time word
- (2) a subject
- (3) a verb

(1) (2) (3) We said goodbye before we left.

A past time clause cannot be a complete sentence by itself. It must connect to an independent clause. An independent clause can be a complete sentence.

I went to Buenos Aires. =
$$\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{an independent clause} \\ \text{a complete sentence} \end{array} \right.$$

INDEPENDENT CLAUSE PAST TIME CLAUSE I went to Buenos Aires after I finished school.

Sentences with time clauses are complex sentences.

See Appendix D, page 213, for more information about complex sentences.

Look at each group of words. Check (✓) Independent Clause or Past Time Clause.

		Independent Clause	PAST TIME CLAUSE
1.	when Mei Li and I heard about the concert		$\checkmark$
2.	we decided to buy tickets	•
3.	we stood in line for an hour before the concert
4.	a lot of our friends came
5.	before the concert started
6.	the concert lasted more than three hours
7.	the band played some of their greatest hits
8.	after they played some of their new music
9.	when the concert ended
10.	Mei Li and I went out to eat

Past Time Clauses with Before, After, and When

Before, after, and when are subordinating conjunctions in time clauses.

Rules	Examples
1. Use after + something that happened earlier.	THIS HAPPENED FIRST.  He went to bed after he brushed  his teeth.
2. Use before + something that happened later.	THIS HAPPENED LATER. He brushed his teeth before he went to bed.
3. Use when + something that happened at the same time or soon afterward.	THIS HAPPENED AT THE SAME TIME.  Everybody cried when we said goodbye.
4. A past time clause can come before or after the independent clause. Put a comma after the time clause when it comes first.	When we said goodbye, everybody cried.

PRACTICE 9

Complex Sentences with Before and After

Work alone or with a partner. Write 1 above the action that happened first and 2 above the action that happened later. Underline the past time clause in each sentence.

- 1. Mariela and Ricardo met after they entered the London School of Economics.
- 2. Mariela knew Ricardo's friends before she met him.
- 3. After Ricardo heard about Mariela, he wanted to meet her.
- 4. He fell in love soon after he met her.
- 5. Before Mariela agreed to marry Ricardo, he had to meet her family in Venezuela.
- 6. Ricardo and Mariela graduated from the university before they got married.
- 7. They went on a honeymoon after they got married.
- 8. After they returned from their trip, they found jobs in Caracas.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Write sentences with past time clauses to answer the questions. Use after, before, or when. Underline each past time clause.

When did you start school?

I started school when I was five years old.

When did you buy a ticket before you did something?

I bought a ticket before I took a train last weekend.

- 1. Did your parents decide on your name before or after you were born?
- 2. When did you start learning English?
- 3. Did you get this book before or after you went to the first class?
- 4. When did you buy new clothes before you did something?
- 5. When did you feel nervous before you did something?
- 6. When did you feel good after you did something?
- 7. When did you make an important decision?
- 8. When did you have fun with a friend?

SENTENCE FRAGMENTS

A fragment is a broken piece of something. A sentence fragment is a piece of a sentence, not a complete sentence. Something is missing. A past time clause by itself is a sentence fragment.

COMPLETE SENTENCE (INDEPENDENT CLAUSE) After I checked my bag. I went through airport security.

Here are two ways to correct a fragment like After I checked my bag.

Connect the fragment to a complete sentence.

PAST TIME CLAUSE INDEPENDENT CLAUSE After I checked my bag, I went through airport security.

• Change the fragment to make it a complete sentence.

First, I checked my bag.

PRACTICE 10 Editing for Sentence Fragments

Read the paragraph. Find four more sentence fragments. Make corrections. Add commas as needed.

shopping after Yesterday, Vincent went shopping. After he finished his classes. He needed new running shoes because his old shoes were worn out. After he arrived at the store. He started trying on shoes. Some shoes did not feel right, and some were too expensive. He tried on several pairs of shoes. Before he found the right ones. When he went to pay for them. He realized that he did not have his wallet. It was not in his pocket. He asked the salesperson to hold the shoes for him. He needed to come back later. After he found his wallet in his room. He went back and got his new shoes.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Word Families

When you write your paragraph about a trip, you will probably want to use words from the word family chart you studied on page 155. Here are some tips for using those words.

Memory

When you use the noun memory to refer to something you remember, you can use the singular or plural form.

I have a vivid memory of that trip.

