Paper 2 Listening about 30 minutes (plus 6 minutes to copy answers onto the answer sheet)

(25% of the total marks)

There are four parts in this paper and they are always in the same order. You listen to some recordings. You hear each recording twice. You write your answers on the answer sheet.

Part	Task Type	Number of Questions	Task Format	Objective Exam folder
Listening Part 1	Multiple choice (A, B or C)	7	You answer seven multiple-choice picture questions about seven short recordings.	4, 10, 20
Listening Part 2	Multiple choice (A, B or C)	6	You answer six multiple-choice questions about a recording with one speaker or one main speaker and an interviewer.	6, 16, 28
Listening Part 3	Gap fill	6	You complete six gaps in a text by listening to a recording with one main speaker.	2, 18, 24
Listening Part 4	True/false	6	You answer six true/false questions about a conversation between two speakers.	14, 22, 30

Paper 3 Speaking 10–12 minutes for a pair of students

(25% of the total marks)

There are four parts in the speaking test and they are always in the same order. There are two students taking the examination and two examiners.

Part	Task Type	Number of Questions	Task Format	Objective Exam folder
Speaking Part 1	The examiner asks both students some questions.	2–3 minutes	You are asked to give information about yourself.	1, 12, 26
Speaking Part 2	The students have a discussion together.	2–3 minutes	You are given some pictures about a situation and you discuss it with the other student.	9, 23, 26
Speaking Part 3	Each student talks in turn to the examiner.	3 minutes	You are each given a different colour photograph which you talk about for up to a minute.	3, 8, 29, 30
Speaking Part 4	The students have a discussion together.	3 minutes	You have a discussion with the other student about a topic connected with the photographs in Part 3.	8, 29, 30

New for the second edition of Objective PET

As well as adding new exercises, pictures and a Grammar Folder, the authors have used the Cambridge Learner Corpus for the second edition. A CD-ROM and website give extra support.

Cambridge Learner Corpus

When you see this icon in the book, it means that this language area has been identified in the Cambridge Learner Corpus (CLC) as an area in which learners often need extra practice. The CLC is a collection of over 30 million words taken from student exam papers from Cambridge ESOL. It shows real mistakes students have made in their exams. The mistakes the authors focus on are typical of learners at this level and that is why this book provides further practice in using these features of the language accurately.

CD-ROM

On the CD-ROM there are 90 exercises, six for each pair of units, giving extra practice in vocabulary, grammar, reading, listening, writing and pronunciation. There is also an interactive word game and a PET Practice Test, as well as additional resources for both teachers and students, such as wordlists and teaching tips for using these and photocopiable recording scripts for some of the Listening tasks.

Website

www.cambridge.org/elt/objectivepet

On this website you will find a number of useful resources for both students and teachers: an additional free photocopiable PET Practice Test with audio, a further interactive word game to test your vocabulary (Vocabulary Trainer), photocopiable wordlists and teaching tips as well as photocopiable recording scripts for classroom use.

A question of sport

Grammar present simple + frequency adverbs
Vocabulary sports; hobbies; a kind of Revision there is/are

Introduction

- 1 Put the letters in order to make the names of sports.
 You can write the name of the sport by its picture above.

N I S L N G K A L L T O T F S N A S T O K E R U G
 G I C Y C S A B B O B L S M Y C I H C Y O H S I G N R B Y
 I N N G I N G U E T A I S T S N I B O L L A L N D F U R I L A S
 L G I N G U E T A I S T S N I B O L L A L N D F U R I L A S
 I A S F S R E L B N N E E T E V Y L W S G N H T C I

- 2 Read the statements about sport. Tick (✓) the statements that are true for you.

I play football.
I go swimming.
I do athletics.
I never do any sport.
I watch lots of sport on television.
I never watch sport.
I sometimes watch sport.

Compare answers round the class.
 Does anyone in the class not like sport?
 What does he/she like doing instead?

Corpus spot

Do, play, go

We say: play + a sport with a ball,
do + a sport that shows one person's skills,
go + a sport that ends in -ing.

Put the names of sports from Exercise 1 in the correct column. Add any other sports you like.

play	do	go
football	athletics	swimming

Complete these sentences by PET students with the correct verbs.

- a She's really nice and she can ..... volleyball well.
 b In my free time I ..... skiing in winter.
 c We often ..... table tennis in our room.
 d You can ..... horse riding if you want.
 e First we run, then we ..... some gymnastics.

- 3 Work with a partner. Look below at the names of equipment used in sport. Match the equipment to the sports in Exercise 1 and write the name of the sport(s) next to the equipment. Some equipment matches more than one sport. Use your English–English dictionary if necessary.

basket basketball
 bike .....
 boat .....
 net .....
 sail .....
 stick .....

bat .....
 board .....
 helmet .....
 racket .....
 skis .....

Listening

- 1 Look at the photographs. They show some unusual sports – bossaball, curling, snowfering and karting. Can you guess which sport is in each photograph?

- 2 1.02 Listen to four people talking about these sports. Which sport is each person talking about? Write 1, 2, 3 or 4 next to each photo.
- 3 1.03 Listen to some more information about these sports. Write the answers to these questions.

Bossaball

- a What do they always wear? They always wear shorts.
 b When do they usually play this?

Curling

- c What do they use?
 d What do people sometimes say?

Karting

- e How fast can you go indoors?
 f What is a kart?

Snowfering

- g Where do they do this?
 h What do they use?

- 4 Listen again. The speakers say how they feel about these sports. Which words do they use?

- 1 .....
 3 .....
 4 .....

Can you suggest any more words like these?

Language focus

a kind of

Answer these questions. Use It's a kind of and the words in the box.

- What's a helmet?
It's a kind of hat.
- What's a racket?
- What's windsurfing?
- What's table tennis?
- What's rugby?
- What's a kart?
- What's snowfering?

tennis

To be + frequency adverbs

+	She We	is are	usually	happy.
-	He They	isn't aren't	always	happy.
?	Is Are	he you	never	happy?

Grammar spot

Frequency adverbs

Look at the table above. Circle the correct words to complete this sentence:

Frequency adverbs go before / after a main verb but before / after an auxiliary verb and to be.

- Look at the table above. Rewrite each sentence below, adding one of the adverbs in the box in the correct place. Do other people agree with your answers?

never sometimes often usually always

- Basketball players are tall.
Basketball players are often tall.
- Cyclists go very fast.
- Footballers are very rich.
- Surfers get wet.
- Gymnasts wear helmets.
- There are two people in a tennis match.
- Good athletes smoke.

- Work with a partner. Use the adverbs in the box in Exercise 1. Ask and answer questions like these:

Do you often finish your homework?

Yes, always!

Does your dad sometimes play tennis?

Yes, often.

Are you always tidy?

No, never!

Use these words, or your own ideas:

make breakfast   play computer games be polite   wear expensive clothes remember your friend's birthday

Corpus spot

Word order

Correct the word order mistakes in these sentences by PET students.

- She comes often to my house.
- I meet them sometimes in my free time.
- At weddings people usually are happy and have fun together.
- I don't go often to the countryside.
- He usually doesn't make jokes.
- We have a basketball team and we play often against other teams.

- Complete these sentences about yourself and your family and friends. Use the frequency adverbs in the box in Exercise 1. Use not in some sentences.

- I don't often eat* cheese for breakfast.
- My brother usually plays* football after class.
- ..... very tired in the morning.
- ..... a sleep in the afternoon.
- ..... in the spring.
- ..... quiet in English lessons.
- ..... sport on television.

- Now write three true sentences using the frequency adverbs with your own ideas.

GF page 206

«Pronunciation»

- 1 Think about the words like and big. Do they have the same vowel sound as wheel and please?

- 2 Say these words aloud and put them into the correct column.

steep quite hill field like knee kind people ice little stick line big street ride rich wheel bike team

/aɪ/	/i:/	/ɪ/
quite	steep	hill

- 3  04 Listen to the recording and check your answers.
- 4 Write four ways we can spell the sound /i:/ in English:

«Activity» Free time

- 1 Work with a partner. Choose a sport or hobby (it's better if it's unusual!). Write down some information about it. Write sentences like these:

You play in a team. / You can do this alone.

You play in a field. / You usually do this in a swimming pool.

- 2 Now talk to another pair of students. Don't tell them the name of your sport or hobby. Try to guess their sport or hobby and let them try to guess yours. Ask questions like these:

Do you usually do this in summer?

Do you use a kind of board?

Do you always play with friends?

Do you wear special shoes?

How many people are there in the team?

Is it sometimes dangerous?

You can answer:

Yes, (sometimes / usually / often / always) or No, (never) or We don't know.

👁 Vocabulary spot

Word trees are a useful way to learn and remember word families. Make a vocabulary tree of words for a sport or activity that you enjoy.

«Activity» Make a poster

Make a poster about a sportsman or sportswoman you admire. Put their picture on it if you can. Write this kind of information on it:

What sport does he/she play?

What does he/she usually wear?

What equipment does he/she use?

What does he/she often/sometimes/never do?

How do you feel about this sport?

Exam folder 1

Reading Part 1

1 Look at these texts. Before you read them, say which is:

- a text message
- a telephone message
- an email
- a notice.
- a Post-it note

2 Now read the texts. Were you right?

Exam Advice

Look at the texts and decide what they are, e.g. a Post-it note, an email, etc. It will help you to answer the questions.

3 Read text 1 again. Look at these three sentences about it. Which one says the same as the email?

- A Maria meets her friends in the café.
- B Maria eats outdoors.
- C Maria likes the changing room.

B is correct. Underline the words in text 1 which tell you about where she eats.

Why are A and C wrong? Underline the words in text 1 which tell you about Maria's friends and the changing room.

4 Now choose the correct answers for the other texts.

- 2 A The swimming pool opens at 6.30 every day.
B The swimming pool opens at 7 on Sundays.
C The swimming pool opens early at weekends.
- 3 A Football practice is cancelled tonight.
B There isn't time for fitness training tonight.
C The footballers can't meet tonight.
- 4 A Dad wants Jamie to phone him.
B Kara wants to meet Jamie at 7.
C Kara wants to go swimming with Jamie.
- 5 A Marco goes to the sports centre every week.
B Paolo and Marco often go to the sports centre together.
C Paolo sometimes goes to the sports centre on Tuesdays.

Speaking Part 1

- 1 Make some questions to ask Pablo and Cristina. Use these words.

What / your surname?	Where / come from?
Where / live?	What part of / live in?
How / old?	How many languages / speak?
How / travel to school?	What / like doing in your free time?

- 2 Read these texts and find the answers to your questions.

*My name is Pablo. My surname's Suarez.
I'm Spanish. I live in a village near a large city called Seville. It's in the south of Spain.
I usually drive to college. I'm 19 years old.
I speak Spanish and English. I like playing football and going to the cinema.*

*My name is Cristina Lopez. I'm Mexican. I live in the centre of the capital, Mexico City. I usually walk to school. I'm 16 years old. I speak Spanish, English and a little Italian.
In my free time, I like shopping, reading and going out with friends.*

- 3 Work with a partner. One of you is Pablo and the other is Cristina. Ask and answer the questions in Exercise 1.
- 4 Think of the answers you can give about yourself to the questions in Exercise 1.
- 5 Now ask your partner the same questions. Your partner answers about himself or herself. Then your partner asks you. Answer about yourself.
- 6 Write a text about yourself, like the texts by Pablo and Cristina. Use your answers to the questions to help you.

Exam Advice

The examiner asks you questions about yourself. Learn how to talk about yourself, where you live and what you like doing.

Grammar like/enjoy + -ing; want / would like + to Vocabulary describing people and personality; inviting and responding to invitations
Revision have got

Introduction

- 1 Look at this page from a college website. What does it tell you about these students? What do they look like? Can you describe them?

Meet our students

 a Name .....          Age 17          Department Modern languages	 b Name .....          Age 19          Department Business	 c Name .....          Age 21          Department Music

- 2 1.05 When a new student arrives, another student goes to meet them. They talk on their mobiles before they meet.

Listen to two conversations and write each speaker's name in the space below their photo. The students' names are in the box below. Which two don't you hear?

Anastasia    Julia    Kurt    Mandana    Mike    Stefan

Describing people

I've got brown eyes.

She hasn't got long hair.

Have you got fair hair?

She's short and slim with short hair.

- 3 Work with a partner.
 Imagine you are Kurt (a boy) and Anastasia (a girl).
 Describe yourselves to each other. Use the language in the box above to help you.

- 4 Write a short description of someone famous on a piece of paper but don't write their name on it.
 Write the names on the board.
 Put all the descriptions together.
 Take them out in turn and read them aloud.
 Match each description to one of the names on the board.

Corpus spot

Describing people

Underline the correct word in these sentences by PET students.

a She is long / tall / high and slim.

b He's got short, fair hair / hairs.

Writing Parts 1, 2 and 3

Exam Advice

Correct punctuation is important in your writing.
Understanding punctuation also helps you when you read.

- 1 Work with a partner. Look at the conversation below and answer the questions.

'Would you like a drink?'

'Thanks, but I've got one.'

'My name is Tom. I'm Jane's brother.'

'I'm Julietta, but my friends call me Julie.'

- How many capital letters are there? Why are they there? Can you think of other places where English uses capital letters?
  - Find the quotation marks. Mark them in colour. Why are they there?
  - How many apostrophes are there? Mark them in a different colour. Why are they there?
  - How do we end a statement?
  - Where do we use a question mark?
  - Where do we use a comma?
  - Do you know any other punctuation marks?
- 2 What's the difference between the student's books and the students' books?
- 3 These sentences need apostrophes and capital letters. Can you correct them?

- I
- My brother and i usually watch football matches at my grandparents flat because their televisions very big.

«Activity» What's my job?

Work in a group. One person mimes an activity which is part of a job. The others guess what his or her job is.

Ask questions like these about the activity:

Are you making something?

Are you mending something?

Are you opening a door?

Are you answering a telephone?

The answers can only be

Yes, I am or No, I'm not.

Ask questions like these about the job:

Do you make things?

Do you talk to other people?

Do you work indoors?

Do you use special equipment?

The answers can only be

Yes, I do. No, I don't. or Sometimes.

«Activity» Spot the difference

Work with a partner. Don't look at page 23.

Try to find all the differences between this picture and the one on page 23. Say what the people are doing and what they are not doing now.

When you finish, check your memory by looking at page 23.

Writing folder

Writing Part 2

- 1 Look at this question. It is an example of the kind of task you will see in Part 2 of the Writing Paper. What does it ask you to do?

You're spending a day in the capital of your country next Saturday. Write an email to an English friend called Helen. In your email, you should

- say what you would like to do in the city
- tell her what time you are arriving
- suggest where to meet

- 2 Work with a partner. Read these three answers. Only one answers the question. Which one?

b

Dear Helen,
I'd like to go to the cinema on Saturday and walk by the river. We can go to a café to have lunch. What do you want to do? I am arriving at 11.30. We can meet outside the station.
Love
Maria

a

Dear Helen,
On Saturday I'd like to go shopping because I want to buy a new coat and some shoes. Then I would like to go to the cinema and have an Italian meal. My father is bringing me in the car. You can come in the car with us too. We are leaving home at 9.30.
Love
Maria

c

Dear Helen,
I'd like to go to the museum on Saturday. I'm arriving at 11.30 so we can meet at midday.
Love
Maria

- 3 In Writing Part 2 you must write 35–45 words.

Add outside the museum to answer c. Is this a good answer now?

- 4 Think about your own answer to the questions.

- a What would you like to do in your capital city?
- b Think about when you will arrive.
- c Think of different places you can meet someone.

- 5 Write your answer.

- 6 Have you answered the three parts of the question? Count the words. Make sure you have 35–45 words.

- 7 How many lines of your writing is 35–45 words?

Exam Advice

Remember there are always three things you must write about in Writing Part 2.

Introduction

- 1 Look at the photographs of different ways of travelling. Match each one to a clue below and write the words in the crossword. Now finish the crossword. The other clues don't have photographs.

Across

- 1 It takes lots of people to school, to work and around town.
- 5 It is only found in cities and travels on rails.
- 7 It carries a few people in the air.
- 8 It transports goods by road.
- 9 You need to be fit to travel on it.
- 11 You often find it outside the railway station.
- 12 It travels at about 850 kilometres per hour.
- 13 It goes on long journeys across water, carrying people and goods.

Down

- 2 It has two wheels, only carries one person and has a very small engine.
  - 3 Many families own one.
  - 4 It takes people across water. It travels quite slowly.
  - 5 It runs on rails and has several carriages.
  - 6 It has no roof and often goes faster than a car.
  - 10 It spends a lot of time on motorways carrying people from one place to another.
- 2 Work in a group. Compare your crosswords. Can you help the other people in your group?

Grammar need; countable/uncountable nouns; quantity
Vocabulary transport; compound nouns
Revision present simple + frequency adverbs

- 3 How many of the different ways of travelling do you use? Count them.

Write three sentences using usually, sometimes and often.

EXAMPLE: I often travel by train.

- 4 Write each of the words from the crossword under one of these headings: AIR, LAND, WATER.

Corpus spot

Correct these mistakes made by PET students and complete the rule below.

Reading Part 2

- 1 Look at these five people. They all want to go on holiday.
Now look at the suitcases.
Can you guess which suitcase belongs to each person?
There is one extra suitcase which doesn't belong to anyone.

- 2 Now read some information about the five people and try again to match them with their suitcases. Underline the words which help you choose.

- 1 Karen likes pop music and dancing in discos and she would like to find a hotel where she can swim every day. She also enjoys using a gym.
- 2 Tom needs to find a quiet hotel in the country which has a good restaurant. He is taking some work on holiday with him and needs to hire a room for a business meeting in the hotel.
- 3 Maggie would like to relax in her hotel, sunbathing, swimming and reading. She wants to stay somewhere quiet with a good restaurant.
- 4 John wants to stay in the mountains. He likes walking and is interested in flowers and birds. He wants to stay in a family hotel.
- 5 Mike wants to spend his holiday sightseeing in the city. He likes taking photographs of the places he visits and wants a hotel which can organise trips. He would like a hotel with a swimming pool.

3 Read these descriptions of places to go on holiday. Which hotel would you like to go to?

A

The Spring Hotel is a family hotel with a new swimming pool in the centre of the city. It is near all the famous buildings and art galleries. The hotel arranges coach tours to other towns.

B

Hotel Crystal is on the edge of the city with its own gardens and has 200 rooms, a first-class restaurant and three swimming pools. It is ideal for a really relaxing, quiet holiday in the sun.

C

Grand Hotel is a large hotel in the centre of the city. It has evening entertainment including a disco twice a week. There are coach trips to the mountains where visitors can walk and enjoy the flowers and the birds.

D

The Park Hotel has 10 rooms. It is in a quiet spot in the country. It doesn't serve food but there are restaurants in the city, which is about 10 kms away. The hotel arranges coach tours of the city for those people who do not like walking.

E

The Riviera Hotel is a family hotel in the city with its own swimming pool and gym where guests can keep fit. There is a disco in the hotel every night and it also has two restaurants.

F

The Hotel Royal is a large hotel in a village surrounded by mountains and is very quiet and peaceful. It has a gym and a good restaurant. Meeting rooms are available.

G

The Hotel Regent is very old and beautiful. It is in the middle of the city and is close to lots of good restaurants. It has several meeting rooms and is suitable for business conferences.

H

The Palace Regent is a quiet family hotel in the mountains so it is very easy to go for walks without needing to use a car. There are flowers and birds to enjoy all year round and restaurants in the village.

4 Look at page 38 and read the text about Karen again. Look at the words you underlined.

5 Now find a hotel for Karen. Look at the table.

Read the hotel texts again and tick which hotels have a disco. Can Karen swim and use a gym at any of the hotels which have music? Tick the boxes. Which hotel is best for Karen?

Hotels	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
disco?
swimming?

6 Read the text about Tom again and underline any other important information. Check you have underlined the information to look for.

7 Now find a hotel for Tom. Read the hotel texts again and tick which hotels are in the country. Which one has a good restaurant?

Hotels	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
in the country?
good restaurant?

8 Now do the same for Maggie, John and Mike.

Maggie

Hotels	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
quiet?
swimming?
restaurant?

John

Hotels	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
family hotel?

- 1 Look at the three photographs of people, then read the magazine article quickly. Which photograph do you think matches each paragraph?
- 2 Write the names above the paragraphs and below write the year you think the people started secondary school.

On my first day at secondary school I was very excited. My father walked to the school with me – he was very proud of me. A teacher took me into the hall with the other girls. She gave us some books and told us which rooms to go to. She used our surnames and we felt very important. My first lesson was in the science laboratory. Of course, very few schools had labs in those days. I was nervous of doing something wrong, but I was very interested and I soon stopped feeling worried. I became a scientist that day! I studied hard because I wanted to go to university to do science. And I went when I was eighteen.

I remember my first day at secondary school very well. I was eleven years old. When I arrived at the school, the playground was full of big boys, some of them looked like men to me. I was frightened. I asked some boys where to go, but no one helped me. When I found my classroom, the teacher was angry because I was late. I was miserable. I wanted to go home. Of course, I soon made friends and began to enjoy some of the lessons. But those first days were terrible.

My first day at secondary school was fun! I was with my friends from primary school, so I wasn't nervous. In the morning, some of the older students took us on a tour of the school. They showed us the different departments like the art rooms, the computer rooms and the sports ground. Then we met our teachers and they gave us our timetables. Everyone was very friendly and we all felt quite happy. Of course, when we started lessons, we realised that the work was difficult. I could understand the science, but I couldn't understand the maths at all. At the end of the day I was very tired! And we got lots of homework. I didn't feel so confident then.

Writing Part 3

1 Read this question. It is an example of the kind of task you will see in Part 3 of the Writing Paper.

- This is part of a letter you receive from an English friend.
I'm coming to your school for one term. In your next letter, tell me about the school. What do you like about it?
- Now write a letter to this friend.
- Write your letter in about 100 words.

2 Read these three answers. Which one answers the question above?

a I'm coming to your school for one term and I'd like to know more about it. How big is it? What are your favourite lessons? I'd like to know how many computer rooms there are because I want to study computing after I leave school. My best subject is maths but I also like science. The science teachers in my school are very good. I hope you do lots of different sports. I enjoy rugby and athletics and I'm in my school team. I know you have lots of friends so I hope I'm in the same class.

b My school is quite small. It's in the city centre. I walk there every day. The building is old and in winter it's very cold. After school my friends and I sometimes go to the city centre. There are three cinemas and lots of coffee bars. I like playing tennis and basketball and I go to the sports hall in the city centre at weekends. I think school is boring. I want to travel round the world and I'm looking forward to leaving school soon.

c My school is in the city centre. It has 1000 students aged 12-18. We have lessons from 8.30 until 4.30 except Wednesday afternoons. On Saturdays we have lessons from 8.30 until 12. My favourite lessons are science and sport. We have very good laboratories and I enjoy those lessons. I also like sport - we play basketball, football, hockey and tennis. There's a really good swimming pool too. I often go to the computer room after school and do my homework. I've got a lot of good friends here. It's a very friendly school. We often meet after school and at weekends.

3 Make a list of the topics students A, B and C wrote about. Can you think of any other things to write about in your answer?

position
favourite subjects

4 What do you like about your school? Write some notes next to each heading like this.

buildings - new, clean, lots of windows position - near railway station favourite subjects - English, drama

5 Now answer the question. Write about your school. Count the words. Are there 90-110?

Dear Marco

I hope you're not angry with me because I didn't see you at the sports club yesterday. I'm really sorry, but I had a terrible morning. I left home at nine o'clock but I didn't arrive at the club until eleven! I usually ride my bike, but my brother wanted it, so I walked to the railway station. You can usually get a bus from there to near our club. Yesterday I waited for half an hour but I didn't see any buses. I looked for a taxi and I found one quite quickly, but the motorway was busy and then, after ten minutes, the taxi stopped. I don't know why. The driver didn't phone a mechanic. He said, 'I can mend it.' But he didn't and I felt very worried because I was so late. After twenty minutes a lorry driver gave us a lift to a café. I walked from the café to the club, but it was very late and you weren't there. We need to meet and practise for our match on Saturday. I'm visiting a friend this evening, so can you phone me early?

Reading Part 3

- 1 Look at the photograph of Lincoln, a city in the east of England.
What can you say about Lincoln from the photograph?
- 2 Read the text. Don't worry if there are some words you don't understand.
Does it say what you expected from the photograph?
- 3 Mark the parts of the text which tell you about:
  - a the cathedral
  - b The Lawn
  - c the Tourist Information Centre and St Mark's Shopping Centre
  - d the Waterside Centre
  - e the river
  - f the railway station
- 4 Now look at this sentence:

1 The cathedral is near the castle.

Read the part of the text about the cathedral again. Is the cathedral near the castle? Underline the answer. Is the statement correct or incorrect? Write A for correct or B for incorrect.