That song brings back fond memories of the summer of 2004.

Remember, Forget

After the verb remember or forget, you can use:

a noun I remember my first trip to the ocean.

I will never forget that experience.

• an object pronoun I remember him clearly.

I will never forget her.

a gerund I remember seeing the city lights from the plane.

I will never forget saying goodbye to my friends.

PRACTICE 11 Words after Remember/Forget

Look at the writing models on pages 153 and 154. Underline the five uses of remember and the one use of forget. Find the word used after each verb and circle it.

PRACTICE 12 Using Forms of Remember, Forget, and Memory

Complete the sentences with true information.

1.	I have happy memories from when I was	years old. For example, I remember
2.	I had an unforgettable experience when I was _	years old.
	I remember
3.	I will never forget
4.	When I hear the song	, it brings back memories of

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about a trip you took, like the writing models on pages 153 and 154. You will have a choice of prewriting activities.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Get ready to write by doing a prewriting activity. Choose one of these activities:
  - Make notes about the trip in time order. (See page 133 for an example of notes in time order.)
  - Freewrite about the trip for at least five minutes. (See page 134 for an explanation of freewriting and an example.)

Writing Tip

When you prepare to write a paragraph, think about your readers. What will they want to know about your topic? Working with a partner during the writing process helps you understand the needs of your readers.

- b. Find a partner and take turns asking about each other's trips. Ask questions like these:
  - Where did you go on your trip?
  - When did you go?
  - Who went with you?
  - How long was your trip?
  - What did you do on your trip?
  - How did you feel about the trip?
  - What do you remember most about your trip?
- Look again at your notes or freewriting. Add information as needed. Include answers to the questions above. Underline the information that will be most important to describe your trip.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

Write your first draft. Begin your paragraph with a topic sentence. See the writing models on pages 153 and 154 for examples. Give details in your supporting sentences. Try to include both past time expressions and past time clauses. End your paragraph with a concluding sentence.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

	PEER REVIEW WORKSHEET
Yo	Your partner's name:
Co	ontent
1.	Read all of your partner's paragraph.
	Underline any part of the paragraph you do not understand. Ask your partner to explain it.
3.	Circle the topic sentence. If there is no topic sentence, write TS ? on the paper.
	Reread the supporting sentences. Ask questions if you want more information, or if it is not clear when the events happened.
	5. Circle the concluding sentence. If there is no concluding sentence, write CS ? on the paper.
Fo	Format and Language
	6. Use this list to check your partner's paragraph. Check (✓) each item in the list as you finish.
	□ a subject in every sentence □ the use of before and after □ a verb for every subject □ the use of commas □ the use of past tense verbs
7.	Put a question mark (?) if you are not sure about something.

- Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher. Mark any changes you want to make.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

Writing Tip

Experienced writers know that good writing comes from re-writing. Do more than one draft and edit carefully.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper and write a new draft.
- b. Edit your new draft carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

In this chapter, you learned to: O End a paragraph with a concluding sentence O Write past time expressions O Use before and after as prepositions O Write complex sentences with past time clauses O Identify and correct sentence fragments O Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a trip Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 3

EXPANSION

TIMED WRITING

Students need to write quickly to succeed in academic writing. For example, sometimes students need to do a writing assignment in class or on a test, and they have only a short time to do it.

To practice writing quickly, you are going to write a paragraph in class. You will have 20 minutes. To complete the assignment in time, follow these steps.

- 1. Read the writing prompt below (or the prompt that your teacher gives you). Make sure that you understand the prompt. If you have questions, ask your teacher. (2 minutes)
- 2. Brainstorm to get ideas. On a piece of paper, make some notes. Then think about organizing your ideas. Mark up your notes with circles, arrows, and numbers to show the order of information in your paragraph. Write a topic sentence for your paragraph. (6 minutes)
- 3. Write your paragraph. Be sure to include a topic sentence, supporting sentences, and a concluding sentence. (10 minutes)
- 4. Check your paragraph. Correct any mistakes. (2 minutes)
- 5. Give your paper to your teacher.

Prompt: Write a paragraph about an experience you remember from when you were a child.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Write about your memories of another trip you took. Tell where and when you made this trip. Focus on describing one thing that you heard, smelled, saw, or tasted on this trip.
- Describe a time when someone or something surprised you. What happened? Was it a good surprise or a bad surprise? Why?
- Write about one of your earliest memories of English. Did you hear a song in English? Did you learn a word in English? What made this experience memorable?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

CHAPTER 9

LOOKING AHEAD

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Use listing-order words in a listing-order paragraph
- Express future time with be going to and will
- Use future time expressions
- Write complex sentences with future time clauses
- Identify and correct run-on sentences
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about your future plans

What is he looking forward to?

INTRODUCTION

In this chapter, you will be reading about people's plans for the future, both the near future (a time that is coming soon) and the distant future (a time that may be years away). You will also write a paragraph about your own plans.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, two students share their plans and hopes for the future.

Work with a partner or in a small group. Read the models. Then answer the questions.

My Vacation

··X···1···1···2···2···3···1···4···1···5···1···6/··

I am going to go home for two weeks during winter break, and I am looking forward to spending time with my family and friends. First of all, it will be great to relax with my family. Everyone will be glad to see me, especially my little brothers. I am looking forward to eating my mother's cooking, too. I will also enjoy spending time with my friends. Maybe there will be some parties to go to. We will definitely return to our favorite cafés to eat and listen to music. Most of all, I am looking forward to talking with my friends face to face. We will have a lot to talk about after all this time. I cannot wait to be back home!

Questions about the Model

- 1. What is the topic of this paragraph? ____
- 2. What does "I am looking forward to (something)" mean? Circle a or b.
  - a. I am nervous about something in the future.
  - b. I am happy about something in the future.
- 3. What does "I cannot wait to (do something)" mean? Circle a or b.
  - a. I am not able to wait, so I must do it now.
  - b. I am very excited that I am going to do it.
- 4. How does the writer organize his paragraph? Circle: (Time order / Listing order)

5. What verbs does the writer use to describe future events? Fill in the blanks.
a. I home for two weeks during winter break,
b. First of all, it great to relax with my family.

My Future
I have big plans for my future. After I learn more English, I am going to study nursing. I am going to apply to a university, perhaps in Texas or California, when I finish the English program here. At the university, I plan to get a bachelor's degree. Then I am probably going to work in a hospital. I hope that I will find a good job as a nurse. I also hope to get married someday. I would like to meet a kind and intelligent man. I would like to have four children, two boys and two girls. I am looking forward to my career, but my family will definitely be the most important part of my future.
Questions about the Model  1. What is the tonic centence? Circle the tonic and underline the centralling idea

Number them from 1 to 6.         <ul> <li>have children</li> <li>learn more English</li> <li>study nursing</li> <li>get a job in a hospital</li> <li>get a bachelor's degree</li> <li>apply to a university</li> </ul> </li> <li>What word means "at some time far in the future"?</li> </ol>
5. What word means at some time far in the future ?

4. What word means "years of work in a professional job"?

	5. How did the writer use future time clauses ? Complete the sentences.
	a. , I am going to study nursing.
	b. I am going to apply to a university, perhaps in Texas or California,
	6. What tense is the verb you wrote in each future time clause above? Circle: (simple present / future)
Looking	at Vocabulary: Adverbs of Probability
Adverbs	are a very common part of speech. They have many uses:
	ndverbs express time, such as now , soon , and then .
	ndverbs tell how often an action happens, such as sometimes, and never.
C	adverbs describe how someone does something, such quietly, or easily.
sometimes of used these a	ds maybe, perhaps, probably, and definitely are also adverbs. They are called adverbs of probability. In the writing models, the writers dverbs when writing about future plans and events. These adverbs ag about the writer's thinking. They tell how sure the writer is that will happen.
PRACTICE 1	Adverbs of Probability
Δ	Find and circle the adverbs maybe , perhaps , probably , and definitely in the writing models. Underline the sentences.
В	Why did the writers use maybe , perhaps , probably , and definitely in those sentences? Write the adverbs to complete the statements.
	1 means that the writer is very sure that something will happen.
	2 means that the writer is almost sure that something will happen.

3. _____ and ____ both mean that the writer is not sure if something will happen.

LISTING ORDER

One way to organize a paragraph about the future is to use listing order. Writers can use listing order if they do not know the time order of future events or if the order in time is not important.

The author of Writing Model 1 on page 173 used listing order. He organized the information about his vacation plans into two areas: time with his family and time with his friends.