- 5 Now look at these sentences. For each one, find the right part of the text. Decide if the text says the same as the question. Is each sentence correct or incorrect? Write A for correct or B for incorrect.

- 2 The Lawn is a hospital.
- 3 It takes an hour to walk from the Tourist Information Centre to the castle.
- 4 The Waterside Centre is older than St Mark's Shopping Centre.
- 5 The river goes through the centre of the city.
- 6 You need to cross the road to go from the bus station to the railway station.

Exam Advice

For each question, find the right part of the text, then read it slowly.

Lincoln

The city of Lincoln is 2,000 years old and there are a lot of interesting buildings to see. The cathedral is in the north of the city just outside the main city centre. You can walk to many of Lincoln's other attractions from the cathedral. It's not far from the castle. There is a wonderful view of the city from there. Behind the castle is The Lawn, an old hospital, which is now a museum with shops and a café. You can sit in the beautiful gardens to have lunch or a coffee. There is a car park a few metres from the café.

During the summer, walking tours leave from the Tourist Information Centre, which is next to the castle. They are not expensive, last about an hour and visit all the main attractions. There are some very interesting museums. The Toy Museum is near the Tourist Information Centre and has children's toys and games from the last century.

There are shops and a market in the old city centre. There are two shopping centres – one is the Waterside Centre opposite the market and the other is St Mark's Shopping Centre. St Mark's is newer than the Waterside Centre and is just south of the main city centre. Go straight down the High Street from the city centre and it is on the right.

In the middle of the city centre, there are some beautiful spots away from the crowds. For example, you can walk by the river or take a boat trip. Trips leave from Bayford Pool.

You can travel to Lincoln by train, bus or car. It is 216 km from London. The bus station is beside the river and the railway station is a few minutes' walk away from the bus station on the other side of St Mary's Street.

Reading

- 1 Look at these photographs. They tell us something about the weddings of four different couples. What can you guess about them?
- 2 Read the newspaper article and match the photographs to the couples.

What style of wedding do people in the UK want these days?

Our reporter Suzy Hill talked to four couples who have some very different wedding plans.

We're getting married ...

... in the Caribbean

Anna We're having a romantic wedding on the beach at sunset. I've bought a new bikini and some sunscreen.

Jay I've just been to the travel agent to book our plane tickets and our hotel. We've told our family and friends and they're organising a barbecue to celebrate with us when we come back.

... in our local church

Nigel We got engaged last year and we're having a family wedding in the village where we live. We've invited all our friends and our parents and all our relations.

Fiona My parents have organised a big party. It's taken a month, they've booked a band to play in the evening and they've hired a special car to take me to the church. We've planned our honeymoon, but we haven't told anyone where we're going because some people aren't good at keeping a secret – we'll tell them on our wedding day.

... in secret

Lorne Do you promise you aren't printing this until next week? OK. We're both very famous, so we often have problems with our fans. We've bought the rings and we've rented a cottage in the mountains for our honeymoon. No one can disturb us there.

Esmerelda We're very much in love and want to be alone together. We haven't planned a party. We haven't even told our families or friends. We haven't told our secretaries or our agents, and we certainly haven't told any journalists except you. I hope we're not making a mistake now. Please don't tell anyone before next week!

... in our lunch hour

Dawn We're both very busy people. We run a successful business. Our secretaries have organised everything and they've sent invitations to our friends. I don't know who's accepted or who's refused.

Gary My secretary has made the appointment at the registry office and she's already booked a table at a good restaurant for lunch – we're taking an extra long lunch break. Then we're going back to work! We haven't planned a honeymoon yet because we're too busy to go away. Perhaps next year ...

Exam Advice

In Writing Part 2 you need to understand the following verbs – apologise, ask, describe, explain, invite, say, suggest, tell, thank.

Writing Part 2

1 Read these questions. Underline the three things you must do in each task. Check that you understand the verbs in the Exam Advice box.

1 You are having a birthday party next Friday.

Write a card to your English friend Matthew. In your card, you should

- invite him to the party
- tell him who is coming
- suggest how to get there

2 Your English friend, Catherine, has invited you to her birthday party next week but you can't go. Write a card to Catherine. In your card, you should

- thank her
- apologise
- explain why you can't go

3 It was your birthday last week. Your English friend Ben sent you a present. Write a card to Ben.

In your card, you should

- thank him for the present
- describe what you did on your birthday
- ask him when his birthday is

2 Put the correct name at the beginning of each card.

a

Dear .....

*I'm having a birthday party next Friday. Would you like to come?
All our friends from school are coming and some of my family.
I live in the city centre. Take a bus to the bus station, then you can walk from there.*

b

Dear .....

Thank you very much for the book you sent me for my birthday. I spent the day with my family and I went to a nightclub in the evening with my friends. Can you tell me when your birthday is?

c

Dear .....

Thank you for inviting me to your birthday party next week. I'm sorry but I can't come because my brother and his wife are visiting us with their new baby. I hope you enjoy the party.

3 Look at card a. Underline Would you like to come? These words invite Matthew to the party. Now underline in different colours the words which tell him who is coming and the words which suggest how to get there.

4 Do the same with cards b and c.

5 Write the answers to these questions. Write 35–45 words.

Your English friend called Emily has invited you to go to a concert next Saturday but you can't go.

Write a card to send to Emily. In your card, you should

- thank her
- apologise
- explain why you can't go

You spent last Saturday in the city centre with some friends.

Write an email to your English friend called Tim. In your email, you should

- tell him how you got there
- describe what you did
- invite him to go with you next time

Reading Part 4

- 1 In Reading Part 4, the first question always asks you what the writer is trying to do. Read these four texts and match them to A, B, C and D below. Underline the words in each text which helped you to find the answers.

What is the writer trying to do?

- A advise someone
- B apologise to someone
- C advertise something
- D complain about something

- 2 There is always a question asking you about the writer's opinion. Match the texts opposite to A, B, C and D below. Underline the words in each text which helped you to find the answers.

Which of the following opinions does the writer have?

- A The equipment in the club isn't very good.
- B The club is the best in town.
- C The pool in the club is better than the gym.
- D The club needs more staff.

- 3 There are always two questions about the details in the text. This may be about something very small. Match the texts opposite to A, B, C and D below. Underline the words in each text which helped you to find the answers.

Which of the following is stated in the text?

- A The writer works at the club.
- B The writer is a new member of the club.
- C The writer always goes to the club on the same day.
- D The writer goes to the club several times a week.

Exam Advice

For some questions you need to read part of the text.
For other questions you need to read all of the text.

- 1 I joined your health club last week. The equipment is up-to-date and easy to use but when I came in for the first time on Thursday I was very surprised that there were no instructors in the gym. Nobody checked my heart before I started using the equipment. I am not happy about this because it is very dangerous. I am coming back next week to use your pool and I hope you have a lifeguard there.

Delete Reply Reply All Forward Print

You know I go to the health club at least twice a week and I use the pool there because it's brilliant. You should try it. The gym is OK too and I sometimes go there. When I saw you last week you were very stressed. You really shouldn't work hard all the time. Why don't you join the health club? We can go together then.

Blacks Health Club is opening next week and we are offering a special discount to the first 100 members. You can join the club for half the normal price. Just come along or phone me, Mick Smith, the manager, on 983546.

Don't miss the chance to join and use our gym and pool. There is no other club in town which is as good as this one.

I was very surprised to see you in the health club last week because you always say that you hate doing exercise. It was very rude of me to laugh at you when you tried to ride the exercise bike in the gym. I'm really sorry. The equipment in the gym is old and is sometimes difficult to use, so it wasn't your fault. But the club is cheap! I hope we can be friends again. I go to the club every Sunday afternoon - shall we meet there?

Speaking Part 2

- 1 Look at the boy in the picture, Josh. What is wrong with him? How does he feel?
- 2 You want to visit Josh and take him a present. Look at the things in the pictures. Think about which ones Josh can use and which ones he can't use. Which things does he need? Which would he like to have?
- 3 Work with a partner. Discuss which present to take Josh. Explain why you think some things are better than others. Try to agree on what to take.
- 4 See if the rest of the class agrees with you.

Say what you think:

I think ...

In my opinion ...

Make suggestions:

We'd better take him X because ...

Why don't we take him X?

Agree and disagree:

I (don't) agree (that) ...

That's (not) a good idea.

I don't think that's a very good idea.

I've got a better idea.

Dear Ms Schmidt,

Thank you for your application form for our summer course (15th–30th July).

I have arranged accommodation for you with Mrs Susan Miller at Lime Trees, 15 The Grove, Birmingham B14 2AJ. Please can you write to her and tell her the date and time of your arrival.

We look forward to seeing you in July.

Yours sincerely,

J H Elling

d

Dear Mrs Miller,

I am attending a course at The Edge School from 15th to 30th July. The school has given me your name and address. I plan to arrive in Birmingham on Saturday, 13th July and leave on the 31st. Is that convenient for you?

Please can you tell me how to get from the airport to your house by public transport? I've never been to Birmingham before. You can email me on marscheschmidt.org

I look forward to meeting you.

Yours sincerely,

Maria

Dear Susan

Are you sure? It's very kind of you. My flight arrives at 11.30 am. It's Swallow Air flight no. SWA25. Thank you very much indeed.

Yours

Maria

f

Dear Philippe

It was great to get your letter. Yes, I remember you well. We all enjoyed that course. And you learnt some English!

I'm very well, thank you. The Edge School has grown bigger. Last year we started a new Business English course. It's been very successful.

Unfortunately, the Gibsons have moved to another town. I haven't seen them for two years. But we opened a student hostel three years ago. Would Thomas like a room there?

With best wishes

Mike Churchfield

g

Dear Maria

Thank you for your letter. Those dates are fine. You don't need to use public transport because I can meet you in the car. What time does your flight arrive?

And please call me Susan.

Best wishes

Susan

h

Dear Mr Churchfield

My cousin Philippe wrote to you last week. Please can you reserve a room for me in the hostel?

I haven't been to England since I was a child. I came with my parents ten years ago and I've wanted to come again since then.

I look forward to meeting you. Philippe has told me lots of stories about his time at your school.

Yours

Thomas Haupt

- She always watches him when he plays football.
- He hopes to be a scientist.
- The hotel arranges everything.

Activity Did you ...?

Your teacher will give you the name of a famous person. Don't show it to anybody. Answer the questions other people ask you and ask questions to find out who the other people are. Ask and answer questions like these:

Did you live in England? – No, I didn't.

Did you die in the last century? – Yes, I did.

Did you paint pictures? – Yes, I did.

Have I seen any of your pictures? – Yes, you have.

Were you Picasso? – Yes, I was!

If you don't know the answer, say I can't remember.

Exam folder 10

In this part of the exam, you listen to seven short recordings and decide which of three pictures answers the question. You hear the recording twice.

Listening Part 1

1 Look at the question and pictures for question 1 in Exercise 3. What is the question about? Think of some vocabulary which is useful before you listen.

2 Work with a partner. Look at questions 2–5 in Exercise 3. Write down some useful vocabulary.

3 142 Listen to the recordings.

For each question there are three pictures and a short recording. Choose the correct picture and put a tick (✓) in the box below it.

Writing folder

Writing Part 3

1 Look at the task below and think about these questions.

- a What does What about you? mean here?
- b What kind of places can you write about?
- c What kind of things can you do to keep fit?

- This is part of a letter you receive from an English penfriend.

Dear Alice,
I've just joined a fitness centre.
What about you? Is there a place where you can do sport near your home? Tell me how you keep fit.

- Now write a letter to your penfriend.
- Write your letter in about 100 words.

2 Look at this answer. Does it answer the questions in the task? Is it a good answer?

I don't go to a fitness centre. I prefer to do sport outdoors.
There's a sports ground near our house.
I go swimming quite often.

All the best,
Mirza

Exam Advice

In Writing Part 3, it is important to answer the question and to give extra information to make your answer interesting.

3 Which of these sentences can you use to improve Mirza's letter? Decide where to put them. Why can't you use the other sentences?

- a Thanks for your letter.
- b I live near the station.
- c There's one near our house and my brother joined it last year. He says it's good.
- d I often go to the cinema with my brother.
- e I go there on Saturdays and play football with my friends.
- f On Sundays we have matches against other teams.
- g I usually go to the big pool in the city centre, but sometimes we go surfing in the sea.
- h Do you go to a fitness centre?
- i I really like that and I think it's a great way to keep fit.

Grammar spot Asking for a reply

When we write a letter, we often want to say that we would like a reply. How do we say this in English? Mark the correct words in each column, then write the sentence in the space.

I	wait look forward like look	hearing to hear for hearing to hearing	from of by	you.
---	--------------------------------------	---	------------------	------

I ..... you.

4 Now look at this answer. Make up some sentences to add to it. Compare your ideas with those of other students.

I go to our local fitness centre every week.
There's also a tennis club near our house, but I don't go there. I sometimes play volleyball after school.

Love,
Liz

5 Write your own answer to the task in about 100 words.

Grammar superlative adjectives; present passive
Vocabulary countries, nationalities, languages; number; measurements; what to say when you're not sure
Revision comparative adjectives

Chapter 5 Screams in the night

I was asleep, but my head was full of pictures and stories. I was dreaming about double basses and violinists and parties on the beach. Simon was in my dream. Our conductor was in it. So was my old teacher, playing a double bass on the sand. Then I heard a different sound. Somebody was shouting. No, it was worse than that. Somebody was screaming, screaming very loudly. I opened my eyes. I woke up. It was five o'clock in the morning. Somebody screamed again. And again. And again. This time I wasn't dreaming. I got out of bed. I put on a T-shirt and some jeans and went out of my room. Doors were opening on the left and the right. Adriana came out of her room. She ran up to me. She was half asleep, still in her night-dress. 'What is it?' she asked sleepily. 'What's going on?' 'I don't know,' I answered. Martin Audley (a trumpet player) came up to us.

'Who screamed?' he asked. 'Nobody knows,' I told him. 'But it sounded terrible.' There was another scream. It came from outside. We ran back into my room and looked out of the window, down at the street. There was a police car there, some people, more and more people. And something else. 'Come on,' I said. We got the lift to the ground floor. When it stopped we ran out of the hotel and pushed to the front of all the people. Marilyn Whittle, the harp player, was already there. Her face was white and her eyes were large and round. 'Look! Look!' she said. She was pointing in front of her. She screamed again. We looked. She was pointing at the person at her feet. It was Frank Shepherd. His mouth was open. There was blood all over his head. Martin spoke first. 'My God!' he said. 'He's dead!'

Reading

- 1 Here is part of a book called The Double Bass Mystery by Jeremy Harmer.

Penny is a double bass player. She and her boyfriend Simon play in an English orchestra. They are in Barcelona. Last night they gave their first concert there. Penny was tired after the concert and fell asleep quickly.

I phoned home. I said, 'I know we live in Oxford Road, but what number is it?'
When I arrived, all my family were laughing about me. I've been careful not to forget our address since then.

c When we looked out of the tent, it was snowing hard. We packed our rucksacks and put on our coats.

At last we saw the lights of the city. An hour later we were sitting in a café with a hot drink in front of us.

d It was John's birthday, but he was sitting alone in his room. He usually met his friends on Saturday evenings, but this week they were all busy. He was miserable.

'It's been a great evening,' he said.

e I work in a café on Saturdays. One man who often comes in is a journalist. A fortnight ago, when I brought him his coffee, he said, 'I'm going to meet someone.'
'Who?' I asked.

'I hope you'll return safely,' I said.
'I hope so, too!' he answered.

f I like my cat. Her name is Sheba and she is black, beautiful and very intelligent. At night she explores the garden.

Dear Fiona,

Nick and I arrived in London two days (a) ago. Have you (b) been to London? I've (c) been before but Nick came here (d) in 2008. I've wanted to come (e) yet. I was a little boy. We've (f) been on a river trip and on a bus around the city – I enjoyed them both. I haven't been to any museums (g) on but Nick went to one yesterday (h) on. I was looking round the Tower of London. We're staying in London (i) for a week and we're going to Edinburgh (j) on Friday. See you soon.

Reading

- 3 Read these reviews of four books, then look at the sentences below. Decide which book each sentence matches.

A

I have read several books by Darren McGough and this novel is as good as all his others. Most of McGough's stories happen in Australia because that is where he comes from. This one starts on a beach in Spain and finishes up a mountain in China. It is very exciting and the ending is a surprise.

B

Like all Sergio Sanchez's books, this one is very popular in South America and Spain. I've wanted to read it for a long time and now I can because it is available in English. It is about a journey which a group of people made across Argentina at the beginning of the last century.

C

This is the third book Colin Wesley has written about animals but I enjoyed this one the most. It is easier to read than the others and the photographs are beautiful. Wesley spent a year living in Australia taking photos and writing about Australian animals. It costs a lot (€30).

D

Ruth Rawlings takes 400 pages to write about the life of Maria Cornwell. She was an opera singer in the 1920s and she travelled all over the world. The book is very long but is not expensive at €10. Rawlings has not written a book before and I hope this is not the last one, as it is very good.

	A	B	C	D
1 The story takes place in South America.
2 It is the writer's first book.
3 It is expensive.
4 It is fiction.
5 It is translated from another language.
6 The writer is Australian.
7 It is a biography.
8 It is a thriller.
9 It is already successful in some countries.
10 It is better than the last book by this writer.

Vocabulary spot

When you are learning new vocabulary from a reading text, write it down in groups of related words.

Grammar modals (probability, possibility); prepositions of place
Vocabulary rooms and furniture; saying what you prefer
Revision present and past tenses; advice

Introduction

- 1 Look at the photographs. What are these things called? Which of the words in the box can you use to describe each of them?

antique	beautiful
cheap	comfortable
crazy	expensive
glass	modern ugly	plastic useful	old-fashioned unusual	traditional wooden

- 2 Read what people say about their things and match them to the photos.

1 I think this is great because I like unusual furniture. Some people say it's not very comfortable in hot weather but I don't mind.

2 This is useful, it's modern and it was cheap. It's not beautiful, but it's not ugly and I can keep a lot of my clothes in it.

3 I was walking down a side street when I saw this in a shop window, and I decided to buy it that day. I don't have any other antiques, but this is the kind of thing which looks good in any big room.

4 I've had it for two years now. It was expensive, but in my opinion, it was worth it because it's the most useful thing in the kitchen.

5 I don't really like it at all because it's old-fashioned, and I prefer modern furniture. But I can't afford to change it and it's quite useful – I can keep lots of things in it.

6 This matches the other furniture in the room because it's traditional – we've had it since we got married. We all like it because it's very comfortable.

7 My parents gave it to me for my birthday. I know it was expensive, but I love modern design, and really beautiful things are always fashionable.

8 It's crazy, isn't it? Everyone laughs when they see it, but it works OK, and it makes me happy.

- 3 Work with a partner. Tell each other what kind of furniture you like.

Vocabulary spot

Talking about the price of things

Complete these sentences with a word from the box.

afford is cost worth

- a How much does/did it .....?
 b I can/can't ..... it.
 c It ..... cheap/expensive.
 d It's (not) ..... £100.

Listening

- 1 2/09 Listen to four people called Neil, Ian, Adam and Patricia talking about where they live. Write the name of the speaker next to each photograph.

a

- 1 Work with a partner. Talk about the things in the pictures. Can you guess what they are? Use the language in the Grammar spot.

2 Choose the correct verb.

- A: Who's that man? Isn't he a well-known actor?
B: I don't know, but he could / must be. He's very handsome.
- A: I've just tried to phone Toni at her aunt's house, but she's not there.
B: But she must / might be there. She's babysitting her cousins.
- A: I want to buy a computer like your brother's. Do you know how much they cost?
B: No, but they can't / must be very expensive because I know he hasn't got much money.
- A: Where's the orange juice?
B: I'm not sure. Probably in the fridge, or it must / might be on the table in the other room.
- A: Are your neighbours on holiday?
B: They can't / could be. The car isn't outside the house.

Prepositions of place

Are these sentences true or false? Correct them if necessary.

- The basin is below the mirror. true
- The toilet is opposite a cupboard.
- There's a mirror facing the basin.
- The basin is on top of a cupboard.
- There's a window behind the basin.
- There's a step between the basin and the cupboard.
- There's a low cupboard in the corner.
- There are towels on hooks on the wall opposite the mirror.
- We can see toothbrushes inside some of the drawers.
- There's a cupboard on the wall beyond the step.

Rooms and furniture

1 Work with a partner. Can you name all the rooms and furniture in this flat?

2 Now decide which rooms to put these things in. Use your dictionary if necessary.

basin	chest of drawers
cooker	poster
desk	bath
wastepaper basket	sink
mirror	air conditioning
sofa	bedside table
curtains	television
pillows	clock
central heating	carpet
dishwasher	washing machine

3 The owners of this flat want to buy some more furniture. What advice would you give them? Use these expressions from Unit 9:

You should ...

You'd better ...

Why don't you ...?

Vocabulary spot

Learning the names of things on a picture can help you to remember them. Remember the picture and the names of the things together.

«Pronunciation»

1 Think about the sounds /ʒ/ and /dʒ/. Can you find them in this sentence?

I heard a great joke on television yesterday.

2  Listen and repeat these sentences. Which words have the sound /ʒ/? Which words have the sound /dʒ/? Mark them in different colours.

- Can you measure these jeans, please?
- We keep the fridge in the kitchen and the TV in the lounge.
- I'm doing revision for my college exams.
- Do you go jogging for pleasure?
- She usually pays generous wages.
- The Bridge Hotel has excellent leisure facilities.
- We've just made an important decision.
- A giraffe is an unusual pet.

3 When you have checked your answers, put the words into the table.

/ʒ/	/dʒ/
television	joke

4 Work with a partner. Take turns to repeat the sentences in Exercise 2 again. Listen to each other's pronunciation.

«Activity» Comparing pictures

Work with a partner. Your teacher will give each of you a picture. Don't look at each other's pictures.

Tell each other what you can see in your picture and where everything is. Can you find ten differences? Make sentences like this:

In Picture A the TV is on the table, but in Picture B it's on the desk.

Reading Part 2

In this part of the exam, you read five descriptions of people. For each one, you choose one text to match it.

- 1 Here are five texts about people who all want to do a language course at a college in England and eight advertisements for colleges. Underline the important information in 1–5 below.

Alma doesn't like cities and wants to live somewhere quiet with an English family. She wants to do a full-time course.

2

Kostas enjoys city life. He wants to do a part-time course and have a part-time job as well. He is not interested in going on trips or doing activities with the college after his classes. He wants to rent his own flat.

3

Margarita would like to live in a hostel with other students. She wants to do a full-time course. She likes to play sport in her free time.

4

Tomek is looking for a full-time four-week course at a college which organises social activities for students. He doesn't mind living in the city or the country but he wants to stay with a family.

5

Hiroki wants to do a part-time course at a college which can arrange his accommodation. He loves walking, so he wants to be near the countryside. He doesn't enjoy organised trips and activities.

- 2 Look at the description of Alma again. Quickly look through the advertisements on the opposite page.

- Find the colleges which aren't in the city. Are they in quiet places?
- Which of these colleges have accommodation with a family?
- Which of these colleges have full-time courses?
- Which college is suitable for Alma?

Exam Advice

No text can be the answer to two questions.

3 Decide which college would be the most suitable for the other people.

A

Langdale College is on the edge of a small town surrounded by hills, twenty kilometres from the city. It offers English lessons in the mornings with activities, sports and trips to other towns and places of interest in the afternoons and at weekends. Courses last six or twelve weeks. All students live with local families.

B

Anderson College is in the centre of the city. Students can choose from a range of part-time courses – either mornings only, afternoons only or three mornings/afternoons and two evenings. The college has sports facilities, a drama centre, library and club which students can use if they wish. The college does not arrange accommodation.

C

The Park School is ten kilometres from the city. It is surrounded by woods and there are lots of footpaths through attractive countryside. All students live in a hostel next to the school. There are classes in the mornings and the rest of the time students are free for private study.

D

Highcliff College is in the city near the university. It runs four-week and eight-week full-time courses. Students live with families. They spend evenings and weekends with their families learning about English family life and practising their English.

E

The Milburn Academy is in the city centre. It offers full-time twelve-week courses. Students are also expected to join in the social and sports events organised for evenings and weekends. The college owns several large houses nearby where students live and prepare their own meals.

F

The Waterside College is a large city college which has part-time English courses all year round. All students live in college hostels in different parts of the city. The college has its own sports hall and swimming pool and at weekends there are trips to other cities.