I am going to go home for two weeks during winter break, and I am looking forward to spending time with my family and friends. First of all, it will be great to relax with my family. Everyone will be glad to see me, especially my little brothers. I am looking forward to eating my mother's cooking, too. I will also enjoy spending time with my friends. Maybe there will be some parties to go to. We will definitely return to our favorite cafés to eat and listen to music. Most of all, I am looking forward to talking with my friends face to face. We will have a lot to talk about after all this time. I cannot wait to be back home!

First of all, also, and most of all are listing-order words. They help the reader see the organization of the writer's ideas. Notice the position of also in I will also enjoy spending time with my friends. Also comes before the main verb. The other listing-order words go at the beginning of the sentence.

Here are more listing-order words and phrases:

For more examples of paragraphs with listing order, see:

- "My Wedding Day" on page 131
- "A Wonderful City" on page 158
- "The Secrets to a Successful Restaurant" on page 158

When you read these paragraphs, notice the topic sentences and the listing-order words and phrases.

Topic Sentences for Listing-Order Paragraphs PRACTICE 2

Work alone or with a partner. Check (✓) the topic sentences that tell the reader that the paragraph will be in listing order.

- ☑ 1. There are several reasons I want to be a lawyer.
- $\Box$  2. There are different kinds of engineers.
- □ 3. Becoming a doctor will take me a long time.
- □ 4. A good nurse needs to have four important qualities.
- □ 5. My grandfather had an important career in public service.
- ☐ 6. I have two main reasons for wanting to be a teacher.
- □ 7. My mother changed careers at age 40.
- □ 8. The Career Development Office can help students in many ways.

PRACTICE 3 Listing-Order Words

Use four words or phrases from the box to fill in the blanks. For some, there may be more than one possible answer. Add capital letters and commas as needed.

first of all first also finally in addition most of all third second

EXPRESSING FUTURE TIME WITH BE GOING TO

Verbs with be going to express future time.

Statements with Be Going To

SINGULAR
Subject	Be	(Not)	Going To	Base Form of Main Verb
I	am
You	are		not) going to	win.
Не		(not)
She	is
It

Plural
Subject	Be	(Not)	Going To	Base Form of Main Verb
We	are	are (not)	going to	win.
You
They

See Appendix C3, page 199, for the contracted forms of am, is, and are (+ not).

Rules	Examples
1. Use be going to for future plans (to tell what someone has already decided to do).	I am going to be at home in June.  We are going to invite all our friends to the party.
2. Use be going to for predictions or guesses about the future.	I think the weather is going to be nice. You are going to love this song.
3. Use and or or to add a second main verb. Do not repeat be going to .	She is going to call and give us the news.  I am not going to call or write to him.

PRACTICE 4

Statements with Be Going To

Complete each sentence with the correct form of be going to. Use the verb in parentheses.

- 1. (have) I am going to have a day off next Monday.
- 2. (not, go) I ______ to work that day.
- 3. (not, work) Next Monday is a holiday, so most people

- 4. (be) I think the weather _____ great.
- 5. (go) My friends and I ______ to a lake.
- 6. (be) I think there ______ seven of us.
- 7. (take) We ______ the bus.
- 8. (not, cost) It _____ much.
- 9. (be) I think it ______ fun.
- 10. (come) I hope that you ______, too!

Writing Tip

You can use I think or I do not think to introduce a statement when you are not sure about a plan or a prediction:

I think I am going to take an economics class.

I do not think I am going to take any history classes.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Answer the questions. Write complete sentences with be going to. Use I think / I do not think if you are not sure about what is going to happen.

- 1. What are you going to do this evening?
- 2. What time are you going to get up tomorrow?
- 3. What do you think the weather is going to be like tomorrow?
- 4. Who do you think is going to call you soon?
- 5. Where are you going to be next summer?
- 6. What is something important that you are going to do in your future?

EXPRESSING FUTURE TIME WITH WILL

Verbs with will also express future time.

Statements with Will

Singular
Subject	Will	(Not)	Base Form of Main Verb
I
You		(not)	be	on time.
Не	will
She			man d	h also
It			need	help.

Plural
Subject	Will	(Not)	Base Form of Main Verb
We		(not)	L.	1:
You	will		be	on time.
They			need	help.

See Appendix C8, page 210, for contractions.

Rules	Examples
1. Use will for predictions about the future. In this case, will and be going to have the same meaning.	You will love this song. = You are going to love this song.
2. Use be going to , usually not will , to announce plans you have already made.	Chris and I are going to get married.
3. Use and or or to add a second main verb. Do not repeat will .	She will go and ask.  He probably will not call or write.

PRACTICE 5

Predictions with Will

Use will to rewrite these predictions. The meaning of the sentences does not change.

1. I think you are going to enjoy your trip to the islands.

I think you will enjoy your trip to the islands.

- 2. The weather is going to be great.
- 3. You are not going to need any warm clothes.
- 4. The surfing is going to be excellent.
- 5. The beaches are not going to be crowded.
- 6. We are going to miss you.

PRACTICE 6

Correcting Verb Errors

Find the verb error in each statement about the future. Make corrections. For some, there may be more than one possible correction.

will be or is going to be

- 1. Dinner will to be ready soon.
- 2. I think it's will be sunny tomorrow.
- 3. I think both of my brothers going to study chemistry.
- 4. Your adviser will going to help you.
- 5. I think Brazil will winning the next World Cup.
- 6. Hiral is going have her baby in May.
- 7. The party going to start at 9:00 P.M.
- 8. Juan Carlos will goes to work at 3:00 р.м.
- 9. I think the next bus will coming soon.
- 10. Thanks, but I don't think I'm will need a ride tomorrow.

FUTURE TIME EXPRESSIONS

Future time expressions tell when events will happen. They can help show the time and order of events in a paragraph.

Using This, Next, or In

The words this, next, and in are used in some future time expressions.

Rules	Examples
1. Use this + a specific time period. The time period is happening now (as in this year ) or will begin soon (as in this weekend ).	They will finish the job this week.  I am going to leave this evening.
2. Use next + a specific time period. The time period will begin in the future.	We will not be here next week.  He is going to graduate next year.
3. Use in + an amount of time (such as a number of hours, days, or years). The event will happen after that time passes.	She is going to be back in a minute.  In two weeks, it will be spring.

PRACTICE 7 Using This, Next, or In

Circle the correct word to complete the statements.

- 1. Jack is going to graduate (in / this) two years.
- 2. This summer, I am going to take classes, but (this / next) summer, I am going to work.
- 3. Rima is probably studying right now because she is going to have an exam (in / this) afternoon.
- 4. The students are on spring break now, so there are no classes (this / next) week.
- 5. Professor: Your paper is due on Tuesday.

Student: Do you mean tomorrow?

Professor: No, not this week. (Next / In) Tuesday.

6. The semester began three weeks ago. It will end (next / in) 12 weeks.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Answer the questions. Write complete sentences and include the time expressions.

- 1. What are you going to do tomorrow?
- 2. Where are you going to be the day after tomorrow?
- 3. What are you going to do this weekend?
- 4. Where are you going to be next week?
- 5. What is going to happen in a few years?

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

SENTENCES WITH FUTURE TIME CLAUSES

Future Time Clauses and Independent Clauses

A future time clause tells when something will happen.

FUTURE TIME CLAUSE

He is going to travel after he graduates.

Like a past time clause, a future time clause needs three things:

- (1) a time word
- (2) a subject
- (3) a verb

(1) (2) (3) I will call you when I arrive.

A future time clause is never a complete sentence by itself. It must connect to an independent clause. An independent clause is different from a time clause; it can be a complete sentence.

She is going to get a job. =
$$\begin{cases} an \text{ independent clause} \\ a \text{ complete sentence} \end{cases}$$

After she graduates. = a sentence fragment (not a complete sentence)

INDEPENDENT CLAUSE + FUTURE TIME CLAUSE She is going to get a job after she graduates.

Sentences with time clauses are called complex sentences, and the time words in these sentences are called subordinating conjunctions.

See Appendix D, page 213, for more information about complex sentences.

Identifying Future Time Clauses

Check (✓) the sentences with future time clauses. Underline the future time clause.

- □ 1. Vote for me next election day!
- ☑ 2. When I become president, I will work for world peace.
- $\Box$  3. Together, we are going to put an end to all wars.
- ☐ 4. I am also going to make education a high priority.
- $\Box$  5. After I am president, there will be more money for our children's schools.
- ☐ 6. I am going to make sure we have clean air and clean water.
- □ 7. I will stop polluters before they destroy our environment.
- □ 8. I am going to do great things after I win this election!

Future Time Clauses with Before, After, and When

The words before, after, and when can introduce future time clauses.