G

The Marlowe School offers two-week and four-week courses all year, full-time. It is situated in a quiet part of the city but there are buses both into the centre and to the nearby countryside. Students stay with local families if they wish. Every evening during the week there is a social event for students and there are trips at weekends.

H

The Beechwood Academy is in a village about 15 km from the city. It offers full-time courses. Students live with families in the village and are encouraged to join in family life as much as possible. The village has a leisure centre.

Corpus spot Do and take

We use do or take + a course of study.

1 These PET students have all used the wrong verb. Replace them with the correct form of do or take.

- a I want to follow a course here in England.
- b We're going to make the same course.
- c Last year I visited an English course in Bristol.

2 Now complete these sentences with the correct form of do or take.

- a Zoë's French is quite good because she ..... a course in Paris last summer.
- b My brother failed his science exam, so he ..... an extra course at the college this term.
- c This cake is delicious. .... you ..... a cookery course?

4 What kind of clothes do you like to wear?

Reading

- 1 Read this magazine article about fashion in Britain during the last century. Match each paragraph to one of the photographs. Then work in a group and decide which decade each paragraph is describing (1920s, 1950s, 1960s or 1990s).

Do you think you're fashionable?

What did your granny or your dad use to wear?

19.....s

Fashion went mad in Britain at this time. Clothes were made from exciting new materials like shiny plastic and even paper. Women used to wear very short skirts and long shiny black plastic boots. Sometimes the boots went over their knees. Young men used to wear bright colours. They wore wonderful patterned shirts with wide collars and big ties. Their hair was quite long.

19.....s

Very full skirts were in fashion for young women at this time. They often used to wear gloves, sometimes even indoors. Teenage girls sometimes used to wear short white cotton socks and flat shoes. Some young men, who were known as 'teddy boys', used to wear very narrow ties and narrow trousers. Their shoes or boots sometimes had high heels and pointed toes.

19.....s

In this period women used to wear long straight dresses. They ended just below the knee and didn't have a waist. The dresses often used to have a belt around the hips. Women liked wearing scarves and beads round their necks. Their hair was very short and they always used to wear hats when they went out. Men used to wear trousers with very wide legs. They often wore sweaters and flat caps.

19.....s

Very short tops or T-shirts were the latest fashion in this decade. Girls used to wear them with jeans. Everyone wore trainers. Teenagers used to wear a lot of jewellery - in their ears, noses and even tongues - and they painted their nails in crazy colours. Young men used to have very short hair and they used to wear baseball caps and loose trousers. Sweatshirts and jogging pants were also very popular.

- 2 Read the text again. Underline any words you don't know.

Work in a group. Talk about the meaning of the words you underlined.

Vocabulary spot

Use the pictures and photographs to help you understand and learn words you don't know. Cut out pictures from magazines and label the clothes.

- 3 Which of the clothes look comfortable/uncomfortable? Which are the most uncomfortable? Which look cool/warm? Which look exciting/boring? Which do you think are made from wool? cotton? leather? silk? Which would you like to wear?

Language focus

Used to

- 1 What did people use to wear? Make two sentences with used to about men, women or teenagers in each decade, using the words in the box and the article on page 93 to help you.

EXAMPLE: In the 1920s women didn't use to wear jewellery in their noses.
In the 1950s teenagers used to wear white socks.

very short skirts baseball caps gloves jewellery in their noses big ties flat caps narrow trousers shiny black boots white socks beads

Grammar spot

Used to

Used to (verb) shows something was true in the past but not now.

I used to

now

Write the correct form of used to.

- + In the 1920s, women ..... wear hats.
- In the 1950s, women ..... have short skirts.
- ? In the 1970s, did men ..... wear ties?

«Activity» Colours

How do these colours make you feel? Choose some words from the middle and write them on the colour you think they belong with.

Compare your wheel with your partner's. Have you chosen the same words for each colour?

happy, cheerful, sad, miserable, bored,
tired, quiet, peaceful,
thoughtful, energetic,
hot, warm, angry, cool

- 2 Ask your partner what he/she used to do when he/she was seven years old.
- a What / wear? What did you use to wear?
  - b What time / get up?
  - c What time / bed?
  - d What / do / weekends?
  - e What / enjoy doing?
- 3 Now write three sentences about what your partner used to do.

«Activity» Used to

- 1 Work in pairs.

Student B, ask Student A questions beginning Did there use to be ...?

Student A, reply Yes, there did or No, there didn't. Give Student B some extra information by saying There used to be ...

- 2 Write down at least five things which have and haven't changed.

«Pronunciation»

- 1 Look at these lists of words. Think about the sound /f/. Which is the odd word out in each list?
- a bright light cough through
  - b enough photograph telephone alphabet
  - c paragraph fashion geography physics
- 2 212 Listen and repeat the words. Do you want to change your odd word out?
- 3 What are the different ways of spelling the sound /f/?
What are the different ways of pronouncing the letters gh?

Too and enough

- Look at the pictures on page 92 and choose one answer in the sentences below.
  - The red hat is too big / isn't big enough for her.
  - The green shorts are too big / aren't big enough for him.
  - The grey trousers are too long / aren't long enough for him.
  - The red and purple dress is too bright / isn't bright enough.
  - The sunglasses are too dark / aren't dark enough.

Grammar spot

Too and enough

Choose too or enough to complete the rules below.

We use not with too/enough.

Too/Enough goes before an adjective.

Too/Enough goes after an adjective.

- Match the adjectives in Box A with their opposites in Box B.

A	B
bright	thick
short	tight thin	high loose	wide
large	patterned
low	dull
narrow	long
plain	small

- Look at these pairs of sentences. Finish the second one so that it means the same as the first one.
  - Her skirt is too short for her.
Her skirt isn't long enough for her.
  - The tunnel is too narrow for us to drive through.
The tunnel isn't ..... for us to drive through.
  - The bridge is too low for the bus to go under.
The bridge isn't ..... for the bus to go under.
  - The suitcase isn't large enough for all our things.
The suitcase ..... small for all our things.
  - The material isn't thick enough to keep you warm.
The material ..... thin to keep you warm.

- Which of the clothes on page 93 don't you like? Write some sentences with too and enough. Use the adjectives in the box to help you.

short warm large wide bright long colourful

EXAMPLE: In a, the man's trousers are too wide.

In c, the girl's skirt isn't long enough.

Adjective order

- Here are some descriptions from the magazine article on page 93. What do these adjectives tell us about the nouns? Put them in the correct column.

shiny cotton wonderful plastic white long black patterned short

Opinion	Size	Description	Colour	Material	Noun
	long				boots
wonderful					shirts
					socks

- Look back at the first and second paragraphs of the magazine article and find the words from the exercise above. Are the columns in the correct order?
- Now put these adjectives in the correct order.
  - a blue/large sofa a large blue sofa
  - a brown/warm coat
  - a(n) wooden/old/beautiful desk
  - a(n) amazing/silk/short dress
  - a new/brilliant film
  - some cotton/black/fashionable shorts
  - a glass/shiny table

Listening Part 4

- 1 Read this instruction. What does it tell you about the people? What does it tell you about their conversation?

You will hear a conversation between a boy, Sandy, and a girl, Megan, about their jobs.

Exam Advice

Read the instructions. They tell you who the speakers are and what they will talk about.

- 2 Work with a partner. Read the six sentences in Exercise 6. What subjects do you think Sandy and Megan talk about? Can you guess what their jobs are?
- 3 When you listen, you decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under B for NO.

Practise with these sentences. Are they correct or incorrect?

Writing Parts 2 and 3

- 1 Read this question. What kind of things are you going to write about?

- This is part of a letter you receive from an English friend.

I'm really looking forward to hearing about your new flat. Did you find the furniture you wanted?

- Now write a letter to this friend.
- Write your letter in about 100 words.

- 2 Now read this answer. How many different things did the writer buy?

Dear Nicholas,
I went shopping this morning and I bought some things for my flat. I got a lamp in that new shop near the station. Then I found some cushions to match my sofa. They look nice. Then I bought a mirror, which I've put on my chest of drawers. It was cheap. I'd like to buy a bed but I can't afford it, so I bought a cover instead. The bed I've got is old. When I was coming home I walked through the market and I saw some posters, so I bought three.
All the best,
Dan

- 3 There aren't many adjectives in the letter. Add some of these adjectives to the letter to make it more interesting.

modern	large	shiny	crazy tiny	blue	plastic	big comfortable	red	amazing	green colourful	cotton	leather	small soft	wooden	new	lovely

- 4 Read this question.

You are on holiday at the seaside and you buy a postcard.

Write the postcard to your English friend called Sarah. In your card, you should

- tell her about your journey
- describe the place where you are staying
- say what you like best

- 5 Here is an answer. Put a different adjective into each space.

Dear Sarah,

We had a very _____ journey here because the weather was _____, so the ferry was late. We are staying in a _____ town. We have a _____ room with a _____ view.
I like the sea best. The water is
_____.

Love,
Rosie

- 6 Now do this question.

- This is part of a letter you receive from an English friend.

In your next letter, tell me what kind of clothes you like wearing. Tell me what you have bought recently.

- Now write a letter to this friend.
- Write your letter in about 100 words.

Exam Advice

Use adjectives to make your writing more interesting.

Introduction

- 1 In the UK, the law says you can do some things when you are 16 but you can't do others. Guess which things you can do in the UK when you are 16.

When you are 16 ...	UK
you can buy a pet.	✓
you can vote in elections.	✗
you can get a tattoo.
you can work full-time.
you can buy fireworks.
you can buy lottery tickets.
you can get a pilot's licence.
you can ride a scooter.
you can learn to drive a car.
you can give blood.
you can get married (if your parents agree).

- 2 Complete the other column for your country. Put ? if you aren't sure.
 3 Compare your answers with a partner.

- 4 Can you add any more things you can or can't do at age 16 in your country? Write them down.
 5 Which things are different in your country from Britain? Do you agree with the laws in your country about what you can do at age 16? Which would you like to change?

I think 16 is the right age to ... / is too young to ... / isn't old enough to ...

Listening

- 2 14 Listen to Ryan talking to his friend Martha, who did the Marathon of the Sands last year.

Decide if these sentences are true or false.

- a Ryan enjoyed skydiving. true
 b You have to be over a certain age to do the race.
 c Martha thought that running on sand was the most difficult thing about the race.
 d The runners have to share tents.
 e The average daytime temperature is 40°.

- a How did you get on .....
- b You have to get ..... quickly when the organisers call everyone.
- c You need to get ..... the other people.
- d When you get ..... the plane you can't believe how hot it is.
- e I have some work that I need to get .....

Vocabulary spot

Write down phrasal verbs as you learn them. Write them in a sentence so you have an example of the meaning. Keep them in one place in your notebook so you can look at them when you need to.

Had to, didn't have to

- 1 Read the beginning of this email Ryan wrote after he tried skydiving.

What did he have to do? What didn't he have to do? Underline the answers.

- 2 Look at some more photographs of people doing activities which might be risky. Have you ever done any of the things in the photos? Would you like to try?

- 3 Have you ever done anything risky? What did you have to do? What didn't you have to do? Did you enjoy it? Write three sentences using the box below.

+	I/you/he/she/we/they had to take a tent.
-	I/you/he/she/we/they didn't have to take a tent.
?	Did I/you/he/she/we/they have to take a tent?

- 4 Complete the gaps in these sentences with the correct form of have to.

- My friend was scared, so I had to hold her hand.
- There weren't many people at the fair, so we ..... wait long to go on the ride.
- ..... (you) wear a helmet when you went skydiving?
- I have my own wetsuit so I ..... borrow one when I went into the cave.

«Pronunciation»

- Say these four words. They each contain the letters ou, but ou is pronounced differently in each word.
nervous young bought house
- 2/15 Listen and repeat the words after the recording.
- 2/16 Put the words below into the correct column. Listen and check your answers.

dangerous thought shout enough ought out touch flavour

/ɒ/ nervous	/ʌ/ young	/ɔ:/ bought	/aʊ/ house

- 4 Can you think of any other words to add to the columns?

Adverbs

- 1 Martha gave Ryan some information about the Marathon of the Sands. Look at the sentences below. The underlined words are adverbs. Can you make adjectives from them?

- a You have to behave sensibly. sensible
 b The organisers travel more comfortably.
 c They wake everyone up very noisily.

Grammar spot

Making adverbs from adjectives

Complete the rules below.

Add ..... (perfect → perfectly)

Change y to ..... and add ..... (noisy → noisily)

For adjectives ending in le, take off ..... and add ..... (comfortable → comfortably)

Some adjectives don't change when they become adverbs: fast, early, hard, late.

The adverb from good is well: He was a good instructor. He taught me well.

- 2 Now make adverbs from these adjectives.

anxious anxiously cheerful .....
 heavy .....
 perfect .....
 confident .....
 loud .....
 quick .....
 gentle .....

- 3 Here is the rest of Ryan's email. Put the adverbs from Exercise 2 in the spaces.

I was joined by a special belt to an instructor. There were three of us who did the jump with our instructors. We sat in the plane waiting (a) anxiously for our turn. The instructors chatted (b) ..... the whole time. When the plane got to the right height, my instructor turned to me and shouted very (c) ..... 'Are you ready?' If you don't answer (d) ..... they don't allow you to jump. Then I jumped and it was brilliant. You fall very (e) ..... for about 40 seconds, then you pull the cord to open your parachute. And you float down very (f) ..... I landed (g) ..... on the ground with a bump but I didn't hurt myself. I was very pleased because I did everything (h) ..... I'll write again soon.
 All the best,
 Ryan

Corpus spot

Spelling of adverbs

Correct the spelling mistakes in these sentences.

- a I can understand my teacher easilly.
 b Luckily, it was a sunny day so I was able to swim in the lake.
 c My bedroom is completly white.

Activity Adverbs

- 1 Make these adjectives into adverbs.

angry quick quiet nervous miserable lazy happy secret serious slow loud sleepy excited

- 2 Your teacher will give each of you an adverb. To get a point for your team, you must say the sentence below so that the other team can guess your adverb. For example, if your adverb is anxiously, you should say your sentence anxiously.
 When I was on my way here today, something strange happened to me.

Reading Part 1

In this part of the exam, you look at short texts. There are three possible explanations – A, B or C. You have to decide which one says the same as the text.

- 1 Look at this sign and answer the questions.
  - a Where is the sign?
  - b What does children under five mean?
  - c Which children can go on the ride without an adult?
- 2 Read the three possible explanations. Which explanation – A, B or C – means the same as the sign? Why are the other explanations wrong?
  - A Children less than five years old cannot go on this ride alone.
  - B Children in groups of five or more must have an adult with them.
  - C Adults are not allowed on this ride.
- 3 Now look at another sign and answer the questions.
  - a Signs often have words missing to make them shorter. Add the missing words to the sign.
  - b Where in the park is this sign?
  - c How many entrances are open before 11 am today?
  - d How many entrances are open after 11 am today?
- 4 Read the three possible explanations of the sign then answer the questions.
  - A There will only be one entrance to the park after today.
  - B This entrance cannot be used before 11 am today.
  - C The park opens at 11 am today.
  - a Does cannot be used mean the same as closed in the sign?
  - b Does until 11 am today mean the same as after today?
  - c Which is the correct explanation – A, B or C?
  - d Why are the other explanations wrong?

5 Which words can you add to this sign?

6 Read the three possible explanations of the sign and decide which is the correct explanation – A, B or C. Why are the other explanations wrong?

- A The ride starts when all the seats are full.
- B Do not stand up when the ride is moving.
- C If the ride stops, wait until it begins again.

7 Now look at this sign. What does it say? Which is the correct explanation – A, B or C?

- A The park shuts earlier than 6 pm on some days.
- B The park stays open later for one month of the year.
- C The park is open all year except in December.

8 Now look at this sign. What does it say? Which is the correct explanation – A, B or C?

- A You can buy a hot meal in two different places.
- B The restaurant near the lake serves hot food in the middle of the day.
- C Sandwiches and drinks are only available at lunchtime.

Activity Making plans

- Listen to three short conversations between Marco and three of his friends. Look at his personal organiser and write down his plans for Sunday.
- What is Marco going to do on the day before his English test? Do you think this is a good plan?
- Write down three things (real or imaginary) that you are going to do this weekend. Write down the exact time for each activity.
- Go round the class. Tell other people what you are going to do and invite them to join you. Accept and refuse invitations to do things with them. You can't change the times you have chosen. Do not show your notes to other people.
- When you finish, find out who is going to have the busiest weekend.

Exam folder 16

In this part of the exam, you listen to a recording of one person speaking or an interview and answer six questions by choosing A, B or C. You hear the recording twice.

Listening Part 2

- 1 Look at the instructions at the top of the exam task on the right. What can you learn about the recording?

- a What kind of conversation is it?
- b How many people do you hear?
- c What is the conversation about?

- 2 Look at question 1 in the exam task. Question 1 tells us that we are going to hear about a woman called Philippa. What else does it tell us?

Now look at questions 2–6 in the exam task and make guesses about what you are going to hear. When you have finished, compare your guesses with the answers in the box at the foot of this page.

Exam Advice

Before you hear the recording, you have some time to read through the instructions and questions. You should use these to help you understand what you are going to hear.

- 3 Now read the options for each question in the exam task. Remember that the words you read in the questions are often different from the words you hear, although they have a similar meaning. Can you match the words from the questions (1–6) with the words which have a similar meaning (a–f)?

- |                              |                                       |
|------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1 some poetry                | a a show                              |
| 2 with a group of tourists   | b travelling by bus across the States |
| 3 two weeks                  | c a poem                              |
| 4 travelling by air          | d flying                              |
| 5 crossing the States by bus | e a tour organised by a travel agent  |
| 6 an exhibition              | f a fortnight                         |

- 4 20 Now do the exam task.

You will hear a radio interview with a woman called Philippa about a trip she is going to make.

For each question, put a tick (✓) in the correct box.

- 1 How did Philippa win her prize?

- A by writing some poetry ☐
- B by writing a novel ☐
- C by describing a journey ☐

- 2 Philippa is going to travel with

- A a group of tourists. ☐
- B two friends. ☐
- C her brother. ☐

- 3 When are they going to leave the UK?

- A immediately ☐
- B in two weeks ☐
- C at the end of the year ☐

- 4 Where are they going to stay first?

- A Amsterdam ☐
- B New York ☐
- C California ☐

- 5 Which part of the trip is Philippa most excited about?

- A travelling by air ☐
- B visiting famous cities ☐
- C crossing the States by bus ☐

- 6 When Philippa returns she is going to

- A have an exhibition. ☐
- B get a job. ☐
- C study. ☐

- 5 Listen again. Use the second listening to answer any questions you were unsure about.

Listening

- 1 Café Europe is a radio soap. Look at the photographs and talk about the characters. Would you like to meet any of them? Who?
- 2 Look at what happened last week in Café Europe.

LAST WEEK First, Mario had a quarrel with the chef and the chef left. Next, Claudia decided to sell her car and Karim wanted to buy it. Then, Adam, an old friend, arrived to share Karim's flat. Nathalie wanted to borrow Claudia's car. Claudia wasn't happy about the idea, but in the end she agreed.

What will happen this week? Look at these predictions.

- a The chef will come back.
- b Nathalie will get a job in the café.
- c Adam will meet Nathalie.

Do you think they are right? Discuss your predictions. Write some down.

- 3 22 Listen to the first part of this week's episode and answer these questions.
  - a What does Mario need? A new chef.
  - b What does Nathalie need?
  - c Why will Nathalie go to see Mario later?

- 4 23 Listen to the second part of this week's episode and answer these questions.

- a Where are Karim and Adam? In Karim's flat.
- b What does Karim show Adam?
- c What did Adam see yesterday?

- 5 24 Listen to the rest of this week's episode. Check these facts. Write true or false, then compare your answers with another student.

- a Karim is going to pay Claudia next week. false
- b Claudia believes her car is in good condition.
- c Claudia thinks Mario will offer Nathalie a job as a waitress.
- d Nathalie is a good cook.
- e Nathalie knows Adam well.
- f Adam knows something about Nathalie.

Reading Part 4

In this part of the exam, you read a text and answer five questions about it by choosing A, B, C or D.

- 1 On the opposite page, there is a text and some questions. Don't look at the text yet. Here is question 1. What can you learn from it about the text?

1 Why has Class 10 written this letter?

- 2 Now look at questions 2–5 below and make guesses about what you are going to read.

2 Why is Parson's Place particularly important, in their opinion?

3 What will cause traffic jams?

4 Class 10 believe that ordinary people who live in the town will probably soon ...

5 Which of these posters has Class 10 made?

- 3 Now read the text. If you don't know the meaning of a word or phrase, don't stop. Read on to the end and try to understand the text as a whole.

- 4 Follow these instructions.

- a Look at question 1 on the opposite page. Find clues in the text which tell you why Class 10 have written the letter. Quickly read the whole text again and answer question 1.
- b Look at question 2 on the opposite page. Find the two sentences which give Class 10's opinion about Parson's Place and underline them. Now answer question 2.
- c Look at question 3 on the opposite page. Find the paragraph in the text which talks about traffic. Read this paragraph carefully and answer question 3.
- d Look at question 4 on the opposite page. Find words in the text which mean the same as ordinary people. Read the whole paragraph and answer question 4.
- e Look at question 5 on the opposite page. Can you answer it without reading the text again?

Exam Advice

Some of the questions ask about facts and some ask about opinions.

We students of Class 10 have learnt of a plan to build three hundred houses on the land called Parson's Place which is behind our college! Few people know about this new plan to increase the size of our town. We all feel Parson's Place is special because we've visited it with our families since we were small children and we still like going there. It is a beautiful natural area – the small wood has many unusual trees and the stream is a great place for children to play. It's very quiet and safe because there are few houses or roads nearby. We think that losing this area will be terrible because there are no other similar facilities in the neighbourhood.

We are also against this plan because it will cause traffic problems. How will the people from the new houses travel to work? The motorway and the railway station are on the other side of town. Therefore, these people will have to drive through the town centre every time they go anywhere. The roads will always be full of traffic, and the tourists who come to see the lovely old buildings will leave. Shops and hotels will lose business. If the town really needs more homes, the empty ground beside the railway station is a more suitable place.

No doubt the builders will make a lot of money by selling these houses. But, in our opinion, the average family will quickly be made poorer by this plan, and we will lose a very special place.

We're going to the local government offices on Monday afternoon to protest about this plan and we hope that the rest of the college will join us there.

Read the text and questions below.

For each question, circle the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D.

1 Why have the students written this letter?

- A to persuade the government to build new houses
- B to protest about a new motorway near the town
- C to encourage more people in the town to use Parson's Place
- D to inform other people about the builders' plans

2 Why is Parson's Place particularly important, in the students' opinion?

- A because it is near the football ground
- B because lots of people live near it
- C because it is a place near the town where people can enjoy nature
- D because local people can get there easily by car from the town centre

3 What will cause traffic jams?

- A building on Parson's Place
- B building near the railway station
- C tourists in the narrow streets
- D people going to the shops and hotels

4 The students say that ordinary people who live in the town will probably soon

- A open new shops and hotels.
- B choose to live near the station.
- C be able to buy new homes.
- D have less money.

5 Which of these posters have the students made?

- A

SAVE OUR SPORTS GROUND
- B

SAY NO TO HOUSES ON PARSON'S PLACE
- C

WE NEED HOMES NOT HOTELS
- D

USE THE TRAIN NOT THE ROAD

- 3 What kind of film did you talk about?
 4 Tell the other students what kinds of film you like best. Who is your favourite film star?

Reading

- 1 Before a day's filming begins, what do the actors have to do? What do the film crew have to do? Use these words to help you:

actor director costumes lighting microphone camera crew dressing room make-up

- 2 Quickly read this newspaper article. How much of the film did they shoot during one day?

A Day's Work at the Seaside

Do you know how many hours' preparation are needed to make a very short piece of film?
Our reporter went down to the beach
to find out.

Five o'clock was very early in the morning for me but I wanted to get there to see all the preparations. The beach looked a bit different from usual and not just because the tourists were all missing at that time in the morning. But there were plenty of people around. I noticed several caravans in the car park with men and women going in and out of them. I soon realised that one caravan was the make-up room. The actors went in as one person and came out looking like someone else. In fact they looked completely different when they came out – some older, some younger, some more handsome. One actress spent a whole hour with the make-up artist. When she went in she was 25 and when she came out she was 65!

Another caravan was the dressing room and the actors went in dressed in ordinary jeans and T-shirts and came out in the clothes of the 1920s. They all looked very relaxed, sitting on picnic chairs on the beach, chatting and drinking coffee – they were obviously well prepared. The camera crew were very busy – they were moving the cameras into the right positions. The rest of the film crew were setting up the lights and checking microphones. I had a chat with a man called Ted – he was very keen to tell me about his job, which was to clear all the rubbish from the beach. The beach needed to be completely clean and he had to make sure there was nothing modern in sight because the film is about the 1920s. He even had to move some notices.

The director told everyone what to do. I looked for the star of the film, Alexia Harris, but I couldn't see her anywhere. She finally arrived at about 10 o'clock and looked rather annoyed because she had to wait for a technician to check the microphones.

I got the answer to my question – how long does it take to shoot a film? They shot only ten minutes of film in one whole day and the film crew were there for ten hours. I think I prefer my job – at least I don't usually have to get up at 5 am! But it was fun to be a visitor for a day.

- 3 Read the article again. What did the actors do? What did the film crew do? Put a tick or cross next to the following:

The actors ...	The film crew ...
went to the make-up room	set up the lights
went to the dressing room	moved the cameras
read the scripts	checked the microphones

- 5 Would you like to work for a film company? Which of these jobs would you like to have – director, actor, make-up artist, costume designer, camera operator, lighting technician, sound technician? Which job is the most popular?

- 4 Without reading the text again, say if these sentences are true or false.

- a It was too early for holidaymakers. true
- b The actors slept in the caravans.
- c In her make-up, one of the actresses looked older than she really was.
- d The actors wore their normal clothes in the film.
- e The star of the film was angry because other people were late.

Vocabulary spot

When you read, underline words that you can use to talk about yourself and your interests. For example, you may want to talk about films in a Speaking test.

Dear Hanna

How are you? I ~~hope~~ you're well.

I'm fine. I went shoping yesterday with my freind Emilia because it was my birthday and I recived some money. I saw a beatiful jacket in my favourit cloths shop. I tried it on an it was confortable. But I though it was to expensive. Then Emilia showed me the ticket - it was half prize! I bought it, than we decided to go to a restaurant which is near their. We had a very good day.

Introduction

- 1 Look at Daniel's family tree. Read what he says about his family below and then fill the spaces using some of the words from the box. Two of the words don't fit anywhere.

brother-in-law aunt daughter ex-wife sister cousin nephew son grandmother stepmother husband niece uncle half-sister

I've moved away from the town where I grew up. When I go back it's quite easy for me to visit all my relatives because most of them live in the same part of town. In fact my (a) _____, Lily, lives next door to her (b) _____ Caroline. My (c) _____ Hugh lives in the next street to my grandma and my father lives about ten minutes away, so my grandma has all her children near her. That's good because her (d) _____, Bob, died a few years ago, so she's alone now in the house. My parents got divorced about ten years ago and my father remarried. My (e) _____ Sarah and I weren't sure about our new (f) _____, Clare, at first but now we like her a lot. She and my father have one child, so I have a (g) _____. She's called Emily. Emily is only six and I have a (h) _____, Leo, who is the same age. I also have a (i) _____ called Anna. I get on really well with my (j) _____ Nick. Sarah, Nick, Leo and Anna live in Scotland and I often visit them. I have one (k) _____ called Michael. We used to play together a lot when we were small. Michael married young and he's divorced now but we still see his (l) _____, Joelle, because she's my sister's best friend.

- 2 Work with a partner. Tell your partner about your family or another family. Your partner draws the family tree for you. Now do the same for your partner's family.

Listening

- 1 2/30 Listen to four people speaking. What position are they in their families (oldest, middle, youngest, or only child)? What disadvantage does each person talk about?

Speaker	Position in family	Disadvantage
Rebecca
George
Charlotte
Peter

- 2 Read these descriptions. Write Rebecca, George, Charlotte and Peter against the correct heading. Add your name to one of the headings.

Oldest children

- ★ expect to do well
- ★ are good at looking after other people
- ★ need to keep everything tidy
- ★ like keeping rules

Youngest children

- ★ love taking risks
- ★ have a good sense of humour
- ★ often refuse to do what other people tell them
- ★ are interested in studying artistic subjects

Middle children

- ★ are good at solving arguments
- ★ enjoy being with other people
- ★ are good managers and leaders
- ★ don't mind changing their plans

Only children

- ★ prefer being with adults
- ★ are quite serious
- ★ are afraid of failing
- ★ are hard-working

- 3 Listen again and look at the descriptions above. For each person, put a tick (✓) next to the things they do or did.
- 4 Find other people in the class who are in the same position as you in their family. Discuss how you feel about your position in your family. Do you agree with what the descriptions say? Use language like this to help you.

I agree that ...

I don't agree that ...

It's true that ...

It's not true that ...

EXAMPLE: I agree that middle children enjoy being with other people.

- 5 Are there any other things your group wants to add to the list? Use language like this to help you.

We think ...

In our opinion, ...

Tell the rest of the class about what you discussed.
What is the best position in a family?

Which words are in both columns?
Write them here.

Verbs followed by to or -ing

- 3 Are these words followed by to or -ing? Write them in one of the columns above.

hope agree promise plan decide offer

- 4 Look at these two sentences. What is unusual about make and let?

Rebecca says My parents didn't make me look after my little brother.
George says They never let you grow up.

Write down one thing your parents let you do when you were five years old and one thing they made you do. What about when you were ten? Compare with other people.

Vocabulary spot

Use sentences from a listening or reading to help you learn words and expressions. For example, it is easier to remember which words are followed by to and -ing if they are in a sentence: I got fed up with reading stories. I try to be nice to them.

Corpus spot to and -ing

Correct these mistakes made by PET students.

- Don't forget write to me.
- I am enjoying to be here on holiday.
- I am looking forward to hear from you soon.
- We decided catch the train back.
- My parents didn't let me to stay in the hotel alone.
- When we finished to eat, I went to my house.
- I would like to met you and your family.
- I am interested in to join this club.

- 5 Read these letters on a problem page in a magazine. Write the correct form of the verb in brackets. Use either to or -ing.

Ask Anna

Dear Anna,

I'm 17 and my sister is 14 and she's really annoying. When my friends come round to my house and we want (a) to go (go) to my room and be on our own, she expects (b) ..... (be) with us and she refuses (c) ..... (go) away when I ask her. She always promises (d) ..... (sit) quietly but she loves (e) ..... (be) the centre of attention. She always spoils everything. Why doesn't she understand that I prefer (f) ..... (be) with my friends without her?

David

Dear Anna,

My brother and I are twins. We always got on very well until we left school last year. We enjoyed (g) ..... (do) the same kinds of things – music, sport, and we had the same friends. But my brother's now at university and lives in a hall of residence and I have continued (h) ..... (live) at home. I really look forward to (i) ..... (see) him at weekends when we arrange (j) ..... (meet). But he often decides (k) ..... (do) something with his new friends and isn't interested in (l) ..... (see) me. What shall I do? I'm not very good at (m) ..... (say) how I feel about things so he probably doesn't know.

Martin

Giving advice

- 1 Read the magazine's answer to one of the problems. Do you agree with it?

Dear Martin,

You should try to have a group of friends of your own so you are busy sometimes too. Why don't you join a sports club and make some new friends or ask some of your old friends to go out with you? You ought to tell your brother how you feel. I'm sure he wants to see you too but you shouldn't expect him to spend all his free time with you. You'd better learn to do things without your brother because you both have your own separate lives now. Good luck.

Anna

- 2 Underline five expressions used to give advice in Anna's letter. Write them here.

Introduction

- 1 2 34 Listen to six different musical instruments and say what they are.

keyboard trumpet drum violin flute guitar a ..... b ..... c ..... d ..... e ..... f .....

- 2 Do you play an instrument? What instrument would you like to play? Do you sing?

- 3 Listen to the different musical instruments again and compare them. You can use the following words:

fast/slow loud/quiet happy, cheerful / sad beautiful boring, dull / exciting, crazy modern/traditional

EXAMPLE: The trumpet was the loudest.

The violin sounded sadder than the drums.

- 4 Which instruments might you hear in a classical concert, a jazz concert and a rock concert? Write the names of the instruments.

- 5 What kind of music do you like listening to? Write the names of different kinds of music here.

- 6 A person who plays a guitar is a guitarist. What do we call people who play the trumpet, the piano, the violin and the drums? Write them in the table below.

-er	-or	-r	-ist guitarist

Add er, or, r or ist to these words to make the names of jobs. Write the jobs in the correct column of the table.

act employ photograph art farm report dance journal teach direct manage dive novel

Vocabulary spot

We often add er, or or r to nouns or verbs to make a word which is a job. Sometimes we add ist. Keep a list of the different jobs you learn. Add these to the jobs you learnt in Unit 3.

Reading

- 1 A TV station has had a competition to find a new band. The three judges had to choose one of the bands below to go into the final. Look at page 131 and quickly read the notes they made when they were watching the bands. Write the name of each band next to their picture.

- 2 Which bands do you think came first, second, third and fourth? You will find out later.

BEST

Patrick McLaurie

Texas Team

The violinist didn't play as loudly as the other musicians so I couldn't tell how good he was – the drums and the guitar were very loud.

Eastside

Their music wasn't as good as their dancing. The guitarist played too loudly and they didn't have a bass guitar or any drums. I couldn't hear the keyboard player.

Third Avenue

The guitarist, Jason, played much better than the other guitarists. He's the best young guitarist I've heard for a long time. The keyboard player was quite good but the drummer needs a lot of practice.

The Storm

The two guitarists sounded very good. The drummer played much more quietly than the other drummers but she did very well.

Texas Team

Mara sang more confidently than the other singers but she wasn't always in tune.

Third Avenue

The singer didn't look very happy. That was a shame because he's got a good voice.

Eastside

The singers didn't sing as well as the singers in the other bands.

The Storm

The singer sang beautifully. The songs were much more traditional than the other songs we heard but they performed them perfectly.

Maurice Moreno

BEST BAND

Texas Team

They danced less professionally than the other bands but they made a lot of effort.

Third Avenue

They didn't dance as well as the other bands.

Eastside

They are excellent dancers, especially Sadie. Every step was perfect.

The Storm

The dancing was quite good.

Clara Howlett

Language focus

Comparison of adverbs

- Read the judges' notes again and answer these questions, choosing one of the bands.
  - Which drummer played loudly? Texas Team
  - Which drummer played badly?
  - Which violinist played more quietly than the others in the band?
  - Which band sang the most beautifully?
  - Which band danced the best?
  - Which band danced the worst?
  - Which band played better than all the others?
- Now look at the judges' notes about Texas Team. Underline the answers to these questions.
  - How did Mara sing?
  - How did Texas Team dance?
  - How did the violinist in Texas Team play?

- Copy the other sentences you have underlined and then write them in two different ways.
  - Texas Team danced less professionally .....
Texas Team didn't .....
The other bands danced .....
  - The violinist in Texas Team didn't play ...

Writing Part 3

- 1 Read the exam question below and discuss what different kinds of story you could write. For example, could it be a story about a visit?

a crime?
a journey?
a party?
a ghost?
a spy?

- Your English teacher has asked you to write a story.
- Your story must begin with this sentence:
It was dark when I entered the house.
- Write your story in about 100 words.

- 2 Work in a group. Think about one kind of story from Exercise 1. Talk about what will happen in your story.
- 3 Write down five words which you need to tell your story. Are there any important words which you need that you don't know? Can you change the story to use words you know? Tell other people what you decide.
- 4 How can you make a story more interesting? Look at this paragraph.

I went into town to buy a CD. There was a man outside the shop. He was worried. He had a piece of paper. He asked my name. I told him. He smiled. He gave me a prize.

- 5 Now look at the paragraph below.

Yesterday, I went into town to buy a CD. A tall man with a long white beard was standing outside the shop. He seemed rather worried and he was looking nervously at a piece of paper. When he saw me, he asked, 'What's your name?' Although I didn't know him, I told him. Suddenly he smiled. 'You've won a prize!' he announced, and gave me a large brown envelope with my name on it.

- a What adjectives has the writer added? Mark them in a colour.
b What adverbs has the writer added? Mark them in a different colour.
c The writer has added the words which the man said. Mark them in a different colour.
d Underline the other changes the writer has made.

Exam Advice

- Don't tell a story which doesn't fit the sentence you are given.
- Don't plan to write a story which needs words you don't know.
- Think about the words you will use.
- Try to make your story interesting by using different kinds of words.

- 6 Choose one of the sentences below to begin a story. Don't write the story, but write some notes, including some useful words.

I found the book on my way home from school.

We took the wrong turning off the main road.

When we arrived at the hotel, the owner looked very worried.

- 7 Work with a partner. Tell your story to your partner.
- 8 Write your story in about 100 words.

Reading Part 3

In this part of the exam, you read a text and decide if ten sentences are correct or incorrect.

- 1 You have to decide if the words in the question mean the same as the words in the text. Complete the words in the expressions on the right so they match the expressions on the left.
a our busiest day      the m_ _ _ people
b reduced              pay l_ _ _ c up to six              m_ _ _ _ _ of six d forbidden            not a_ _ _ _ _ e beyond the park      out_ _ _ _ the park
- 2 The text opposite is about a shopping mall. Look at the sentences (1–10) in Exercise 4. What will you read about in the text?
- 3 Read the text quickly. As you read, underline the parts of the text which contain the answers to the questions.
- 4 Read the question and the part of the text carefully. Is each sentence correct or incorrect?
If it is correct, write A. If it is not correct, write B.

- 1 The park stays open later than the shops every day in summer.
- 2 There are the most people at the mall on Fridays.
- 3 There is an information centre on the same floor as the cinema.
- 4 The nightclubs are next to the swimming pool.
- 5 Students pay less for afternoon performances at the cinema than evening performances.
- 6 The mall has its own hotel.
- 7 The maximum number of people in a boat is six.
- 8 It is forbidden to ride hired bicycles outside the park.
- 9 Each level of a car park has different coloured signs.
- 10 The bus journey from the railway station takes 15 minutes.

Exam Advice

The questions are in the same order as the information in the text. Some parts of the text are not tested.

THE SOUTH LAKES MALL

The South Lakes Mall offers 200 shops, a swimming pool, restaurants, a bowling alley and two nightclubs as well as 30 acres of parkland with three lakes.

Opening hours

Shops	Mon–Fri	10 am–9 pm
	Sat	9 am–8 pm
	Sun	10 am–5 pm

Park	9 am–5 pm in winter
	9 am–8 pm in summer

We have thousands of visitors every day, our busiest day of the week being Friday. To avoid the crowds, come on a Monday or Tuesday.

Inside the mall

When you arrive, go to one of our information offices to get a map. There is one by the main bus stop and another at the bottom of the escalator which goes up to the cinema.

The shops are all on the ground floor and you will find everything from specialised furniture stores to clothes shops and department stores as well as restaurants, a bowling alley and a swimming pool. On the first floor above the pool you will find a 12-screen cinema and two nightclubs. If you wish, you can buy entrance tickets for any of these facilities except the nightclubs from the information centres. Before 5 pm, entrance tickets to all facilities are reduced for students and the over-sixties.

If you wish to stay overnight, the information centres can give you a list of accommodation in the area, ranging from grand hotels to Bed and Breakfast accommodation.

Outside the mall

Make time to visit the 30 acres of parkland which surround the mall. Boats for up to six people can be hired and taken out onto one of the lakes for £12 an hour.

Bicycles can be hired every day for £6 an hour. There are 4 kms of paths but you are not allowed to take hired bicycles beyond the park.

Travel

The mall is located one mile from the M49. Just follow the signs from Junction 13. There is free parking for 10,000 cars and there are six car parks. Car parking spaces are never more than five minutes' walk away from an entrance. Remember where your car is parked by looking at the coloured signs – no car park uses the same colour and each level in the car parks is numbered.

It is just as easy to visit the mall by train. There is a rail service every 15 minutes from Central London. When you reach Barnwell station, jump on a number 19 bus to the mall. It's a five-minute journey and there's a bus every 15 minutes.

Introduction

- 1 Look at the photographs. Discuss what you think they could be. Which ones show real things? Which ones show tricks, in your opinion?

Use words like these:

It could be ...

It might be ...

It can't be ...

It must be ...

I think someone made it.

I don't think it's real.

It's a trick photograph / a computer-generated picture.

- 2 Have you ever seen anything strange like this?
 Do you know anyone who has?
 Why do you think science fiction and UFO stories are so popular?

What did they say?!?

Mac Brazel had a farm in New Mexico, USA. One day in 1947, he found some strange silvery pieces of material in a field. Not far away a man called Grady Barnett found a large disc-shaped object which had crashed to the ground. They also found some bodies. Barnett and Brazel said that the bodies looked like humans but they were not humans. The US army has a base at Roswell near Brazel's farm. Soldiers arrived at the farm. They ordered everyone to go away. They collected everything the people had seen. Later they announced that a weather balloon had crashed there. They showed journalists some material. They said it was part of a weather balloon. Mac Brazel said that he had seen a different kind of material. He told the journalists that he would never believe the soldiers.

In early 1958, the Brazilian ship Almirante Saldanha was in the South Atlantic near Trinidad Island. Many of the crew said that on 16th January they had seen a strange UFO above the island. They said that it had had a ring around it like the planet Saturn. Although it moved away very quickly, a photographer on the ship had time to take a picture of it.

Canadian Stephan Michalak described what happened to him in 1967. He said he had gone to search for gold in a lake. Suddenly he saw two UFOs in the sky. He told people one of them had landed near him and he explained that he had approached it. Although it was very hot, he touched it. His shirt caught fire. Three weeks later he said he was still feeling ill, with strange burns on his chest and stomach.

- 4 Look at this report from the magazine. Write the sentences which report what people said on the right and the words they actually said on the left, as in the example below. Then underline the differences.

Franck Fontaine told a lot of people that aliens had kidnapped him. Two of his friends said that on 6th November 1979, at Cergy-Pontoise in France, they had seen a light all round Franck's car and then Franck had disappeared. Franck said aliens had taken him to their spacecraft and he had woken up a week later in the middle of a field. He said the aliens would return in August 1980 and he was meeting them in the field. Two hundred people said they believed him and went to meet the aliens but they did not arrive.

EXAMPLE:

Aliens kidnapped me.

Franck Fontaine told a lot of people that aliens had kidnapped him.

For Writing (Parts 1 and 2)

Write your answers clearly in the spaces provided

Part 1: Write your answers below.

1		1	1	0
2		1	2	0
3		1	3	0
4		1	4	0
5		1	5	0

Part 2: (Question 6) Write your answers below.

Put your answer to writing part 3 on Answer sheet 2 →

DO NOT WRITE BELOW (Examiner use only)

1	2	3	4	5

144) Explanations of news stories (see pages 143 and 144)

1 Many years later, one of the soldiers told journalists that the army had deceived people. Some people now say that scientists were testing secret materials.

2 There has been no explanation. Perhaps it was a trick of the light. Perhaps it was an alien spacecraft.

3 Perhaps he was telling the truth! Some psychologists think that people remember dreams about UFOs and think they are real.

4 Later, a friend of Franck's said he knew that it had been a joke.

Introduction

- 1 We can't choose our family but we can choose our friends. Look at the following list. Which of these are important to you? Mark this list 1–10 (1 is the most important, 10 is the least important).

A best friend should ...

- be honest.
- be fun to be with.
- like the same music as me.
- like my other friends.
- live near me.
- have lots of money.
- share my sense of humour.
- be kind when I'm unhappy.
- support the same football team as me.
- like doing the same things as me.

- 2 Work in a group. Compare your answers. What did most people put first, second and third? What wasn't important?
- 3 Can your group think of other things you would like to add to the list?

- 4 Look at the photographs of people on this page. Which person would you like to make friends with? Think about why.

Vocabulary spot

We use some words in several different expressions. To help you learn them, write the expressions with the same word like this.

Corpus spot

Meet and make

Here are some sentences by PET students which contain one wrong verb. Use the correct form of meet or make to correct them.

- a In the first lesson I knew a girl from Valencia and now she's my best friend.
- b I did many new friends but I missed my old ones.
- c The film begins at seven, so join me at ten to seven outside the cinema.

Listening

- 1 3.09 Listen to three conversations between people who have just met. Look at these questions and choose pair 1, pair 2 or pair 3. Put a tick (✓) in the correct box.

Which pair do you think:	1	2	3 will probably become friends?
might become friends?
won't get on with each other?

- 2 Listen again. Decide if these statements are true or false.

Pair 1 (Monica and Alex)

- a Alex has been to parties at the college before. true
- b Monica and Alex agree about the music at the party.
- c Alex apologises for what he says about the people at the party.
- d In the end, Monica gets tired of talking to Alex.

Pair 2 (Francis and Neil)

- e Francis finds the work in the restaurant easier than on the building site.
- f Francis and Neil have similar interests to the other waiters.
- g Francis and Neil support the same football team.
- h Francis and Neil arrange to go to the match together.

Pair 3 (Carla and Kate)

- i Peter told Carla about Kate's flat.
- j There will be three people living in the flat.
- k Carla plays more than one musical instrument.
- l Kate and Carla agree that they are both untidy.

- 3 How does Peter introduce Kate to Carla? Fill the gaps.

Peter: Carla, ..... Kate. Kate, ..... Carla.

Carla: Hi, Kate.

Here is another way of introducing someone:

Peter: Carla, I'd like to introduce you to Kate.

Carla: Pleased to meet you.

Which way of introducing someone is more formal?

«Activity» Relative clauses

Work in a group. Your teacher will give your group a list of nouns which all begin with the same letter. Write a definition for each of the nouns and then pass them to another group. Do not write the nouns. The other group will guess the nouns and decide which letter they all begin with.

EXAMPLE: [artist] someone who paints pictures
 [airport] a place where you catch a plane
 [apple] something which is red or green and grows on trees

Adjectives + prepositions

- 1 Match the beginnings and endings of these sentences from the conversations you heard earlier. Which preposition (e.g. of, from, about) follows which word?

EXAMPLE: It's kind of Samantha to ask me.

a It's kind	of interesting people.
b I'll never get tired	from the job I had last summer.
c I'm not very keen	of people I don't know.
d This room is full	of listening to it.
e I'm nervous	about the match.
f It's very different	of Samantha to ask me.
g They aren't really interested	at it.
h I'm quite excited	with me.
i I'm quite good	on the music.
j My parents are always getting angry	in the same kind of things as students.

- 2 Write three sentences using the words in the table.

EXAMPLE: I'm not keen on going to classical concerts.
My mum gets tired of tidying everyone's rooms.

I		keen
My best friend		tired	on
My parents		nervous	of
Some of my friends		bad	at
Young children	am/is/are (not)	excited	about .....
Men	get(s)	good	in
Women		angry	with
My teacher		afraid
My mum		interested fed up

- 3 Write three questions using the words in the table and ask your partner.

Do you get ...? Have you ever got ...? Are you ...?

GF page 212

«Activity» Friendship

- 1 Read these quotations from a website. Do you agree with them?
 2 Write your own quotation: A real friend is someone who ...

The Friendship Page

'Everyone is a friend until they prove they aren't.'

'A true friend is someone who you can trust with your secrets.'

'The secret to friendship is being good at listening.'

'Best friends of the same sex are better than best friends of the opposite sex.'

'One true friend is better than 100 relatives.'

'A real friend is someone who will tell you when you have spinach stuck in your teeth.'

«Pronunciation»

- 1 Look at the expressions below. When do we join a word to the word which follows when we speak?

kind of you full of people nervous of people tired of school
 good at football bad at history
 fed up with school
 keen on music
 interested in people

- 2 3 10 Listen and repeat the expressions above.
 3 Now look at these sentences. Mark all the words which you will join when you say the sentences.

- a It's kind of Samantha.
 b This room is full of interesting people.
 c I'm quite good at it.
 d She's bad at playing the guitar.
 e I'm not very keen on this kind of music.
 f I'll never get tired of this song.
 g I'm not interested in talking.

- 4 3 11 Listen and repeat.

Reading Part 1

In this part of the exam, you look at five short texts. There are three possible explanations – A, B or C. You have to decide which one says the same as the text.

CHECK!

- a What kind of texts will you read?
- b What kinds of words are sometimes missing from signs?
- c What should you do if you don't know the answer?

Exam Advice

Check that the answer you choose means exactly the same as the text.

Look at the text in each question.

What does it say?

Mark the letter A, B or C next to the correct explanation.

1

OFFER AVAILABLE ONE WEEK ONLY FROM TODAY

- A You can get three books at half their normal price after today.
- B You only get a discount this week when you buy two books.
- C You don't pay for one book if you buy two others as well today.

2

Jan
If Peter rings, tell him I have posted the book to him because I didn't have time to go to his house. Michael

- A Jan should tell Peter to bring the book back.
- B Michael has gone to Peter's house.
- C Peter will receive the book in the post.

Carlos
We have to be at college by 9 tomorrow instead of 9.15. I'll pick you up by the crossroads as usual, but at 8.30. Jack

Jack is asking Carlos to

- A meet him earlier than usual.
- B take him to college by car.
- C see him in a different place from usual.