Rules	Examples
1. Use a simple present verb in a future time clause. Do not use will or be going to.	He will ask his advisor when he sees her.  We are going to review before class ends today.
2. A future time clause can come before or after the independent clause. The meaning is the same.	I am going to go to medical school after I finish college.  After I finish college, I am going to go to medical school.
3. Do not use after alone. Use it in a prepositional phrase or to introduce a time clause.	I am going to graduate and get a job after that.  OR  After I graduate, I am going to get a job.  NOT: I am going to graduate and get a job after.

Verbs in Sentences with Future Time Clauses

Circle the correct verb. Underline the independent clause in each sentence once and underline the future time clause twice.

- 1. Sonia and Tony are going to get married after they (finish / will finish) school.
- 2. I (am / will be) there when they have their wedding in June.
- 3. After they (are / are going to be) married, they are going to take a trip.
- 4. When they (come / will come) back, they are going to find work.
- 5. They (look / will look) for a place to live after they have jobs.
- 6. They are probably going to wait before they (have / will have) children.
- 7. Before they start a family, they (buy / are going to buy) a house.
- 8. I hope they will be very happy when they (are / will be) married.

PRACTICE 10

Using After

Look at Omar's schedule for Friday. Take a sheet of paper and write four sentences with after about things he is going to do. Use both after + noun and after + subject and verb. Underline each phrase or clause with after.

After coffee with Luisa, Omar is going to go to his math class.

He's going to return a library book after his math test is over.

TRY IT OUT!

Take a sheet of paper. Complete the sentences with an independent clause or a future time clause. Use your own ideas.

After I finish this exercise, I will give my paper to the teacher.

- 1. After I finish this exercise, . . .
- 2. Before I go to bed tonight, . . .
- 3. ... after I get up tomorrow.
- 4. I am going to have something to eat . . .
- 5. . . . , I am going to relax.
- 6. ..., I will be happy.

RUN-ON SENTENCES

A run-on sentence is a mistake. Run-on sentences happen when writers do not connect independent clauses correctly. In the list, there are examples of several types of run-on sentences. You will see one way to correct each one.

THERE IS NO CONNECTING WORD.

1. Run-On: I am interested in police work my major is criminology.

What to do: Add a comma + a coordinating conjunction (such as and, but, or so).

Correct: I am interested in police work, and my major is criminology.

A COMMA CANNOT CONNECT TWO SENTENCES-

2. Run-On: I am going to study math, I am going to become an engineer.

What to do: Revise the sentence to connect the two verbs with and.

Correct: I am going to study math and become an engineer.

THEN IS NOT A
CONNECTING WORD-

3. Run-On: They are going to save their money, then they will buy a house.

What to do: Revise as two simple sentences.

Correct: They are going to save their money. Then they will buy a house.

A COMMA CANNOT CONNECT TWO SENTENCES.

4. Run-On: I left him a message, he called me back.

What to do: Use a subordinating conjunction such as because, after, when, or before.

Correct: After I left him a message, he called me back.

PRACTICE 11

Identifying Run-On Sentences

Work alone or with a partner. Write RO next to each run-on sentence. Write OK next to each correct sentence.

OK 1. In the year 2030, I think my life will be very different.
RO 2. I will be much older I will be middle-aged.	JANUARY
3. I am not married now, in 2030 I think I will be married.	1
4. I hope to get married in a few years, after, I hope we will have children.	2030
5. Now I do not own a house, but I hope to have a nice one in 2030.	mal
6. I am going to finish my education, then I will begin my	career.

7. After I begin my career, I am going to work very hard.

PRACTICE 12

Correcting Run-On Sentences

Find the errors in these run-on sentences. Make corrections. There is more than one way to correct each sentence.

8. I will have a good job in 2030, so my family will be able to live well.

Whenwe

- 1. We said goodbye to our friends, I felt sad about leaving my homeland.
- 2. We began our trip it was very cold.
- 3. We arrived at the airport, then we went to the ticket counter and checked our bags.
- 4. This was my first time on a plane it felt like a bus at first.
- 5. The plane left the ground, it made my stomach feel strange.
- 6. We flew for a few hours, then we landed in Canada.
- 7. We walked off the plane my relatives were there.
- 8. I missed my friends, I was excited about starting a new life.

Editing for Run-On Sentences

Find six more run-on sentences in this paragraph. Make corrections. There is more than one way to correct each run-on.