4

MAKE SURE THIS DOOR IS SHUT
WHEN YOU LEAVE THE BUILDING

- A Use another exit when this door is shut.
- B Do not leave this door open when you go out.
- C This door is the only exit from this building.

Dear Mariana,
The hotel is wonderful -
just as you described it.
Thank you for recommending it. We've already booked for next year! Karin

- A Mariana has visited the hotel Karin is staying in.
- B Karin has stayed in the hotel before.
- C Karin and Mariana are going to the hotel together next year.

Corpus spot

Stay and live

You live where your home is.
You stay somewhere for a short time.

Look at these sentences written by PET students. Tick (✓) the sentences where live is correct. Correct the sentences which are wrong.

- a My new friend lives near my house.
- b At the moment they are living in a wonderful hotel.
- c My family used to live in a small village.
- d We lived in the city for one week.
- e We lived in a nice cottage in the forest on our holiday.

Speaking Part 2

- 1 You are going to spend the day in the city centre with another student. You will travel there by bus. Look at these pictures. They show the things you want to do.

In this part of the exam, you are given some pictures. You work in pairs and try to arrive at a decision together about a situation which the examiner describes to you.

- 2 Think about these questions.

- What do you want to buy?
- Which shops will you visit?
- Are any of the things you need to buy heavy?
- When will you go to the bank?
- When will you go to the café?

- 3 Write down different ways of:

- making suggestions
- agreeing and disagreeing
- giving your opinion

(Look back at Exam folder 9 to check.)

- 4 Work with a partner and talk about where you need to go and in which order. You have three minutes to agree.

Exam Advice

Try to agree with your partner but don't worry if you don't.

Introduction

- 1 Look at the pictures of inventions. Can you guess what they are used for?
- 2 3 12 Listen to someone talking about two of the inventions. Which ones are they? What are they used for? Were you right?
- 3 Work with a partner to write a description of one of the inventions (or another one you can think of) and read it out to the class. Use the language in the box to help you. Can other students guess what it is?

It's round/square. It's a kind of ... It's like a ...
 It's used for ...ing. It's made of ... It must be ... It can't be ...
 It might be ... It could be ...

- 4 Which of these inventions have been successful?
- 5 Which invention from the last hundred years is the most important in your life?

Reading

- 1 Read the first paragraph of a text opposite. What is it about?
- 2 Now read the first paragraphs of two other texts below. What inventions are they about?

Charles D. Seeberger's invention

Moving chains were used by people in ancient Egypt to transport water in and out of the fields. But it wasn't until the 1890s that moving stairs were invented by Charles D. Seeberger. His stairs could transport people.

- 3 Each text has three more paragraphs but they are mixed up. Work in three groups: Ben and Jerry, Charles D. Seeberger or Hubert Cecil Booth. Find the paragraphs which finish your text and put them in the correct order.

a The station hired a man who had a wooden leg to demonstrate how easy it was to use the escalator. Some people went up and down several times before going to catch their train just because they enjoyed the experience. After that, escalators were put in shops and other public buildings.

b Because of this, local restaurants and shops asked them to make ice cream and deliver it. A year after the parlour opened, a special day was held. As a thank you to customers, they weren't charged for their ice cream cones on that day.

c People complained about the number of stairs they had to climb up and down so the first escalator was opened in London in an underground station on 4 October 1911. Notices were displayed at the top and bottom of the escalator: 'Please do not sit on the moving stairs. Step off with the left foot first.'

d He had a better idea. He was in a restaurant one day and he decided to demonstrate. He placed a handkerchief over the back of his seat, put his lips to it and the dirt was sucked into the handkerchief. A ring of black spots appeared on the handkerchief.

e Now a worldwide business, the company produces new flavours all the time. Each flavour is tested for at least six months before it is sold in shops. Sometimes the company holds competitions and asks for suggestions. About 275,000 tourists visit the factory each year.

f It was so noisy that it frightened horses in the streets. After a while, rich people had their houses cleaned by the machine and the King and Queen invited Booth to Buckingham Palace to demonstrate it.

Ben and Jerry's invention

Ben and Jerry's famous products are sold in a range of delicious flavours with unusual names such as Rainforest Crunch and Peanut Butter Cup. Two childhood friends, Ben Cohen and Jerry Greenfield, started the company. They had the idea of working together when they were at school and The Homemade Ice Cream Parlour was opened by Ben and Jerry in May 1978.

Hubert Cecil Booth's invention

One day Hubert Cecil Booth went to see an inventor demonstrate his new dust-removing machine at a London railway station. A huge air blower was placed over the open door of a train. The idea was to blow dirt into a bag which was put over another door. A lot of dust was pushed up into the air but then came down again inside the train instead of inside the bag. Booth didn't think it was a very good idea.

g They made the ice cream themselves and each flavour was given a crazy name. People could listen to live music while they ate ice cream and the parlour became very popular.

h He was sure this was the answer so a machine was built. The first model was named 'The Puffing Billy' and a whole team of men was needed to operate it. One man worked the machine while another man guided a long hose inside offices or houses to clean them.

i The first escalators were built in shops and railway stations in the USA at the end of the nineteenth century. More and more people were using the underground trains in Britain especially after clean electric trains replaced dirty steam trains in 1906.

- 4 Check with other people who read the same text. Do you have the same order? Underline new vocabulary.
- 5 Tell the rest of the class what order you decided on and what your text is about. Then read the other two texts to check which order they are in.
- 6 Each of these words is connected with one invention. Put them under the correct heading.

dust a flavour a public building to transport to clean a cone a machine a factory moving stairs dirt a spot a handkerchief an underground station a customer to step on/off a product

ice cream	escalator	vacuum cleaner

Language focus

Past passive

- Underline the verb in this sentence. What tense is it?
Ben and Jerry's famous products are sold in a range of delicious flavours.
Look again at the first paragraph of the Ben and Jerry text on page 155. Find a verb in the past passive and underline it.
- Look at the two texts in Exercise 2 on page 155 again and underline five verbs in the past passive. Check with a partner. Did you underline the same verbs? How many verbs can you find in the passive in the rest of the texts on page 155?

Grammar spot

Passive (past simple)

was/were + past participle

Write the passive verbs in the sentences below.

- + The vacuum cleaner ..... by Hubert Cecil Booth.

- I have to do / make some exercises.
- Before we have dinner we'll do / make some shopping.

«Activity» Past passive

- 1 Work in a group. Your teacher will give you a list of inventions. Decide when they were invented and where. Make guesses.
- 2 When you have finished, you ask the other group six questions. They have the answers. Choose the things you are most unsure of so you can make as many true sentences as possible.

Future passive

- 1 Read what someone predicts about the future and underline the verbs in the future passive.

I think a special car will be invented which will be driven by a computer so a human driver won't be needed. It will be made of plastic and it will be programmed to go on the road or fly through the air. A fee will be paid by car owners at the end of the year to the government. They will be charged according to how many kilometres they have travelled by air and on the road.

«Activity» Describing objects

- 1 What is this everyday thing?
They are used all over the world, in both hot and cold countries. Today they are made of material and metal or plastic. They can be used instead of a coat to keep you dry. They can be folded up and put in a bag or pocket when they are not needed.
- 2 Work in a group. Write a description of an object to read to the class. Try to answer these questions in your description:
What is it made of? What is it used for? What does it look like?
- 3 Read your description. Other students may interrupt if they can guess what it is. Can you get to the end of your description before they guess?

Writing Part 3

1 Can you match the halves of these sentences? Underline the words which help you.

- |                                 |                                   |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| a I really like that band       | 1 I don't own many CDs.           |
| b I was listening to music      | 2 but I don't play an instrument. |
| c While I was watching the band | 3 when I fell asleep.             |
| d Although I like music         | 4 because I don't like it.        |
| e The music was so loud         | 5 but now I prefer rock music.    |
| f I used to like folk music     | 6 that we couldn't talk.          |
| g I enjoy listening to music    | 7 my phone was stolen.            |
| h You can have this CD          | 8 so get me a ticket too.         |

2 Read the beginning of a letter which Alessia wrote to her English friend, Sophie. Can you join any of the sentences? Use some of the words you underlined in Exercise 1.

Dear Sophie,

I went to a concert last week. My friend bought the tickets. She couldn't go. She was ill. My brother came instead. The band was good. I didn't want the music to stop. My brother doesn't like listening to their CDs. He enjoyed the concert. The concert finished at 11 o'clock. We went backstage to meet the band.

3 Look at the words in the box and put each one under the most suitable heading.

awful enjoyable enormous excellent exciting extraordinary fantastic great hopeless large strange terrible tiny unexpected useless well-known wonderful

good	bad	big	small	unusual	famous

4 Read the next part of Alessia's letter. Use some of the words from Exercise 3 to replace the words which are underlined.

It took a long time to get out of the hall because there was such a big crowd. We saw a famous actor and his girlfriend. She was wearing unusual clothes. She looks good, but my brother says she's a bad actress. We had a good evening. See you soon.
Love, Alessia

5 Imagine you went to a concert last week. Write a letter to an English friend and tell him/her who you went with, who was playing and what you thought of the concert. Write about 100 words.

Reading Part 3

In this part of the exam, you read a text and decide if ten sentences are correct or incorrect.

CHECK!

Read these sentences about Reading Part 3.

If a sentence is correct, write A. If it is incorrect, write B.

- a The instructions tell you what the text is about.
- b The sentences are in the same order as the information in the text.
- c You need to understand every word in the text to answer the questions.

Look at the sentences below about a supermarket called Sainsbury's.

Read the text on the opposite page to decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect.

If it is correct, write A.

If it is incorrect, write B.

- 1 When the first Sainsbury's shop opened, it sold meat as well as milk, butter and eggs.
- 2 Shoppers paid more at Sainsbury's shop because of the quality of the food.
- 3 Sainsbury's second shop was in central London.
- 4 In the nineteenth century, some Sainsbury's shops were open until 2 am.
- 5 After 1900, some of the food sold came from other countries.
- 6 In 1900, people spent more of their income on food than they do now.
- 7 In the 1920s, Sainsbury's gave shoppers more choice than other shops.
- 8 It was possible to have your food delivered by Sainsbury's in the 1970s.
- 9 English people enjoyed self-service shopping when it was first introduced.
- 10 It took more than 30 years for every Sainsbury's shop to become self-service.

Exam Advice

Don't spend too long reading the text. Read it quickly and find the parts of the text which answer the questions.

SAINSBURY'S SUPERMARKETS

One of the most successful supermarkets in Britain is Sainsbury's. The first shop was opened nearly 150 years ago. In 1869, John James Sainsbury and his wife, Mary Ann, opened a small shop selling fresh milk, butter and eggs in Drury Lane, London. Other products like meat and vegetables weren't introduced until later. The shop became well known because, in spite of the food being of higher quality than at other shops, the prices were not higher. The business was so successful that by 1882, John James Sainsbury had opened three more shops in London, followed by a shop just outside London in Croydon.

Working conditions in nineteenth-century shops would seem hard to us but Sainsbury's workers were well looked after. In return, they had to work long hours. In fact, Saturday evening was often the busiest time. After closing, the shop had to be cleaned and tidied and it could be after 2 am before the workers were able to leave.

By 1900, Sainsbury's was importing food from abroad. People have always complained about how much they have to pay for their food, but it is worth noticing that food is much cheaper now, compared to average wages, than it was in 1900.

By the 1920s, the design of many of the shops had changed and a typical Sainsbury's shop had six departments offering a much wider range of products than other food shops. Each shop offered home delivery throughout the surrounding area, an important service in the days before most people had cars. This service came to an end during the 1960s as people had their own transport but has come into fashion again with the twenty-first century since people started ordering their food on the internet and having it delivered.

By 1939, there were 244 shops around the country and everything sold was stored in London before being delivered to each shop around the country. This system didn't change until the 1960s.

The first self-service shop opened in June 1950 in Croydon. The long counters, long queues and chairs for customers were replaced with checkouts. It was expected that people would miss what they were used to but there was no need to worry because people welcomed the change. However, it was nearly thirty years before all Sainsbury's traditional shops had been replaced with modern supermarkets.

In 1974, Sainsbury's first out-of-town supermarket opened on the edge of Cambridge and today most towns in Britain have a Sainsbury's nearby, some having one just outside the town and one in the town centre.

Unless

➡ Grammar spot

Unless

Unless = if not

Write the verb in the 'unless' sentence so it means the same as the 'if' sentence.

If Robert doesn't go to his granny's house, he will be at home.
Unless Robert ..... to his granny's house, he will be at home.

1 Rewrite these sentences using unless.

- a If the meeting isn't cancelled, Robert's parents will be away. Unless the meeting is cancelled, ...
- b If Carolina doesn't tell Robert about the party, it will be a surprise.
- c Robert will enjoy the party if the boys don't ask too many people.
- d If the boys don't organise a party for Robert, he won't have one.
- e Robert's parents won't know about the party if Carolina doesn't tell them.

2 Finish the sentences with if or unless and an ending from the box.

EXAMPLE: You'll miss the bus unless you leave now.

- a You'll miss the bus
- b I can come shopping with you
- c I won't tell anyone
- d I won't pass my exam
- e The letter will get there tomorrow

+ if or
unless

you post it by five o'clock. you help me with my revision. you leave now. you tell me the secret. you lend me some money.

If and when

Grammar spot If and when

1 Look at these two sentences.

A When Robert's parents come home, they'll take him out for a meal.

B If Robert's parents are at home, there won't be a party.

In which sentence does the speaker know something definite about Robert's parents? A/B

In which sentence is the speaker not sure about where Robert's parents are? A/B

2 Sometimes you can use if or when in the same sentence but the meaning changes. Look at these two sentences.

A If Robert answers the door, he'll be surprised.

B When Robert answers the door, he'll be surprised.

In which sentence will Robert definitely answer the door (the speaker is sure)? A/B

In which sentence will Robert possibly answer the door (the speaker isn't sure)? A/B Choose if or when. In two of the sentences you can use either. What is the difference in meaning?

- Everyone will be hungry if/when we arrive late, so we'd better hurry!
- I'll eat that sandwich if/when you don't want it.
- I'll go to university if/when I pass this exam.
- If/When those shoes are still in the shop, I'll buy them.
- If/When we get to the town centre, we'll ask for directions to the theatre.
- I'll record the football match for you if/when I get home in time.
- I'll learn to drive if/when I'm seventeen.
- If/When I buy a new computer, I'll give you my old one.
- I'll be very disappointed if/when there are no tickets left.

Work in a group. What happened next in the photo story on page 169? Write a fourth conversation and act it out.

Pronunciation

- 3 18 Listen to this conversation and underline the words (or parts of words) which are stressed.

Joanna: What's the time?

Michael: Five to nine.

Joanna: Oh dear.

Michael: What's the problem?

Joanna: It doesn't matter.

Michael: Tell me.

Joanna: I'm late for college. Can you give me a lift?

Michael: Of course I can.

Joanna: Thank you.

Michael: You're welcome.

- Listen again and then practise the conversation.

Speaking Part 1

In this part of the exam, the examiner talks to each student and asks a few questions. The students say a number and also spell a word for the examiner.

CHECK!

- a How many people are in the room for the speaking test?
- In Part 1:
- b Who do you speak to?
- c What subjects will the examiner probably ask you about?
- d What can you say if you don't understand?
- e How long does this part last?

1 Spell your name when your teacher asks you.

2 Think about your answers to these questions.

Where do you come from?

Do you work or are you a student?

What subjects do you study? / What job do you do?

Do you enjoy studying English? Why (not)?

Do you think that English will be useful for you in the future?

What did you do last weekend?

What do you enjoy doing in your free time?

3 Ask your partner the questions in Exercise 2 and listen to his/her answers. Then your partner asks you the questions. Can you make any suggestions to improve each other's answers?

Exam Advice

Don't answer the examiner's questions with just yes or no.

Speaking Part 2

In this part of the exam, you are given some pictures. You work in pairs and try to arrive at a decision together about a situation which the examiner describes to you.

CHECK!

- a What will the examiner give you?
- b Who will you talk to?
- c What can you say if you don't understand?
- d How long do you and your partner need to talk?
- e What will happen if you can't think of anything to say?

1 A small town is planning to improve its facilities for young people. Look at the pictures of different suggestions on page 201. Think about which of the places you use or would like to use.

2 Decide which facility you think is the most important for young people. Which is the next most important? Put them in order.

3 Look at each place and think about these questions.
How expensive is it to build?
How many young people would use it?
How expensive is it to spend time there?

4 Work with a partner. You are going to decide how the town should spend its money. Talk about the different suggestions and decide which are the most important.

Look at Exam folder 9 to remind you of useful expressions.

In this part of the exam, you read five descriptions of people. For each one, you choose one text to match it.

CHECK!

- a How many questions are there?
- b How many texts are there?
- c How many texts are not used?
- d Can the same text be the answer to two questions?
- e What should you do after you have read the questions?
- f What should you check before you choose an answer?

The people below all want to travel in Europe.
On the opposite page there are eight advertisements.
Decide which advertisement would be the most suitable for each person.
For questions 1–5, write the correct letter (A–H).

- 1  Cassie spent some time last summer travelling around Europe by bus and train. Next month she wants to visit a friend she met in Italy but she can't afford the fare.
- 2  Andy wants to travel alone around Europe for two months in the summer making his own decisions about how long he spends in each place.
- 3  Rachel wants to travel in Europe but she has very little money. She is free for nine months before she goes to university.
- 4  The Roberts family want to see as much as possible in Europe but have only two weeks. They want someone else to make all the hotel and travel arrangements for them.
- 5  The Graham family want to spend their holiday in the countryside, away from crowds and traffic. They would like to get some exercise while they are away.

Reading

- 1 Read this web page about jobs you can have working with celebrities. Match paragraphs A–F with the jobs. If you don't know what all the jobs are, try to guess while you are reading. Don't worry about any words you don't understand.

A ..... B ..... C ..... D ..... E ..... F .....

www.mychat.com

Do you fancy being a star but know you never will be? Then working for a star could be the job for you. With plenty of cash and no journalists looking through your rubbish bins, it could be perfect. Here are just some of the jobs you could choose.

personal trainer fashion designer bodyguard celebrity chef stylist personal assistant

Stars take a lot of interest in what they eat so what do they do when they feel hungry but don't want to get their hands dirty? Employ me, of course. I have to be very good at my job because I'm responsible for preparing meals not just for my boss but for all his famous friends. Would you like my job? Yes? In that case you should get good qualifications and then work in one of the best restaurants for at least a couple of years. And of course your own TV show will help too.

Who do you think makes those stars look 100% perfect? It doesn't just happen by accident. It's my job to make sure my celebrity looks wonderful at all times. Imagine if you had someone to shop and choose clothes for you! You too would look like a star all the time. The best thing about my job is that I go everywhere with my boss because famous people can't afford to make any mistakes in public, can they? I'm with her nearly all the time, whether she's at home or on holiday.

At present I have celebrities knocking at my door because they like my clothes. And if I'm lucky they invite me to events where everyone can see the clothes I've designed. I have to keep my ideas up-to-date because no star wants to be seen in something that looks old-fashioned. Of course, in the end if they decide they don't like my clothes any more, I'll be famous one day and unknown the next.

I get the chance to experience the life of the rich and famous without actually being famous myself. I take phone calls and look at all the fan mail, plan parties and do all the jobs the star doesn't want to do. I travel first class with the star, make sure she arrives everywhere on time and meet lots of famous people. I have to stay very calm and not mind being shouted at even when I've done nothing wrong. In my job you can earn lots of money like a star but I'm never on the front page of the newspaper just because I've got a new boyfriend.

I'm essential to a star who wants to look good. I'm the only person who tells a celebrity what to do and they listen to me. I watch and shout instructions while they cycle, run and lift weights. There's also a chance of someone famous falling in love with me – it has happened before.

My job is to make sure the boss is never in danger and I need to be strong, both physically and mentally, to do that. I have to see problems in advance before they happen and, if there is any trouble, I have to be there at once. I'm closer to the star than anyone. And I have to do what she does and keep her in sight all the time. So don't forget that if the boss wants to spend every night dancing in a nightclub, I'll be there too. In fact I sometimes spend 24 hours at work without a break.

- 2 Work in a group. Read the web page again and think about the answers to these questions. Underline any words you don't know and talk about them in your group.

So do I and neither/nor do I

- 1 Try to remember what the people said in conversations 1 and 2 and fill the spaces.

Conversation 1

Alison: So, let's go and eat. I'm hungry.
Daniel: So (a) am I ..... . Where shall we go?
Alison: There are plenty of restaurants round here. Do you like Mexican food? Or what about Thai?
Beata: Can you tell me what Thai food tastes like? I've never tried it.
Daniel: No, nor (b) ..... .
Alison: Well, I love it. It's quite spicy.
Beata: Oh, is it? I'm not very keen on hot spices.
Daniel: No, neither (c) ..... .
Alison: OK. Er, so not Thai or Mexican. There's a good Italian restaurant further up the road.
Daniel: Oh, I love Italian food.
Beata: Really? So (d) ..... .
Alison: Right, let's go there then.

Conversation 2

Graham: Good evening. Table for two?
Greta: For three, please. We're meeting a friend.
Graham: Certainly. Inside or outside?
Greta: I don't like sitting outside.
Brigitte: Neither (e) ..... , so inside, please.
Graham: Thank you. There's a table just there, near the window.
Brigitte: That'll be all right.
Greta: Yes, it's fine.
Graham: Would you like to order any drinks before your friend arrives?
Brigitte: Er, yes. I'm really thirsty. I can't wait.
Greta: Neither (f) ..... .
Brigitte: I'd like an orange juice, please.
Tina: Hi! Sorry I'm late. I got lost.
Brigitte: So (g) ..... . It's hard to find, isn't it? Never mind. Come and sit down. We're just getting some drinks.
Tina: I'll have a mineral water, I think.
Greta: So (h) ..... .
Graham: Still or sparkling?
Tina: Still, please.
Graham: Thank you. I'll bring the menu in a moment.
Greta: Thank you.

- 2 Listen again and check your answers.

Activity Agreeing and disagreeing

Your teacher will give you a card. Tell other people what you think about the subject on your card. Respond to what they say about theirs. If you and another student both agree with each other's statements, swap cards and talk to someone new. Say things like these:

- I love spicy food.*      So do I.      or      Really? I don't!
- I'm not afraid of spiders.*      Nor am I.      or      Really? I am!
- I've got a motorbike.*      So have I.      or      Really? I haven't!

Polite question forms

- 1 Look at conversations 3, 4 and 5 and listen to them again. Underline what is different from what you hear.

Conversation 3

Bob: Now, what are we going to have?

Carl: What do you recommend?

Bob: They do home-made soup, that's usually very nice. And there's always a hot dish.

Carl: Oh, yeah. I see. 'Today's special', it says on the board. What is that?

Bob: It says underneath, look. Lancashire Hotpot.

Carl: It sounds a bit funny. Has it got meat in it?

Bob: It's made of lamb with potatoes and onions, cooked for a long time. A traditional dish from the north of England. Very good on a cold day like today.

Carl: Oh, right. I'm a vegetarian, so I won't have that.

Bob: OK. We'll ask for a menu. Would you like a starter?

Carl: No, thanks. I'll just have a main course. I don't want to fall asleep this afternoon.

Bob: No, neither do I. OK, now, where's the waiter?

Conversation 4

Gary: Yes?

Tammy: One burger, one milkshake, one veggieburger and one cappuccino, please.

Gary: What flavour milkshake?

Tammy: Oh, sorry. Rosie, what flavour milkshake does your friend want?

Rosie: Oh, she didn't say.

Tammy: Oh, typical.

Rosie: What flavours have you got?

Gary: Chocolate, strawberry, banana and vanilla.

Rosie: She'd like strawberry, I think.

Gary: OK. Now do you want to eat in or take away?

Tammy: Take away. Oh, and one portion of chips.

Gary: OK. That's thirteen pounds twenty.

Tammy: Here you are.

Gary: Enjoy your meal.

Rosie: Thank you.

Conversation 5

Nigel: Excuse me!

Marco: Yes? Can I help you?

Nigel: I hope so. You see, we ordered a tuna salad and a baked potato with cheese fifteen minutes ago! Is there a problem?

Marco: I'm sorry, we are very busy, as you see.

Nigel: But we said we were in a hurry and the waitress promised to be quick.

Laura: Are we going to get our food soon? We have to catch a train at one fifty-five.

Marco: OK. What did your waitress look like?

Nigel: Oh, here she comes now.

Anna: I'm ever so sorry. Someone else took your order by mistake.

Nigel: All right. Thank you. Now we can eat.

Laura: This potato isn't properly cooked. Part of it is almost raw!

Nigel: Oh, no. Well, that's it. I'm going to see the manager.

Reading Part 4

In this part of the exam, you read a text and answer five questions about it by choosing A, B, C or D.

CHECK!

- a Do all the questions ask about one part of the text?
- b Do you need to read all of the text carefully?

Read the text and questions below.

For each question, circle the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D.

I've read and heard so many good reports of the Thai restaurant The Golden Spoon that I decided to try it myself. The menu appeared to be all in Thai but then we noticed the English translations. When the waitress realised it was our first visit, she came across as she knew it would take us a long time to choose. In the end we ordered what she recommended because we didn't know where to start – there was so much choice. Because it was early on a Monday evening (they are open from midday to midnight without a day off), it wasn't too busy but it got busier later and in fact they recommend that you book, even on Mondays.

The Golden Spoon offers a wide range of extremely tasty food, mostly quite spicy, but that was fine with me. Even the vegetarian among us had plenty of choice. Everything was cooked quickly and perfectly. The first course looked rather small, but there were six more courses to follow and we couldn't finish all of them.

The entrance to the restaurant is rather dark and the inside isn't much better. The Thai family who run it (the father and grandfather do all the cooking) have been there since 1975 and haven't really changed it since then. There are some Thai paintings on the wall which are probably rather beautiful but they are very dusty so it's difficult to tell. But none of that is important because I didn't go there to look at the walls. What I did look at was our meal being prepared in the kitchen, which is in one corner of the restaurant, and that was a wonderful sight. The meal cost more than I had expected but was worth it.

- 1 What is the writer trying to do?
  - A suggest changes a restaurant could make
  - B recommend the food in a restaurant
  - C describe what he ate in a restaurant
  - D complain about the service in a restaurant
- 2 What does the writer say about the waitress?
  - A It was impossible for her to serve so many customers.
  - B It was difficult to choose from the menu without her help.
  - C She translated the menu from Thai for them.
  - D She took a long time to take their order.
- 3 What did the writer think of the food?
  - A It was too spicy for him.
  - B There weren't enough vegetarian dishes.
  - C There was too much of it.
  - D It was not cooked properly.
- 4 What did the writer particularly like about the restaurant?
  - A the paintings on the walls
  - B the entrance
  - C the prices
  - D the position of the kitchen

5 Which of the following is an advertisement for the restaurant?

A

THE GOLDEN SPOON

Run by the same Thai family for more than 25 years.

Recommended in local guidebooks.

Booking advised. Open 12–12 every day.

C

THE GOLDEN SPOON

Open every day except Monday from 12–12.

Speaking Part 3

In this part of the exam, you and your partner are each given a photograph of a similar topic. You take turns to tell the examiner about your photograph.

1 Look at page 204. Work with a partner. Choose one photograph each.

Before you talk to your partner, think about what you will say.

What kind of restaurant is it?

What are the people doing?

What are they wearing?

Are the people enjoying themselves?

What else can you see?

2 Describe your photograph to your partner.

Exam Advice

Describe the people, what they are doing and the place.

Speaking Part 4

In this part of the exam, you and your partner have a discussion about the topic of the photographs in Part 3.

1 Work with a partner. Can you remember ways of giving your opinion?

Can you remember ways of agreeing and disagreeing?

2 Discuss these questions with your partner.

Which of the restaurants in Speaking Part 3 would you like to eat in?

Do you often go to restaurants?

What kind of restaurant is your favourite?

Do you prefer to sit down to a three-course meal or eat fast food?

Revision of tenses

- Here are two diaries. Work in pairs. Student A reads Monday from Jake's diary (A) and Student B reads Monday from Lucy's diary (F). Choose the correct verbs. Compare your answers to these questions.

What does Jake think about Lucy?

What does Lucy think about Jake?

- Student A: Read what Jake wrote in his diary on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. They are in the wrong order. Put them in order and write the day at the top. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct form.

Student B: Read what Lucy wrote in her diary on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. They are in the wrong order. Put them in order and write the day at the top. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct form.

A Monday

I'm ordinary. I suppose - nothing special. Most important of all, not special enough for Lucy. Lucy is great - really pretty and always smiling. In class I sit / am sitting as close to her as I can but she never speaks / is speaking to me. I will sit there until she notices / will notice me. This term I am asking / am going to ask Lucy to go out with me, but I expect she says / will say no. I'm pleased I chose / was chosen for the school football team. I'm looking forward to play / playing tomorrow.

B

This morning after coming out of the English class, I ..... (look) for Lucy when I ..... (see) her with Gary Smart. He was really close to her and he ..... (have) his hand on her arm, so I was right. I'm sure they're going out together. I just ..... (run) out of the building.

C

What a surprise! Lucy and her mate, Sophie, ..... (come) to watch tonight's game! I ..... (score) a goal but Lucy hardly noticed me. I think she was just there to see Gary Smart. I ..... (chat) to Lucy and Sophie after the match. I still want ..... (ask) her to go out with me but I'm afraid of ..... (say) the wrong thing, so maybe I ..... (write) her a note instead.

D

Changed my mind about writing to Lucy. I ..... (see) her with her friends this morning, and they all ..... (laugh) when I went past. I must be one big joke to them. I heard Gary Smart talking about Lucy while we ..... (change) for football training. Lots of girls ..... (like) him. I can't see why myself - unless muscles, cool clothes and a great haircut are your thing.

F Monday

I'm fed up with boys. Honestly, when they whistle / will whistle at you, they think / are thinking they're really cool but they're just embarrassing. The only nice boy in our class is Jake, but I hardly know him. I always am smiling / smile at him when I will see / see him but I'm worried that he isn't liking / doesn't like me. Anyway, my mate, Sophie, told me that Jake picked / was picked for the school football team last week, so maybe I go / 'll go and support the team tomorrow.

G

Finally found the courage to ask Jake about the maths homework. He ..... (not seem) too pleased but he agreed ..... (help) me. We ..... (meet) in the library on Monday night so I'll ask Sophie to do my hair and make-up.

H

I'm sorry we laughed at Jake yesterday. If I ..... (ask) him for his help with the maths homework, I ..... (have) a chance to spend more time with him. I ..... (bump) into Gary Smart. He ..... (just have) a swim and he looked really pleased with himself. He even ..... (put) his hand on my arm. He's really not my type.

I

Sophie and I ..... (watch) Jake play football tonight and he ..... (score) a goal. Before going home we ..... (chat) to him. He said he ..... (never play) for the team before I told Sophie I might ask Jake to go out with me. But what ..... (do) if he ..... (not be) interested in ..... (go) out with me? I ..... (be) so embarrassed.

J

I ..... (talk) about Jake with Sophie and the others today at school when he ..... (walk) past. We all started ..... (laugh) because we were embarrassed. I hope Jake isn't mad with me.

E

Great. She's going out with Gary Smart, but she ..... (want) me to do her homework for her. I must be the class idiot. But perhaps if she ..... (think) I'm clever, she ..... (ask) me for help again and we can become friends.

3 Student A: Compare with other students who read Jake's diary. Do you have the same order?

Student B: Compare with other students who read Lucy's diary. Do you have the same order?

4 Work in pairs again.

A: Ask your partner the Student A questions below.

B: Ask your partner the Student B questions below.

a Student A: Why did Lucy go to watch the football match?

b Student B: Why did Jake think Lucy was at the football match?

c Student B: Why did Jake decide to write a note?

d Student A: Why was Lucy worried about asking Jake to go out with her?

e Student A: Why were the girls laughing?

f Student B: What did Jake think when he heard the girls laughing?

g Student B: What did Jake think about Lucy and Gary Smart?

h Student A: What did Lucy think of Gary Smart?

i Student A: Why did Lucy ask Jake for help with her maths?

j Student B: Why wasn't Jake pleased when Lucy asked for help with her maths?

5 30 Listen to Jake and Lucy reading their diaries. Did you have the correct order? Did you write the correct verbs?

6 31 What will Jake and Lucy do next? Listen to what they wrote next and answer these questions.

a Why was Lucy confused at first when she met Jake in the library?

b Why did Jake write Lucy a note instead of asking her to go out with him?

c Where did Lucy find the note?

d How did Lucy feel when she read the note?

e Was the bowling trip successful?

f Do you think this is a true story?

Vocabulary spot

Some words are used mainly by young people (or older people in very informal conversations).

Match these words from the diaries on the left with their meanings on the right. Can you find any more words like these?

mad guy smart mate cool my type good clever friend angry boy/man

the kind of boy/girl I like

Hardly

Grammar spot

Hardly

Hardly + verb

Look at these sentences.

I hardly know Jake.

She hardly noticed me.

Does hardly go before or after the verb?

Hardly + noun

Look at these sentences.

We did hardly any maths.

Hardly anybody likes Jake.

Which words go after hardly?

1 Rewrite the underlined words using hardly.

a I hadn't seen Monica for ten years and it was difficult for me to recognise her. I hardly recognised her.

b Now my friend is at university I don't see her very often during term time.

c There was a noisy party next door last night so I slept very little.

d My cousin has hurt her foot so she only danced once or twice at the disco.

e I was only four when my family moved from Scotland so I only just remember it.

2 Now complete the sentences below using hardly. Add any other words you need.

a The weather was fine nearly every day last week – there was hardly any rain.

b ..... came to my party because lots of my friends were busy that day.

c I bought a very expensive pair of trainers yesterday so I have ..... money left now.

Before and after -ing

Grammar spot

Before and after -ing

Here are some sentences from the diaries.

Before going home, we chatted to Jake.

After coming out of the English class, I looked for Lucy.

What do you notice about the verbs which follow after and before?

1 Rewrite these sentences using before or after.

- a Lucy heard that Jake was playing in the match, then she went to watch it.

After hearing that Jake was playing in the match, Lucy went to watch it.

- b Jake played in the match, then he talked to Lucy.
After .....

- c Lucy asked Jake for help with her maths, then she met him in the library. Before .....

- d Jake saw Lucy with Gary, then he felt sad. After .....

- e Lucy asked Sophie to do her hair, then she went out with Jake. Before .....

- f Jake met Lucy in the library, then he decided to write her a letter. After .....

- g Lucy got a letter from Jake, then she told him she liked him. After .....

2 Write three true sentences about yourself using before or after. Use these ideas if you wish.

go to cinema in the evening / eat dinner

I go to the cinema in the evening after eating dinner.

have breakfast / clean teeth

do homework / watch TV set alarm / get into bed

check bank account / buy new clothes

«Activity» After doing that ...

Your teacher will give you a set of cards. Use the cards to practise before and after doing ... + the past simple.

«Pronunciation»

Your teacher will give you a card with some words on it. Listen to the words your teacher reads out. Do they have the same vowel sound as any of the words on your card?

«Activity» Different topics

Work in teams. Your teacher will hold up two cards – one has a letter on it, e.g. P, and the other card has an area of vocabulary, e.g. food. Your team must quickly write down as many food words as possible beginning with P. You only get a point if the words are spelled correctly. You get two points if you have a word that no other team has.

Saying goodbye

Look at these different ways of saying goodbye (1–7) and match them to the situations (a–g).

- 1 Goodbye.
- 2 See you later.
- 3 Hope to see you again.
- 4 Thank you for everything.
- 5 See you soon.
- 6 I've enjoyed meeting you.
- 7 Have a good journey.

- a When you're not sure if you'll see someone again.
- b When you'll see someone again the same day.
- c When you say goodbye to someone you've only just met.
- d When someone is setting off on a trip.
- e When you have been someone's guest or they have helped you a lot.
- f When you expect to see someone again.
- g Any time!

Exam folder 30

In this part of the exam, you listen to a conversation between two people and decide whether six sentences are correct or incorrect. You hear the recording twice.

Listening Part 4

3 32

Look at the six sentences for this part.

You will hear a conversation between a boy, Andy, and a girl, Sarah, about dancing.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect.

If it is correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under A for

YES. If it is not correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under B for NO.

CHECK!

- a How many speakers are there?
- b What should you do before you listen?

- |  | AYES   | BNO    |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 Andy is doing dancing classes instead of computer classes.         | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 Andy has told few people about his love of dancing.                | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3 Sarah thinks Andy should tell his friends about his dancing.       | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4 Andy's aunt persuaded him to learn to dance.                       | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5 Andy feels happier when there are other boys in his dancing class. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6 Sarah agrees with Andy's parents about his plans for the future.   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Speaking Part 3

Look at the two photographs on page 205. Work with a partner. One of you will describe photograph A and the other will describe photograph B. Take turns to tell each other about your photograph.

In this part of the exam, you and your partner are each given a photograph of a similar topic. You take turns to tell the examiner about your photograph.

CHECK!

- a What will you talk about?
- b What will you say if you don't know the English word for something?
- c How long will you try to speak for?

Exam Advice

Don't worry if you don't know what is happening in the photograph. Just describe what you can see.

Speaking Part 4

Work with a partner and discuss these questions.

- a Which kind of dancing would you prefer to watch?
- b Do you like dancing?
- c Do you think it is important to learn to dance?
- d Do boys learn to dance in your country? What kind of dancing?
- e Why do you think fewer boys enjoy dancing than girls?
- f Do you think boys should be encouraged to learn to dance?
- g What other activities do you think boys should be encouraged to do?
- h What activities should girls be encouraged to do?

In this part of the exam, you and your partner have a discussion about the topic of the photographs in Part 3.

CHECK!

- a Who will you speak to?
- b What will you do if you have no opinions?
- c How long will you speak for?

Exam Advice

Speak clearly so the other student can understand you.

Writing folder

In this part of the exam, you are given a sentence. You have to complete a second sentence so that it means the same as the first.

Writing Part 1

- Here are some sentences about going to a restaurant.
- For each question, complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first.

Use no more than three words.

- Write only the missing words.

Example: Last week all the students in my class went to a restaurant together.

Last week everyone in my class went to a restaurant together.

- 1 The restaurant is usually crowded because it's so good.
It's usually crowded because it's ..... good restaurant.
- 2 It's less crowded on weekdays.
It isn't ..... on weekdays.
- 3 Before choosing our food, we asked the waiter's advice.
We asked the waiter's advice, then ..... our food.
- 4 The waiter recommended a fish dish.
The waiter said, 'If I ..... you, I'd have the fish dish.'
- 5 The service charge wasn't included in the bill.
The bill ..... the service charge.

In this part of the exam, you have to write a note, email, card or postcard in 35–45 words. There are three points which you have to write about.

Writing Part 2

You and some friends are planning to go to the cinema. Write a note to an English friend called Jerry.

In your note, you should

- tell him which film you are going to see
- invite him to come with you
- say when and where you are meeting your friends

Write 35–45 words.

In this part of the exam, you have to write a letter or a story in about 100 words. There are two questions to choose from.

Writing Part 3

- This is part of a letter you receive from an English friend.

I always spend my holidays with my family in the mountains. But this year my friend has invited me to go to the seaside with her family. What do you think I should do?

- Now write a letter to your friend giving your advice.
- Write your letter in about 100 words.

OR

- Your English teacher has asked you to write a story.
- Your story must begin with this sentence:

When we set out, the sky was blue and the sun was shining.

- Write your story in about 100 words.

Unit 1

Present simple

All verbs except to be
+	I/you/we/they like chocolate. He/she/it likes chocolate.
-	I/you/we/they do not (don't) like chocolate. He/she/it does not (doesn't) like chocolate.
?	Do I/you/we/they like chocolate? Does he/she/it like chocolate?

to be
+	I am ('m) happy. You/we/they are ('re) happy. He/she/it is ('s) happy.
-	I am ('m) not happy. You /we/they are not (aren't) happy. He/she/it is not (isn't) happy.
?	Am I happy? Are you/we/they happy? Is he/she/it happy?

Frequency adverbs

always	usually	often	sometimes	never
--------	---------	-------	-----------	-------

- ... go before a one-word verb:
I always eat chocolate after lunch.
- ... go before the second word of a two-word verb:
You don't always eat chocolate after lunch.
- ... go after the verb to be:
He is always happy.

We use the present simple with frequency adverbs.

Unit 2

like, enjoy, want, would like

- We use a noun or -ing after like and enjoy:
I like/enjoy tennis.
I like/enjoy playing tennis.
- We use a noun or to after want and would like:
I want / would ('d) like a new racket.
I want / would ('d) like to buy a new racket.

have got

We do not use do for questions and negatives with have got.

+	I/you/we/they have ('ve) got blue eyes. He/she/it has ('s) got blue eyes.
-	I/you /we/they have not (haven't) got blue eyes. He/she/it has not (hasn't) got blue eyes.
?	Have I/you/we/they got blue eyes? Has he/she/it got blue eyes?

to be + a + occupation

I'm/you're/he's etc. a student/teacher etc.

to be + adjective

?	Am I working? Are you/we/they working? Is he/she/it working?

Spelling the -ing form

- Verbs ending in one vowel + one consonant:
double the consonant and add ing (e.g. put → putting) [exception: deliver → delivering]
- Verbs ending in two or more consonants or y:
add ing (e.g. paint → painting or tidy → tidying)
- Verbs ending in e:
drop e and add ing (e.g. prepare → preparing)
! Remember ski → skiing

State verbs

... are not usually used in continuous tenses. Examples of state verbs are:

believe, hate, know, like, love, prefer, think (=believe), understand, want

Unit 4

Prepositions of time

- No preposition before
today, tomorrow, tonight, yesterday (morning, evening etc.)

| ? | Did I/he/she/it/you/we/they want a bike?              |

Spelling

- Verbs ending in e (e.g. arrive):
add d (arrived).
- Verbs ending in one consonant (e.g. stop):
double the consonant and add ed (e.g. stopped).
- Verbs ending in consonant + y (e.g. study):
change y to i and add ed (e.g. studied).
- Verbs ending in two or more consonants (e.g. help) or vowel + y (e.g. stay):
add ed (e.g. helped, stayed).

Irregular verbs

These verbs have different forms, e.g.

buy → bought, go → went, make → made

(See irregular verb list on page 216.)

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| + | I/he/she/it/you/we/they bought a bike.               |

Unit 8

Present perfect

has/have + past participle

- + I/you/we/they have ('ve) eaten the chocolate.
He/she/it has ('s) eaten the chocolate.
- I/you /we/they have not (haven't) eaten the chocolate.
He/she/it has not (hasn't) eaten the chocolate.
- ? Have I/you/we/they eaten the chocolate?
Has he/she/it eaten the chocolate?

Past participle

Regular verbs

past participle = past simple, e.g.

like → liked, liked    play → played, played

Irregular verbs

Most have a different form for past participle and past simple:

do → did, done    write → wrote, written

know → knew, known

But for some irregular verbs, past participle and past simple are the same:

make → made, made    buy → bought, bought

just, already

... go before the past participle:

We've just bought a box of chocolates.

I've already opened it.

yet

... goes at the end of a negative sentence:

We haven't eaten them all yet.

Unit 9

They ate the chocolate on Sunday.
- Actions/events for a period beginning and ending in the past:
You worked very hard last year.
We played bossaball in the summer. [It's not summer now.]
- Questions asking When?
When did you meet Maria?
- With ago for actions/events which are finished at some time before now:
I met her two days ago.

to go in the present perfect

have/has gone

They've gone out. [They're not at home.]

She's gone to Africa. [She went there and she's there now.]

She hasn't gone to Africa. [She's not there now.]

OR

have/has been

They've been out. [They went out and then came home.]

She's been to Africa. [She went there and then returned here.]

She hasn't been to Africa. [She didn't go there.]

She's never been to Africa. [She has never visited Africa.]

Unit 11

Superlative adjectives

Regular adjectives

- One-syllable adjective:
add est (e.g. kind → kindest)
- One-syllable adjective ending in e:
add st (e.g. nice → nicest)

- One-syllable adjective ending in vowel + consonant: double consonant and add est (e.g. hot → hottest)
- Adjective ending in consonant+y: change y to i and add est (e.g. funny → funniest)
- Adjective with more than one syllable: the most + adjective (e.g. polite → the most polite, confident → the most confident)

Irregular adjectives

good → the best

bad → the worst far → the farthest/furthest

Present passive

to be + past participle

The passive uses the same past participles as the present perfect. (For past participles see Unit 8 and irregular verb list on page 216.)

Active The students / They admire the actor / him.

Passive The actor / He is admired by the students / them.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| + | I am ('m) admired .You/we/they are ('re) admired .He/she/it is ('s) admired .                   |
| - | I am ('m) not admired .You/we/they are not (aren't) admired .He/she/it is not (isn't) admired . |
| ? | Am I admired?Are you/we/they admired?Is he/she/it admired?                                      |

Unit 12

Past continuous

was/were + -ing

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| + | I/he/she/it was swimming .You/we/they were swimming .                             |
| - | I/he/she/it was not (wasn't) swimming .You /we/they were not (weren't) swimming . |
| ? | Was I/he/she/it swimming?Were you/we/they swimming?                               |

Past continuous and past continuous

Two past activities at the same time (often with while):
We were eating chocolate while the teacher was talking.

Past continuous and past simple

Past activity beginning before an event and continuing until or after it. The event is usually when + past simple:
We were eating chocolate when the teacher arrived.

Unit 13

Modal verbs (possibility and probability)

Certainty (I'm sure it is true) – *it/they must be Possibility (perhaps it's true) – *it/they might be, it could be Impossibility (I'm sure it isn't true) – *it/they can't be
These verbs have only one form.

That must be John's brother. [He looks exactly like John, so I feel certain.]

That might/could be John's brother. [He looks a bit like John, so I think it's possible they are brothers.]

They can't be John's brothers. [They look completely different from John, so I don't believe it's possible that they are his brothers.]

Unit 14

used to

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| + | I/he/she/it/you/we/they used to eat chocolate.                 |
| - | I/he/she/it/you/we/they did not (didn't) use to eat chocolate. |
| ? | Did I/he/she/it/you/we/they use to eat chocolate?              |

Used to shows something was true in the past but is not true now:

I used to watch westerns. [I don't watch them now.]

We used to see horses in the field. [We don't see them now.]

There didn't use to be a sports centre in the city. [There is now.]

Did there use to be less traffic?* [I know there's a lot of traffic now, I want to know if it has increased.]

Adjective order

1 opinion 2 size 3 description 4 colour 5 material an amazing long stripey green wool scarf
a useful little old red plastic bag

too + adjective and not + adjective + enough

too + adjective (+ for x)

This skirt is too big for me. [I need a smaller one.]

The room is too warm. [We feel uncomfortably hot.]

not + adjective + enough (+ for x)

This hat isn't big enough for me. [I need a bigger one.]

The room isn't warm enough. [We feel uncomfortably cold.]

Unit 15

Modal verbs (permission and obligation)

can

Can never changes.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| + | I/you/he/she/it/we/they can dance .   |
| - | I/you/he/she/it/we/they can't dance . |
| ? | Can I/you/he/she/it/we/they dance?    |

have to

We use the tenses of have.

Present

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| + | I/you/we/they have to dance .He/she/it has to dance .                |
| - | I/you/we/they don't have to dance .He/she/it doesn't have to dance . |
| ? | Do I/you/we/they have to dance?Does he/she/it have to dance?         |

Past

+	I/you/he/she/it/we/they had to dance .
-	I/you/he/she/it/we/they didn't have to dance .
?	Did I/you/he/she/it/we/they have to dance ?

Permission

can, can't + verb

You can sit here. [This chair is free, you are allowed to sit here.]

You can't sit here. [This chair isn't free, you aren't allowed to sit here.]

Obligation

(don't) have to + verb

You have to sit here. [You aren't allowed to sit in any other chair.]

You don't have to sit here. [You are allowed to choose your chair.]

Adverbs

Regular adverbs

- Most adjectives add ly:
quiet → quietly, strange → strangely, beautiful → beautifully
- Adjectives ending in e:
drop e and add y (e.g. sensible → sensibly)
- Adjectives ending in y:
change y to i + ly (e.g. lazy → lazily)

Irregular adverbs

Some adverbs are the same as their adjectives:

fast, hard, late, early

She's a fast runner. She runs fast.

I had an early phone call. He phoned me early.

Well is the adverb from good.

They're good dancers. They dance well.

Unit 16

going to future

+	I am ('m) going to eat this chocolate. You/we/they are ('re) going to eat this chocolate. He/she/it is ('s) going to eat this chocolate.
-	I am ('m) not going to eat this chocolate. You/we/they are not (aren't) going to eat this chocolate. He/she/it is not (isn't) going to eat this chocolate.
?	Am I going to eat this chocolate? Are you/we/they going to eat this chocolate? Is he/she/it going to eat this chocolate?

Going to is used

- to talk about what we plan to do:
We're going to watch a football match this evening.
I'm not going to play tennis next weekend.
- to describe a future event which we feel sure about:
Jane has made some coffee. She's going to drink it.
You're carrying a heavy bag. You're going to drop it.