Applying Vocabulary: Using Adverbs of Probability

Review what you learned about the adverbs maybe, perhaps, probably, and definitely on page 175. You may want to use these words when you write a paragraph about something that you are looking forward to.

Study the rules for the placement of these adverbs in sentences about the future.

Rules	Examples
1. Put maybe or perhaps before the subject.	My car is old, so maybe I will get a new one.  Perhaps she is going to transfer.
2. Put probably or definitely after will or am/is/are.	There will probably be 15 of us at dinner.  We are definitely not going to go.

Using Maybe, Perhaps, Probably, and Definitely PRACTICE 14

- Rewrite each sentence, adding the adverb in parentheses.
  - 1. (probably) I am going to major in computer science.
  - 2. (maybe) He says they are in love, so they will get married.
  - 3. (perhaps) There will be elections in the fall, so changes will come.
  - 4. (definitely) I will feel better when exams are over.
- Take a sheet of paper. Write four predictions about your future. Use maybe, perhaps, probably, or definitely in each sentence.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about something that you are planning and looking forward to in your future. You can write about plans for the near future or the distant future.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Get ready to write by freewriting about your plans for at least five minutes. (See page 134 for an explanation of freewriting and an example.)
- b. Find a partner and take turns talking about your plans. Add information to your notes as needed. Tell your partner what you find most interesting about his or her plans.
- Plan how you will organize the information in your paragraph. You can use time order or listing order. The models on pages 173 and 174 show both ways to organize a paragraph about the future.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

Use your notes to write a first draft. Your paragraph must begin with a topic sentence. See the writing models on pages 173 and 174 for examples. Your supporting sentences should all relate to your main idea. End your paragraph with a concluding sentence. It should connect to the ideas in your topic sentence. Remember to use be going to, not will, when you write about plans you have made for the future.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

	PEER REVIEW WORKSHEET
Yo	Your partner's name:
Co	ntent
1.	Read all of your partner's paragraph.
2.	. Underline any part of the paragraph you do not understand. Ask your partner to explain it.
3.	Circle the topic sentence. If there is no topic sentence, write TS ? on the paper.
4.	Reread the supporting sentences. Ask questions if you want more information, or if it is not clear when events are going to happen.
5.	5. Circle the concluding sentence. If there is no concluding sentence, write CS? on the paper.
Fo	rmat and Language
6.	. Use this list to check your partner's paragraph. Check (✓) each item as you finish.
	$\square$ a subject in every sentence $\square$ the use of verbs with be going to and will $\square$ a verb for every subject $\square$ the use of time-order or listing-order words
7.	Put a question mark (?) if you are not sure about something.

- Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher.
- e. Mark any changes you want to make.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper, and write a new draft.
- b. Edit your new draft carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

Writing Tip

Reading in English can help you write better in English. Read whatever interests you. Choose reading materials that do not have too many new words so that you can read them comfortably.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- Use listing-order words in a listing-order paragraph
- Express future time with be going to and will
- O Use future time expressions
- O Write complex sentences with future time clauses
- O Identify and correct run-on sentences
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about your future

Which ones can you do well? Mark them of

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them 🔥

EXPANSION

TIMED WRITING

Students need to write quickly to succeed in academic writing. For example, sometimes students need to do a writing assignment in class or on a test, and they have only a short time to do it.

To practice writing quickly, you are going to write a paragraph in class. You will have 20 minutes. To complete the assignment in time, follow these steps.

- 1. Read the writing prompt on page 192 (or the prompt that your teacher gives you). Make sure that you understand the prompt. If you have questions, ask your teacher. (2 minutes)
- 2. Brainstorm to get ideas. On a sheet of paper, make some notes. Then think about organizing your ideas. Mark up your notes with circles, arrows, and numbers to show the order of information in your paragraph. Write a topic sentence for your paragraph. (6 minutes)

- 3. Write your paragraph. Be sure to include a topic sentence and supporting sentences. (10 minutes)
- 4. Check your paragraph. Correct any mistakes. (2 minutes)
- 5. Give your paper to your teacher.

Prompt: Write a paragraph about an event that is going to happen in your future and how your life will, or will not, be different after it happens.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Choose any place in the world and write a weather forecast for this place. Use your imagination, or get current weather information from TV or the Internet.
- Write about the future plans of a friend or family member. How will this person's plans affect you?
- Write about how you will be learning English in the next few weeks or months. What are you going to continue to do? What changes are you going to make?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A on page 193.

APPENDICES

APPENDIX A MORE IDEAS FOR JOURNAL WRITING

At the end of each chapter, there are several topic suggestions for writing in your journal. Here are some more ideas for journal writing.

- 1. Write about your experiences in this class or at the school. Do you have any questions for your teacher?
- 2. Describe your family. Give your family members' names and tell something about each of them.
- 3. Do you like music? What kind of music do you listen to? When and where do you listen to music?
- 4. Write about someone you know at school. What is this person's name? Where is he or she from? What do you know about this person?
- 5. How is the weather today? Do you like this kind of weather? Name a place with great weather or terrible weather. What is the weather like there?
- 6. Do you have a best friend? Write about a friend who is important to you. What do you like to do together?
- 7. Name a place that you think is beautiful. What makes it beautiful?
- 8. Do you like to watch movies? What kinds of movies do you like most? Name a movie that you have seen recently. Do you think your teacher would like it? Why or why not?
- 9. Name an island you want to visit. What do you know about this island? Why do you want to go there?
- 10. What are the seasons of the year where you live? Which season do you like most? Why?
- 11. Do you watch TV? If you do, tell when, where, and what you watch. If you do not watch TV, tell why not.
- 12. What do you do for exercise? Do you exercise every day, sometimes, or never?
- 13. Describe a nice place to visit in your country. It could be a famous place, such as a city or national park, or a place that few people know about.
- 14. Write about someone you know who has a job. What does this person do? Do you think that he or she has a good job? Tell why or why not.
- 15. Go to a public place and do some people-watching. Choose a person, and describe him or her. What does the person look like? How old is he or she? What is the person doing? What is he or she wearing?
- 16. Do you have a pet? Write about your pet, or write about an animal that makes a good pet.
- 17. Think of someone who was important to you when you were growing up. Who was this person? Why was he or she important in your life?
- 18. How was this past weekend? Did you have fun? Did you do anything special, or was it just a typical weekend? Describe what you did.
- 19. Write about a time when you had some good or bad luck.
- 20. Write about a funny or scary experience you had.

1. The Parts of Speech

The different kinds of words are called the parts of speech.

9. Order of Adjectives

There can be more than one adjective before a noun, as in

There is a nice new Vietnamese restaurant on Main Street.

Adjectives usually go in this order before a noun:

CATEGORIES	Size	OPINION	Physical Des		IPTION	ORIGIN	MATERIAL
OF ADJECTIVES			Shape	Age	Color
EXAMPLES OF ADJECTIVES	big small	good beautiful expensive	round square	old new	red white light blue	English African Japanese	plastic cotton wooden

They live in a beautiful old apartment building.

He drives a small white Korean car.

Use commas + and or or when you use a series of three adjectives from the same category.

The orange, white, and green flag of Ivory Coast is similar to the Irish flag.

There are no French, German, or Spanish students in the class.

Never put a comma between the last adjective in a series and the noun.

APPENDIX D SENTENCE TYPES

There are three basic types of sentences: simple, compound, and complex.

Simple Sentences

A simple sentence has one subject-verb combination. See pages 74, 120, and 135 for examples of simple sentences.

Compound Sentences

A compound sentence has two subject-verb combinations (simple sentence + simple sentence). See page 135 for examples of compound sentences.

A compound sentence needs a comma and a coordinating conjunction to connect the simple sentences. There are seven coordinating conjunctions:

COORDINATING CONJUNCTIONS

and but for nor or yet

Complex Sentences

A complex sentence has one independent clause and one or more dependent clauses.

• An independent clause can stand alone. It can be a simple sentence.

We didn't go.

I will call you.

He watches the news.

• A dependent clause cannot stand alone because it does not express a complete thought.

because it was raining

when I get home

if he has time

Examples of Complex Sentences

INDEPENDENT CLAUSE + DEPENDENT CLAUSE	DEPENDENT CLAUSE, INDEPENDENT CLAUSE
We didn't go because it was raining.	Because it was raining, we didn't go.
I will call you when I get home.	When I get home, I will call you.
He watches the news if he has time.	If he has time, he watches the news.

A dependent clause has a subordinating conjunction + subject + verb. There are many subordinating conjunctions.

Examples of Subordinating Conjunctions

For Adverb Clauses			For Adjective Clauses
Time	Reason	Condition	People	Things	Times	Places
as soon as after before when	because since	if unless	who whom that	that which	when	where