Present tense following when, until, after in future time

After I leave school I'm going to get a job.

He isn't going to get up until we phone him.

Are you going to travel by bus when you visit Australia?

The time

It's At	five, ten, twenty-five, etc. (a) quarter	to	one, two ... twelve, etc.
	three, nine, sixteen, etc. minutes	past	midday.

-	I/you/he/she/it/we/they will not (won't) be successful.
?	Will I/you/he/she/it/we/they be successful?

will and going to

Both talk about the future. (See also Unit 16.)

Will is used to say what we believe, but are not certain about the future:

I'm going to join a tennis club because I'll meet some good players there. [I believe they have some good players.]

Why are you going to watch that DVD? You won't enjoy it.

[I don't think it's your kind of film.]

They're going to arrive late. Will they be hungry?

[I want to know your opinion.]

everyone, no one, someone, (not) anyone everybody, nobody, somebody, (not) anybody

+	Someone/Somebody has opened the window. [I don't know who.] Everyone/Everybody has left the house. [all the people]
-	There isn't anyone/anybody with me. There is no one/nobody with me. No one/Nobody came here with me. not anyone, not anybody = no one, nobody ( anyone/anybody is not the same as no one/nobody )
?	Is there anyone/anybody in the house?

All these words are followed by a singular verb.

Unit 18

Past perfect

Past simple of have + past participle

+	I/he/she/it/you/we/they had eaten the chocolate.
-	I/he/she/it/you/we/they had not (hadn't) eaten the chocolate.
?	Had I/he/she/it/you/we/they eaten the chocolate?

Past perfect and past simple with when / by the time

She had eaten the chocolate when / by the time we came home.
OR When / By the time we came home, she had eaten the chocolate. [She ate it before we arrived.]

Future passive

will be + past participle

(For past participles see Unit 8 and irregular verb list on page 216.)

Active The students will admire the actor/him.

The students will admire the singers/them.

Passive The actor/He will be admired by the students.

The singers/they will be admired by the students.

+ I/he/she/it/you/we/they will be admired.

- I/he/she/it/you/we/they will not (won't) be admired.

? Will I/he/she/it/you/we/they be admired?

Unit 25

Reported questions

Wh- questions

I asked what the problem was.

→ What is the problem?

She asked which book I wanted.

→ Which book do you want?

He asked how much I had ('d) paid for it.

→ How much did you pay for it?

They asked her where she had hidden the chocolate.

→ Where have you hidden the chocolate?

We asked her when she would explain.

→ When will you explain?

Yes/no questions + if or whether

I asked them whether they liked chocolate.

→ Do you like chocolate?

He asked me if I was going to sing.

→ Are you going to sing?

She asked me if I would make coffee.

→ Will you make coffee?

I asked them if they'd seen my mobile.

→ Have you seen my mobile?

too much, too many, not enough

• too much + uncountable noun:

We've got too much homework.

• too many + plural countable noun:

You ask too many questions.

• not enough + plural countable/uncountable noun:

There aren't enough chocolates for everyone.

I haven't had enough time to learn these rules.

Verbs with two objects

give + person + object → give + object + to person

The teacher gave the boy extra homework.

→ The teacher gave extra homework to the boy.

Annie sent me an email.

→ Annie sent an email to me.

Unit 26

First conditional

Used for possible conditions.

Condition: if/unless + present tense

Result: future tense

Either the condition or the result can be first in the sentence.

If the condition clause is first, there is a comma after it.

There is no comma if the result clause is first.

If you leave the party early, you'll miss the fireworks.

= You'll miss the fireworks if you leave early.

= You'll see the fireworks if you stay until midnight.

= You'll miss the fireworks unless you stay till midnight.

= If you don't stay till midnight, you'll miss the fireworks.

if and when

When means the speaker is certain that something will happen:

I'll be very nervous when I take the exam. [I'm certain that I'm going to take the exam.]

If means the speaker is not certain that something will happen:

I'll be very happy if I pass the exam. [Perhaps I'll pass the exam.]

I'll be very sad if I fail the exam. [Perhaps I'll fail the exam.]

Unit 27

Verb/preposition + reflexive pronouns

myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves

The subject of the verb/preposition is the same as its object:

A boy of fifteen should know how to look after himself.

Remember to give yourself plenty of time to reach the airport.

They never care about other people, only about themselves.

each, every, all + noun

each/every + singular countable noun

each of + a plural countable noun

all + plural countable/uncountable noun

Every student had some chocolate.

Each student had some chocolate.

Each of my friends had a different sweet.

All the students had some chocolate.

All the chocolate was eaten.

every/all + morning/night/week/month etc.

Every morning = more than one morning

All morning = the whole of one morning

He visits his grandmother every week, usually on Sundays.

I've been ill all week and couldn't go to work.

We live in Poland but we spend the summer in Spain every year.

The storm continued all night and no one could sleep.

Unit 28

Second conditional

Used for nearly or completely impossible conditions (compare Unit 26).

Condition: if/unless + past tense

Result: would verb

Either the condition or the result can be first in the sentence.

If the condition clause is first, there is a comma after it.

There is no comma if the result clause is first.

Nearly impossible:

If you left the party early, you'd miss the fireworks. [But I don't believe you will leave early.]

= You'd miss the fireworks if you left early.

= You'd see the fireworks if you stayed until midnight.

= You'd miss the fireworks unless you stayed till midnight.

= If you didn't stay till midnight, you'd miss the fireworks.

Completely impossible:

If I was a film star, I would ('d) live in Los Angeles. [I'm not a film star, so I don't live there.]

= I would ('d) live in Los Angeles if I was a film star.

= I wouldn't live here if I was a film star.

I wouldn't act in a film unless I liked the director.

= If I didn't like the director, I would ('d) refuse to act in a film.

Unit 29

so + verb or neither/nor + verb

We use so + verb and neither/nor + verb to agree with another speaker.

The verb must match the tense in the other speaker's sentence.

So is used to reply to a positive sentence.

Neither/Nor are used to reply to a negative sentence.

(Compare short answers in Unit 9.)

I'm fifteen.

So am I.

So are we/they.

So is he/she.

We're not allowed to drive.

Nor/Neither am I.

Nor/Neither are we/they.

Nor/Neither is he/she.

He often catches this bus.

So do I/we/they.

So does he/she.

He doesn't like cycling.

Nor/Neither do I/we/they.

Nor/Neither does he/she.

We've bought return tickets.

So have I/we/they.

So has he/she.

They haven't bought tickets yet.

Nor/Neither have I/we/they.

Nor/Neither has he/she.

I caught the train yesterday.

So did I/he/she/we/they.

She didn't come to school.

Nor/Neither did I/he/she/we/they.

I'll phone her later.

So will I/he/she/we/they.

I won't forget.

Nor/Neither will I/he/she/we/they.

They're going to get off the bus.

So am I.

So are we/they.

So is he/she.

I must hurry.

So must I/he/she/we/they.

We hadn't noticed the time.

Nor/Neither had I/he/she/we/they.

Polite questions

Can you tell me ... ?

Can you remember ... ?

Do you know ... ?

I'd like to know ...

Can you find out ... ?

etc.

+ reported question.

For reported questions see Unit 25.

Unit 30

hardly

Hardly means almost not. We don't use not with hardly.

hardly any (of) / anyone, anybody etc. + noun

I have hardly any homework. [almost none]

Hardly anyone enjoys homework. [almost no one]

Hardly any of my friends are older than me. [almost none of them]

hardly (ever) + verb

We hardly ever have a free evening. [almost never]

She hardly understood any of our jokes. [almost none]

They hardly ate anything. [almost nothing]

before and after + -ing

The subject of the -ing verb must be the same as the subject of the other verb:

I wrote an email to my parents before going to bed.

[before I went to bed] [not before they went to bed]

They'll certainly phone us after arriving home.

[after they arrive] [not after we arrive]

Before leaving the train, check that you have all your luggage.

[before you leave]

After using these books, please return them to the correct shelf.

[after you use]

Recording script 103

We always wear shorts. We sometimes wear shoes, but I usually have bare feet. It's called bossaball. It's a new sport. It's like a kind of volleyball with trampolines. It's fun in the sun and we usually play in the summer.

We use special stones and brushes and we play on ice. It's called curling. It's a very old sport. People sometimes say it's a kind of chess on ice. It's exciting and it's quite skilful. We sometimes wear special shoes.

You can go up to 45 kph indoors so you wear a helmet, but it's not very dangerous – really! It's called karting. We use a kind of small racing car. It's got a real engine. Champion racing drivers often begin in them.

The weather's very cold and windy in Canada in winter and there's always ice and snow on the lakes and fields. It's called snowferring. We have a board like the board we use for snowboarding and we use a kind of sail. It's a kind of windsurfing on the snow. It's wonderful.

Recording script 1.08

Dan: My name is Dan Jones and I'm a third year student at Southgate University. My days are really busy because my hobby is tennis and I play in national matches, so I have to practise a lot.

My day begins at 6 am. I get up and go straight to the gym before breakfast. I always go there by bicycle because the fresh air wakes me up. After an hour or so I come back to the university and then I have a huge breakfast at about eight thirty. Oh, I always have a shower of course before breakfast or nobody would sit next to me! From 9.30 until 1.00, I go to lectures. My subject is geography. Then all the students have lunch together in the canteen at 1 o'clock. I usually study in my room after lunch – that is, except for one afternoon a week when we play matches, sometimes against another university. They're always on Wednesday afternoons. In the evenings I like spending time with my friends – we sometimes go to the cinema or to a disco. When I leave university next year, I want to travel round the world.

Recording script 1.09

Katy: My name is Katy Williamson and I'm a student at Southgate University. I'm the captain of the university women's football team. Women's football is becoming more and more popular and the team is really busy playing matches all over the country.

I get up at 6 am and at 6.30 I go to the gym. I always walk. I usually spend about an hour there and I walk back to the university and have a huge breakfast in the student canteen at about a quarter past eight. I meet all my friends there, so breakfast sometimes takes a long time. Lectures are from 10 o'clock until about 1. I'm studying biology so I spend quite a lot of time in the laboratories. I usually have lunch in the canteen but I sometimes go to a café over the road. After lunch I usually study in the library. There's sometimes football practice between 5 and 6, so I have to work hard to finish all my work before then. We play matches against other university women's teams on Friday afternoons, so I have to make sure I'm always free then. Then I have my evening meal – usually in the canteen because it's cheaper there. In the evenings I like watching TV – I'm usually too tired to do anything else. And I go to bed really early, about 10.

When I leave university next year, I want to be a nurse, but I'll continue playing football as a hobby because I love it.

Writing folder

Writing Parts 1, 2 and 3

1

- a There are ten. We use them at the beginning of sentences, for someone's name and for the pronoun 'I'. They are also used for place names, days of the week and months.
- b To show the beginning and end of each piece of spoken language. These could also be double (" ").
- c There are four. Three replace missing letters. (In speech and informal written English, these forms are correct. PET students can use them throughout the exam.) One is used to show possession; there is no letter missing.
- d With a full stop.
- e At the end of a question.
- f Between the two halves of a sentence, especially before words like but and so, but not usually before and or that; between items in lists, until the last item, which is preceded by and; in addresses, and at the beginning and end of letters (although in the PET exam you would not lose marks for omitting these).
- g The only other punctuation mark PET students may want to use is the exclamation mark. Remember that in English it is always at the end of a sentence. We normally use it to express surprise, humour or excitement. Be careful not to use it too much.
PET students may meet colons, semicolons and dashes in printed texts, dialogues, lists, etc. but do not need to use them.

He is a security officer in a shopping mall.
 He's talking to a police officer.

Recording script 111

Security officer: Grand City Mall. Security.

Police officer: Hello, Security? This the police. We have a report that there's a thief in the shopping mall.

Security officer: Oh, yeah? What kind of a thief?

PO: A shoplifter. Someone who steals clothes and things from shops. Can you see anyone? Does anyone look like a thief?

SO: I can see ... oh, about six people on the security cameras. And you.

PO: Oh. Well, one of the others is a criminal. Does one of them look like a criminal? Is one of them carrying a big bag?

SO: Er, no. I can tell you what they're doing.

PO: OK. Go ahead.

SO: Well, first, there's a woman. She's painting a picture of a child. She's got a box.

PO: A big box?

SO: No, no. A box of paints. She's an artist. She paints pictures of the children and sells them to their parents. I know her. Then, there's a young woman. She's standing near the fountain. A man is taking a photograph of her. He's got a case.

PO: Is it a big case?

SO: Yeah, but the case has got different cameras in it. He's a fashion photographer and she's a model. He takes photos all the time and sells them to magazines.

PO: OK. So – anyone else?

SO: There's another man. He's standing outside a shop. He's holding a notebook. He's looking up and down the mall and he's writing something in his notebook.

PO: Does he look like a thief?

SO: No, he's not a thief. He's a journalist. He often walks round to see what news he can find. He always writes everything in his notebook.

PO: Is that all you can see?

SO: There's the bank guard. He's standing near the door of the bank.

PO: He's not a thief?

SO: Probably not. I know him. He's too lazy. He never does anything.

PO: Isn't there anyone else?

SO: The only other person I can see now is a woman with short grey hair. I don't know her but she doesn't look like a thief.

PO: Short grey hair? Aha! What's she doing?

SO: She's walking through the mall.

PO: Is she carrying a big bag?

SO: No, she isn't carrying a big bag.

PO: Oh.

SO: But she's pulling a shopping bag on wheels. It's quite big.

PO: That's her! She looks like a housewife. She steals things and puts them in the bag. Everyone thinks she's got shopping in it. OK, watch her carefully. I'm coming to arrest her.

Sonia: Hi, Granny. How are you?

Granny: Oh, not bad. How's school?

Sonia: I'm not going to school this week.

Granny: Why not? Are you ill?

Sonia: No, I'm doing work experience. I'm working in a hotel.

Granny: I hope you're not working in the kitchen. You're not good at cooking!

Sonia: No, I'm not in the kitchen. I'm helping the receptionist and the manager.

Granny: Is that nice?

Sonia: Yes. Well, I like working with the manager, she's really friendly. But I prefer helping the receptionist because I can talk to the guests. I can practise my French because some French people are staying in the hotel. I understand almost everything they say. Isn't that great?

Granny: Yes, that's very good.

Sonia: Yes. But I am tired. When I go to school, I get up at half past seven, but this week I'm starting work at seven o'clock.

Granny: Oh, well, you can have a good rest at the weekend.

Sonia: Oh, yes. I'm looking forward to it.

Conversation 1

Sara: I know. It sounds good. I'd like to go.

Ed: I'm taking my little brother. Would you like to come too?

Sara: That would be great. I love the noise, the music and all the excitement. The last time I went was in 2005 when I was ten.

Ed: Oh, really? Well, I like the clowns best. Are you free today or tomorrow? The afternoon show is best for my brother.Sara: Sorry, I'm busy then. I'm going to the cinema this afternoon – I've got the tickets so I can't change it – and I'm playing tennis tomorrow afternoon.Ed: Oh, well ... can you go at the weekend? It finishes on 29 August. That's Saturday.Sara: I'm free on Saturday afternoon.

Ed: Good. I'm free then, too. It only comes once a year, so we mustn't miss it.

Conversation 2

Sam: Hi, Juliet, it's Sam here. Have you got the tickets yet?

Juliet: Yeah, for tonight.

Sam: What time does it start?

Juliet: Just a minute. I'll look. Er, it starts at a quarter to eight.Sam: Oh, you know I work in a shop on Wednesdays in the city centre. Well, there's a sale this week so I'm working late. I have to tidy the shop at the end of the day, so I'm working till seven thirty this evening. I usually finish at seven o'clock, which is better.

Juliet: Don't worry. There are lots of adverts before the film actually starts.

Sam: OK. See you later then. Outside?

Juliet: See you there. Bye.

Conversation 3

Max: It's so boring here in August, Rachel. There's nothing to do.Rachel: There are lots of good things on at the moment. What are you doing next weekend? My mum's going to see a dance show on Sunday afternoon. We can go with her.Max: Oh, boring. And I don't like going to things like that in the afternoon.Rachel: Well, there's the rock festival in the park. That looks good. I like listening to music outside in the summer. But it's very expensive.

Max: Mm. I've only got £10.

Rachel: Well, would you like to go to the new nightclub?

I went there last week on my birthday. It's only £8 before eleven. We can go on Saturday.

Max: I'd really like to go to the rock festival, but OK then.

Shall we meet at your house?

Rachel: Yeah. About nine?

Max: See you then.

Greg: This weekend is so boring. Let's go out and do something tomorrow. I'd like to do some sport.
Would you like to play tennis with me?

Sophia: I'm not very good at tennis. My best sport is hockey. I'd like to have a game tomorrow.

Greg: Don't be silly. We can't play hockey with just two people. We could go out on our bikes. Let's cycle to the lake and take a picnic.

Sophia: Great idea.

2 Which shop are they going to first?

Woman: I want some shampoo to take on holiday. The chemist is at the other end of the shopping centre. So let's go and look for your swimming costume first.

Girl: Oh, yes. There's a really nice one in the sports shop over there.

Woman: OK. And remind me to buy something to read on the plane. The bookshop is next to the chemist's.

3 When is Tim meeting his father?

Man: Have a good time, Tim. Don't forget we're meeting tomorrow morning outside the railway station at eleven.

Tim: Dad, that's much too early. I'm going out with Simon tonight. We're spending the evening at a nightclub. We're staying there till midnight. I can't meet you until the afternoon. Two o'clock is better.

Man: OK. But don't be late. And have a good evening.

4 Where are they going on Saturday evening?

Boy: I've got an invitation to a concert on Saturday evening. Euan is playing the violin and he says I can have two free tickets. Do you want to come?

Girl: Well, I've got two tickets for the rock band at the Town Hall on Saturday evening. It starts at eight o'clock, but I can go with someone else.

Boy: Oh, I'm coming with you to that. Please?

Girl: OK. And don't forget we're taking your little brother to the cinema on Saturday afternoon.

5 When is Paula's birthday party?

Woman: You know Paula's sixteen soon?

Man: Surely not! Time passes so quickly. Now, let me see, when is her birthday? It's the fifteenth of May, isn't it?

Woman: That's right. It's on a Monday. So the party's two days before, on the thirteenth. That's a Saturday.

Recording script 1 26

Man: On my first day as a taxi driver, my first passenger was a woman who wanted to go to the airport. She was in a hurry because she needed to be at the airport at 10.30 to check in. She had lots of bags with her. Anyway, she got in the car and put the bags in the boot and we set off. I drove fast and we were lucky because there were no traffic jams. We got to the airport at exactly 10.15. Her flight was to New York where her sister lived and it left at 12.20. She got out of the car and started to look for her purse. Then she looked across at the airport. She suddenly looked very annoyed. She took her ticket out of her bag and showed it to me. I realised the mistake. She didn't tell me which airport to go to, so this was the International Airport. Her flight went from the City Airport – about an hour away. She refused to pay me anything so it wasn't a very good start for me.

Woman: When I was about 18, I started a new job in the kitchen of a restaurant. I liked cooking and I wanted to be a chef so I was really pleased to have this job. In fact on the first morning I woke up very early and I went to the restaurant at about 7.30. I just didn't want to wait any longer. I wanted to be in that kitchen! Luckily, the restaurant was open. The chef met me and showed me what to do. But at about nine o'clock the chef felt ill and went home. It was a terrible day. I was the only one in the kitchen and the restaurant was very busy. The waiters came to the kitchen and ordered the food for the customers and I made it. The waiters helped me to find things. Twice I made a mistake and the customers got the wrong food. But it wasn't a problem – in fact both of the customers ate the food and then came to the kitchen to say the food was really delicious. And the waiters got a big tip.

Woman: OK. Turn right at the next roundabout and then take the second turning on the left. It's on your left on the corner opposite a supermarket.

Man: I'm sorry. Could you say that again, please?

Woman: Go down here. When you reach the roundabout, turn right. It's a one-way street. OK?

Man: Yes.

Woman: So, after the roundabout you don't take the first turning on the left, you take the second. You'll see it then. There's a supermarket on the other side of the road. All right?

Man: Yes. I see. Thank you very much for your help.

Woman: You're welcome.

Conversation 2

Man: It's near the market square, which is a pedestrian area. It's not far to walk from here.

Woman: Where can I leave my car?

Man: OK, well, at the next crossroads turn right, then turn right again. You'll see the entrance to the car park just on the right. Park your car there, then you can walk across the road and you're there. There's a pedestrian crossing.

Woman: Thank you.

Girl: Are you walking?

Boy: Yes.

Girl: Good. That's easy then. Go straight down this road past the town hall. Then turn left at the traffic lights into Queen Street. Walk down there to the market square and walk across the square. Go straight on and it's at the next crossroads on the corner.

2

a Could you ... need to find

b could you tell me the way to c can you tell me the way to

Could is more polite than can. We also use please a lot in English.

d I'm sorry. Could you say that

e sorry

British people often say nothing in reply to Thank you, but You're welcome is a possible answer.

Recording script 1 29

Conversation 1

Man: Could you help me, please? I need to find a petrol station.

Woman: OK. Turn right at the next roundabout and then take the second turning on the left. It's on your left on the corner opposite a supermarket.

Man: I'm sorry. Could you say that again, please?

Woman: Go down here. When you reach the roundabout, turn right. It's a one-way street. OK?

Man: Yes.

Woman: So, after the roundabout you don't take the first turning on the left, you take the second. You'll see it then. There's a supermarket on the other side of the road. All right?

Man: Yes. I see. Thank you very much for your help.

Woman: You're welcome.

Conversation 2

Woman: Excuse me, could you tell me the way to the shopping centre, please?

Man: It's near the market square, which is a pedestrian area. It's not far to walk from here.

Woman: Where can I leave my car?

Man: OK, well, at the next crossroads turn right, then turn right again. You'll see the entrance to the car park just on the right. Park your car there then you can walk across the road and you're there. There's a pedestrian crossing.

Woman: Thank you.

Conversation 3

Boy: Excuse me, can you tell me the way to the skateboard park, please?

Girl: Yes, of course. Are you on foot?

Boy: I'm sorry. I don't understand.

Girl: Are you walking?

Boy: Yes.

Girl: Good. That's easy then. Go straight down this road past the town hall. Then turn left at the traffic lights into Queen Street. Walk down there to the market square and walk across the square. Go straight on and it's at the next crossroads on the corner.

Reading Part 3

The city of Lincoln is 2,000 years old and there are a lot of interesting buildings to see. The cathedral is in the north of the city just outside the main city centre. You can walk to many of Lincoln's other attractions from the cathedral. It's not far from the castle. There is a wonderful view of the city from there. Behind the castle is The Lawn, an old hospital, which is now a museum with shops and a café. You can sit in the beautiful gardens to have lunch or a coffee. There is a car park a few metres from the café.

During the summer, walking tours leave from the Tourist Information Centre, which is next to the castle. They are not expensive, last about an hour and visit all the main attractions. There are some very interesting museums. The Toy Museum is near the Tourist Information Centre and has children's toys and games from the last century.

There are shops and a market in the old city centre. There are two shopping centres – one is the Waterside Centre opposite the market and the other is St Mark's Shopping Centre. St Mark's is newer than the Waterside Centre and is just south of the main city centre. Go straight down the High Street from the city centre and it is on the right.

In the middle of the city centre, there are some beautiful spots away from the crowds. For example, you can walk by the river or take a boat trip. Trips leave from Bayford Pool.

You can travel to Lincoln by train, bus or car. It is 216 km from London. The bus station is beside the river and the railway station is a few minutes' walk away from the bus station on the other side of St Mary's Street.

a

Nurse: Hello. Healthlink Phone Line. Can I help you?

Man: Oh, yes, thank you. My son fell over at school today. He was playing football. His arm hurts, well, his wrist really.

Nurse: Did he hit his head?

Man: No, he didn't.

Nurse: Can he move his fingers?

Man: No, he can't. He can't move them at all.

b

Nurse: Hello. Healthlink Phone Line. Can I help you?

Girl: Hello. I've got a cough and a sore throat. I cough all the time, especially at night. I can't stop and I can't sleep.

Nurse: Have you got a cold at the moment?

Girl: No, I haven't. I had one last week but it's gone. Now I've got this cough.

c

Nurse: Hello. Healthlink Phone Line. Can I help you?

Woman: Oh, yes. My husband isn't feeling well. He's got a pain in his chest. He's usually very healthy. I don't understand it.

Nurse: Does he feel sick?

Woman: Yes, he does.

d

Nurse: Hello. Healthlink Phone Line. Can I help you?

Man: Oh, hello. I'm sorry to bother you, but I'm looking after a friend's daughter and she has a terrible stomach ache.

Nurse: Does she have a headache?

Man: Yes, she does.

Nurse: Has she eaten a lot today?

Man: No, she hasn't. Well, let me see. She had a big breakfast. Then we went to the cinema and she had a burger and chips at lunchtime, oh, and some popcorn. Since then she's only had a bar of chocolate and a drink. Should I take her to the doctor's?

e

Nurse: Hello. Healthlink Phone Line. Can I help you?

Boy: Yes. Hello. I've got sore eyes. I can't open them very well.

Nurse: Have you spent a lot of time working at a computer this week? Are you very tired?

Boy: No, I'm not. I'm not working this week. I'm relaxing at home.

Nurse: Do you wear glasses or contact lenses?

Boy: No, I don't.

f

Nurse: Hello. Healthlink Phone Line. Can I help you?

Woman: Hello. My son's got earache. He cried all night.

He's just stopped at last so I decided to phone. I don't want to ring the doctor at the weekend.

Nurse: Is he hot?

Woman: Yes, he is. He's got a temperature.

Nurse: Has he taken any aspirin or paracetamol?

Woman: Yes, he has. Just now.

Man: OK. Thanks. We'll go now.

b

Nurse: People often have a cough for a few days after a cold. Why don't you take some cough mixture before you go to bed? Why don't you take a warm drink to bed with you too, and you should sleep with at least two pillows. Your cough will soon be better.

Girl: I hope so. Thank you.

c

Nurse: You should call an ambulance to take him to hospital. You'd better dial 999 at once. Can you do that now?

Woman: Yes, of course.

d

Nurse: You don't need to see a doctor. She shouldn't eat any more food today. But she should drink lots of water.

Man: OK. Thank you.

e

Nurse: Why don't you wash your eyes in warm water? And get an appointment with your doctor because you probably need some antibiotics.

Boy: Thanks for your help.

f

Nurse: Well, why don't you give him some more paracetamol after four hours? And you'd better phone the doctor. You can get an emergency appointment.

Woman: Thanks very much.

1

The question is about how the woman travelled: by car/driving, by bus or by train.

2

Suggested answers

- 2 hotel, campsite, beach (tall, floor)
 3 beard, short hair, glasses
 4 journalist, photographer, actress
 5 CD, calendar, picture

3

1 A 2 C 3 A 4 B 5 B

Recording script 142

For each question, there are three pictures and a short recording.

Choose the correct picture and put a tick (✓) in the box below it.

1 How did the woman travel?

Woman: Hi, I got here safely. I drove in the end because I was late last time when I took the train. It was raining, so I didn't want to wait for the bus.

2 Where did the man stay?

Man: We were on the top floor of the hotel and we expected to have a lovely view. But our hotel only had four floors and there was a much taller hotel between us and the sea so we couldn't see much. There was a nice campsite next to the beach so next time we're going there.

3 Which is the girl's brother?

Boy: I was walking through town yesterday and your brother stopped to say hi. I didn't recognise him – he looks so different.

Girl: I suppose so. He's grown a beard and he wears glasses now.

Boy: And his hair's really short, too.

4 Which job is Alice doing now?

Man: Is Alice working as an actress now? She was still training last time I saw her.

Woman: Oh, she didn't finish that course. It's difficult to get a job, you know. She's working on the local newspaper now as a photographer.

Man: Really? I always expected her to be a journalist – she was so good at writing when she was at school.

5 What has the boy bought his mother?

Girl: Toby, have you bought a birthday present for mum yet?

Boy: Of course I have. I've got her a calendar, a film one, with pictures of her favourite actors and singers.

Girl: Oh, that was a good idea. I've got her a CD.

Boy: I nearly got her a CD but I couldn't decide which one.

Mirza's letter answers the questions, but it is not a good answer because it is too short and simple.

Suggested answer

Thanks for your letter. I don't go to a fitness centre. There's one near our house and my brother joined it last year. He says it's good. I prefer to do sport outdoors. There's a sports ground near our house. I go there on Saturdays and play football with my friends. On Sundays we have matches against other teams. I go swimming quite often. I usually go to the big pool in the city centre, but sometimes we go surfing in the sea. I really like that and I think it's a great way to keep fit.

All the best,
Mirza

The other sentences don't answer the question.

Question master: And now, Rory – are you ready? You have ten questions. Number 1 – which is the smallest ocean in the world? Is it (a) the Atlantic Ocean, (b) the Indian Ocean, or (c) the Arctic Ocean?

Rory: The Arctic Ocean.

Question master: Number 2 – which is the longest border in the world? Is it (a) between the USA and Canada, (b) between the USA and Mexico, or (c) between Argentina and Chile?

Rory: Oh, just a moment. I think it's between the USA and Mexico.

Question master: Number 3 – where is the wettest place in the world? Is it (a) in India, (b) in Colombia, or (c) in Nigeria?

Rory: Er, I'm sorry, could you repeat that, please?

Question master: Of course. Where is the wettest place in the world? Is it (a) in India, (b) in Colombia, or (c) in Nigeria?

Rory: I think it's in Colombia.

Question master: Number 4 – which planet is the largest? Is it (a) Earth, (b) Venus, or (c) Jupiter?

Rory: Jupiter.

Question master: Number 5 – in which country is the busiest airport in the world? Is it (a) in the USA, (b) in Japan, or (c) in Greece?

Rory: Er, I'm not sure. The USA.

Question master: Number 6 – which island is the biggest? Is it (a) Great Britain, (b) Greenland, or (c) Cuba?

Rory: I think it's Great Britain. No, let me try again. Cuba – that's my answer.

Question master: Number 7 – which continent has the most people? Is it (a) Asia, (b) Australasia, or (c) Africa?

Rory: Let me think – it's not Australasia. I think it's Asia.

Question master: Number 8 – which city is the most expensive to live in? Is it (a) Geneva, in Switzerland, (b) Paris, in France, or (c) Tokyo, in Japan?

Rory: Tokyo.

Question master: Number 9 – where is the deepest valley in the world? Is it (a) in the USA, (b) in China, or (c) in Kenya?

Rory: I'm sorry, I don't know.

Question master: Have a guess.

Rory: China.

Question master: And the last question. Number 10 – which country is the farthest from the equator? Is it (a) Portugal, (b) Australia, or (c) Peru?

Rory: Just a moment. Portugal.

Question master: Thank you, Rory. You got seven correct answers and three wrong answers.

4

Rory got 2, 6 and 9 wrong.

Recording script 203

Question master: And here are the answers.

Number 1. Rory, you were correct. The Arctic Ocean is the smallest ocean. It is 14,351,000 square kilometres.

Number 2. Rory, you were wrong. The longest border in the world is between the USA and Canada and it's 6,416 kilometres long.

Suddenly, the phone rang.

'Hi, John. Can you meet me at the club?' said Lee.

John walked sadly to the club. 'Lee doesn't remember it's my birthday,' he thought. When he went in, all his friends were waiting for him.

'Happy birthday, John!' they shouted.

Everything was ready for a party. John was very surprised. At the end, he thanked his friends.

e

'It's a secret,' he answered. 'But I can tell you that it's dangerous. A journalist went to meet this man last year. We haven't seen him since he got into the man's car. I'm meeting him in a park. My friends are already hiding behind the trees. I must go now.'

I'm Ian. I'm a student, so I'm not rich but I've found a good way to save money. I don't pay rent. My home has a very small kitchen and a living room downstairs. There are curtains and carpets – it's very comfortable. I've got central heating, and on the first floor there's a little bathroom and my bedroom. I can't give you my address because I often move. You see, when I get bored of the view, I can drive my home away and park somewhere new!

2

I'm Patricia. My husband and I were looking for a traditional house when we found our unusual home. It's in two old railway carriages. They've been here since 1902. The carriages stand side by side, the sitting room and dining room are between them and there's a normal roof over the whole building. We enjoy living here and our guests enjoy visiting us.

3

My name's Adam. I'm fifteen. My home is twelve metres above the ground. I made it myself. I didn't use any nails, only ropes, so I haven't damaged any branches. I use solar power to heat it and I have a proper kitchen, and a shower and so on. I've got my hi-fi up here and there's plenty of space for guests. Sometimes the tree moves when the wind blows, but my house hasn't fallen down yet, so I'm not really worried.

I'm Neil and I rent this amazing place between London and Brighton. It's two towers. The windows have a view of the railway line and it could be noisy for some people, because you hear the trains passing through the tunnel under it every hour, but I don't mind the noise because I'm a party animal. I enjoy giving enormous parties with really loud music because there aren't any neighbours to complain. It's perfect for me.

You will hear a conversation between a boy, Sandy, and a girl, Megan, about their jobs. Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under B for NO.

Megan: Hi, Sandy. How are you? I haven't seen you for ages.

Sandy: OK, I suppose. Are you OK?

Megan: Oh, yes. I've got this great job, you see. I work on a fashion magazine. It's what I've always wanted to do. It's brilliant. And it's in the centre of town, near where I live.

Sandy: So what do you do exactly?

Megan: Well, at the moment I go along with the photographer when he takes the photos of the models for the magazine. They have lots of pages of the latest fashions.

Sandy: So you're a photographer now?

Megan: Well, not yet ... I'm doing a course. I help him to carry the equipment. What about you? I haven't seen you since we left art college. Are you working?

Sandy: Well, I am, but I want to be a photographer too, you know. And I've got a really awful job at the moment in a bookshop.

Megan: What's wrong with that? Why are you miserable about it? Bookshops are very interesting places.

Sandy: Not this one. It's an extremely depressing bookshop – like all bookshops, in fact.

Megan: Well, you're wrong there. Why don't you try to get a job in that new bookshop, you know, in Spring Street? It opened last week. It looks interesting.

Sandy: Not interesting enough for me. I want to do something more exciting – that's why I want to become a photographer.

Megan: But photography is a very tiring job – busy all day. And no time to relax.

Sandy: Exactly, so it's not boring. And I've already done a photography course. I'm always out taking photographs.

Megan: Are you?

Sandy: Yes, so could you ask if I can have a job on your magazine?

Megan: I don't think so. That's not a good idea. You see, the photographer only needs one assistant and that's my job.

Sandy: Oh. But could I come and watch one day?

Megan: Of course. People often come and watch. But don't talk to anyone – they're all too busy.

Five: lamp, cushions, mirror, (bed) cover, (three) posters

Suggested answers

There are lots of possible answers.

I went shopping this morning and I bought some things for my new flat. I got a lovely/amazing, large/big/tiny/small, new/modern/shiny, any colour, plastic lamp in that new shop near the station. Then I found some lovely/amazing, large/big/tiny/small, new/modern/soft, any colour/colourful, cotton cushions to match my comfortable, new, leather sofa. They look nice. Then I bought a lovely/amazing, large/big/tiny/small, new/modern/shiny, any colour, plastic mirror which I've put on my large/big/tiny/small, new/modern/wooden chest of drawers. It was cheap. I'd like to buy a large, new/modern, wooden bed but I can't afford it, so I bought a lovely/amazing, new, any colour/colourful, cotton cover instead. The bed I've got is old. When I was coming home I walked through the market and I saw some amazing/crazy/lovely, colourful posters, so I bought three.

Sample answer for Writing folder Unit 14

Dear Jenny,

I go shopping on Saturdays with my friends. There's one shop which is our favourite because it has fashionable clothes, but they aren't too expensive. I like buying T-shirts in bright colours. Last week I bought a red one and a yellow one. I usually wear jeans and trainers. I have three pairs of trainers and I'm saving my money to buy another pair. When I go out I sometimes wear a skirt and shoes with high heels. I don't usually wear a coat. I have a short blue jacket which I put on when it's very cold. Write to me soon.

Love,
Rose

Ryan: You know, Martha, I want to do something really exciting this summer. I went sky-diving last year and it was great. I'd really like to know more about the marathon you did in Morocco. How did you get on?

Martha: Well, I enjoyed it. It's not really dangerous if you behave sensibly, but it certainly tests your strength and personality. When I set off, I didn't know if I was strong enough to do it. You have to pass a medical examination before you go but apart from that anybody can do it. In fact the oldest competitor to finish was 76.

Ryan: I'm a bit younger than that so maybe I have a chance. So, what do you have to do? Why is it so hard?

Martha: Well, it's a 230-kilometre marathon across the desert and you have to finish the run in seven days.

Ryan: And I suppose it's hard running on sand.

Martha: Yes, it is, but the worst thing is that you have to carry your own food for the seven days.

Ryan: And I'm sure you need a lot of water as well.

Martha: You don't have to carry water for seven days because you're given water each day. You have to take a good water bottle with you. It's very important to drink enough. You can take other drinks to mix with the water if you like.

Ryan: And where do you sleep?

Martha: In tents. You don't have to carry those. The organisers do that, but you have to bring your own sleeping bag. You fall asleep very quickly in the evening because you're so tired but you can't stay in your tent after sunrise in the morning. You have to get up quickly when the organisers call everyone. They do it very noisily because some people are amazingly heavy sleepers.

Ryan: So, do you have your own tent?

Martha: No, and you need to get on with the other people in your tent because you spend a lot of time with them.

Ryan: And what about the organisers?

Martha: They don't run with you, of course. And they live separately. The competitors can't go into their camps. They have much nicer food and are more comfortable.

Ryan: So, does it get boring running for hours at a time?

Martha: Not really, but you can take an MP3 player if you want. Just remember everything goes in your backpack and you carry it in the heat. It's normally about 40 degrees in the daytime and it sometimes gets hotter than that, but it's cold at night. When you first arrive, when you get off the plane, you can't believe how hot it is! Anyway, I have some work that I need to get on with. Why don't you look at the website – then you can decide. And I'll find my photographs to show you.

Ryan: Oh, thanks.

Liz: Why?

Sam: Because the council is going to build a new car park.

Liz: So what's wrong with that?

Sam: Because they're going to put it by the market, you know, where Space Party is? The club we went to last week. That's where they're going to build it. Would you like to come on the demonstration?

Liz: Another time perhaps. Anyway, I think the car park's a good idea. There isn't enough parking in the town.

Sam: But it's a really bad idea. It isn't going to make things better for teenagers.

Liz: Why not?

Sam: Because they're going to knock down Space Party. So what are we going to do at weekends? Space Party's the only place to go to in this town.

Liz: OK, but what are you and your friends going to do to stop it?

Sam: We're going to stand in the shopping centre and we're going to tell people what's happening.

Liz: Well, good luck. Now I'm going to watch the match.

Sam: OK. You can tell me about it when I get home.

You will hear a radio interview with a woman called Philippa about a trip she is going to make.
For each question, put a tick (✓) in the correct box.

Jim: Welcome to Travellers' Talk, our weekly programme about travel and holidays. I'm Jim Baker and my first guest this morning is Philippa Berry, who won first prize in last month's competition. Philippa, remind listeners how you won the competition.

Philippa: I wrote a poem called The Traveller. It tells the life story of a very old man.

Jim: And Philippa has won a thousand pounds to spend on a holiday. Philippa, congratulations.

Philippa: Thank you.

Jim: Now tell us about the journey you've planned.

Philippa: Well, first of all, I decided that I didn't want to go alone because I haven't been abroad alone before. I asked my family and one or two friends to come with me. But I'm going to be away for six weeks and that's too long for most of them. My brother loves travelling, but he's got exams and my best friend says it's too expensive. So I'm joining a tour organised by a travel agent. We travel together but we don't have to stay together all the time, so that'll be just right for me.

Jim: And when are you leaving?

Philippa: Well, I have to use my ticket before the end of this year and these tours only go once a year so I had to decide immediately. In fact we set off two weeks from today.

Jim: And where are you going first?

Philippa: Well, we start by flying from London to Amsterdam, where we catch a plane for the United States. We spend three days in New York and then we travel by bus across the States to California.

Jim: I expect you're really excited about it.

Philippa: Yes, I am. But the part of the holiday I'm looking forward to most is the bus journey from one side of the States to the other. We're going to see all kinds of wonderful scenery and I'm hoping to take some good photographs of mountains and that kind of thing. It's my hobby. Of course, I'll be pleased to visit the big cities too.

Jim: And when your trip is over, what then?

Philippa: After I get home, I'm planning to have a show of the photographs I take. It's going to be in the city library, where I had a holiday job. They have space in the library for things like that and the librarian has very kindly said that I can use it for one week.

Jim: Well, that's great. Thank you, Philippa, for telling us about your plans. Now, we need to talk about this week's competition ...

Recording script 2/29

You will hear a recorded message giving you information about films.

For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

Message: Welcome to the Victoria Cinema Information Line.

Here is a list of films for the week starting July 7th.

There are three performances each day of One Summer Night at 5 pm, 7.30 pm and 10 pm, except Monday, when there is only one chance to see it at 7.30 and Sunday, when there is no performance.

Every afternoon there is a showing of The Violinist at 2.30 pm and after the performance on Wednesday, the director, Mark Hawkins, will give a lecture about the film. This is included in the ticket price.

Our late-night film is Dead Men's Shoes, which is coming to the cinema for the second time. It is set in the Canadian mountains and stars the well-known actor Jim Harrison. It recently won a prize for its photography. Our foreign-language film this week is called A Dangerous Game and is showing on Saturday afternoon at 5 pm. Although the director is actually Swedish, the film is in Spanish with subtitles in English.

There are two films showing in our Saturday morning Film Club for children. The film at 10 am is suitable for children aged between 5 and 10 and is called The Young Princess. It is about the adventures of a young girl whose father becomes king of his country by mistake. At 11.30 we are showing The Mad Professor, which is a comedy. All tickets are £4.50 except for children and senior citizens who pay £3.50.

The box office is open from 2 pm until 8.30 pm but our telephone booking line is open in the morning from 10.30 am and you can book tickets with a credit card until 9.30 pm if you ring 0987 34872. There is a charge of 50p for tickets bought by telephone.

Thank you for calling the Victoria Cinema Information Line.

Rebecca (oldest): Your parents worry about you.
George (youngest): You're always the baby. / They never let you grow up.
Charlotte (middle): You don't have a special place in the family.
Peter (only): It's difficult to make friends.

Recording script 2 30

- a: My name's Rebecca. My brother's five years younger than me. My parents didn't make me look after him but I enjoyed it. I used to look forward to playing with him when I came home from school but I sometimes got fed up with reading the same stories hundreds of times. But all those afternoons with my brother were good practice because now I have my own son and I'd like to have more children. My son is like me in lots of ways except he's really untidy and I'm the opposite. The worst thing about being the oldest is that your parents begin to worry about you from the moment you're born and they continue to worry because you're always the first to do everything.
- b: I'm George and I have three older sisters so I was really spoilt when I was a child but I didn't mind that. I never worried about anything – I was always laughing and I think I started to tell jokes when I was about two years old. But when I was about 14 I stopped doing what everyone told me and then I had two parents and three sisters getting angry with me. That's the problem really with being the youngest – everyone continues seeing you as the baby even when you're an adult. They never let you grow up.
- c: I'm Charlotte and I have an older sister who is clever, pretty and has a lovely singing voice, in fact she's good at everything, and a younger brother who is good-looking, clever, oh what else, he's really good at playing football. Then there's me. I try to be nice to them both but I'm really jealous because they always seem to do everything right and I do everything wrong. So I always arrange to spend a lot of time with my mates. I think it's hard for middle children because they don't have a special place in the family.

d: My name is Peter. I was never jealous of my friends who had brothers and sisters because my parents loved taking me with them when they went out so I spent a lot of time with adults. I enjoyed that. I have quite a few cousins and I used to see them sometimes but I didn't want to share my parents with anyone. I don't think I ever learnt to play with other children – I preferred reading and I spent a lot of time doing homework. I think only children sometimes find it difficult to make friends so that's a disadvantage. I only really began making friends when I went to university and started spending a lot of time with people of my own age.

First: The Storm Second: Third Avenue
Third: Eastside Fourth: Texas Team

Recording script

Judge: Thank you to all the competitors. I won't say much because I know you're all anxious to hear the results – it was a very difficult decision and I'll start with the band which came fourth. That's Texas Team, who are the youngest group here today. Unfortunately, the violinist played so quietly that we couldn't hear him. So bad luck to Texas Team. Third was Eastside. They are such good dancers they should enter for a dance competition. And with a bit more practice on the music they'll do very well. In second place is Third Avenue. They did well, especially their young guitarist, but the singer looked so unhappy we thought maybe he didn't want to win! Never mind – you nearly won, so better luck next time. Congratulations to The Storm who are our winners today. The singer had such a great voice that we had to give them first place. Well done.

2

- b such good dancers c so unhappy d such a great voice

Grammar spot

1 Where will they meet?

Woman: Are you going to the city centre?

Man: Yes, do you want a lift?

Woman: Yes, please. Can you take me to the library? Then I need to go to the supermarket.

Man: OK. I'm going to the bank so I'll see you in the supermarket car park at four. Oh, and can you take back these library books for me?

2 What time will the boy catch the bus?

Girl: Hi, Alex, this is Mandy. You know we agreed to meet at a quarter past six? Well, we'll have to meet an hour later at a quarter past seven because I have to look after my sister while my mum is out.

Boy: Mm ... my bus only leaves once an hour so I can get the one at a quarter to six or at a quarter to seven.

Girl: Well, get the later one. That'll give me more time too.

Boy: OK. See you tonight then.

3 Which band does Robert play in?

Girl: Robert's just joined a band, you know.

Boy: Is he playing guitar in it?

Girl: They've already got a guitarist, so he's the singer. There's a keyboard player too. They used to have a drummer but he left.

Boy: We must go and see them play.

4 Which is Lisa's new T-shirt?

Girl 1: Have you seen Lisa's new T-shirt? It's amazing.

Girl 2: What's it like?

Girl 1: It's sleeveless with a high neck and it's got red and green stripes.

Girl 2: Ugh.

5 What will the weather be like tomorrow?

Man: And here is the weather forecast for today and tomorrow. The fine weather will continue today, so enjoy it while it lasts because tomorrow we'll have cloudy skies again. There won't be any rain but it won't be very warm, I'm afraid.

Secretary: One moment, please.

Mrs Lee: Hello, Mr Finn? How can I help you?

Ivan: Er, I'm doing a project about journalism for my media studies course. Helen told me to contact you. Would it be possible for me to interview you one day this week?

Mrs Lee: I see. Well, this week's not good; I'm working to a deadline and I'm having my office painted. But what about Monday at, um, quarter past two?

Ivan: Oh, thanks very much. It's very kind of you to help me.

Mrs Lee: Not at all. I look forward to meeting you.

You will read about useful information for people going to the shopping mall.

3

THE SOUTH LAKES MALL

The South Lakes Mall offers 200 shops, a swimming pool, restaurants, a bowling alley and two nightclubs as well as 30 acres of parkland with three lakes.

Opening hours

(1) Shops	Mon-Fri	10 am-9 pm
	Sat	9 am-8 pm
	Sun	10 am-5 pm
Park	9 am-5 pm in winter
	9 am-8 pm in summer

We have thousands of visitors every day, (2) our busiest day of the week being Friday. To avoid the crowds, come on a Monday or Tuesday.

Inside the mall

When you arrive, go to (3) one of our information offices to get a map. There is one by the main bus stop and another at the bottom of the escalator which goes up to the cinema.

The shops are all on the ground floor and you will find everything from specialised furniture stores to clothes shops and department stores as well as restaurants, a bowling alley and a swimming pool. (4) On the first floor above the pool you will find a 12-screen cinema and two nightclubs. If you wish, you can buy entrance tickets for any of these facilities except the nightclubs from the information centres. (5) Before 5 pm, entrance tickets to all facilities are reduced for students and the over-sixties.

If you wish to stay overnight, (6) the information centres can give you a list of accommodation in the area, ranging from grand hotels to Bed and Breakfast accommodation.

Outside the mall

Make time to visit the 30 acres of parkland which surround the mall. (7) Boats for up to six people can be hired and taken out onto one of the lakes for £12 an hour.

Bicycles can be hired every day for £6 an hour. There are 4 km of paths but (8) you are not allowed to take hired bicycles beyond the park.

Travel

The mall is located one mile from the M49. Just follow the signs from Junction 13. There is free parking for 10,000 cars and there are six car parks. Car parking spaces are never more than five minutes' walk away from an entrance.

(9) Remember where your car is parked by looking at the coloured signs – no car park uses the same colour and each level in the car parks is numbered.

It is just as easy to visit the mall by train. There is a rail service every 15 minutes from Central London. (10) When you reach Barnwell station, jump on a number 19 bus to the mall. It's a five-minute journey and there's a bus every 15 minutes.

Recording script 308

Look at the six sentences for this part.

You will hear a conversation between a girl, Dina, and a boy, Jason, about Dina's sister, Jessica.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect.

If it is correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick (✓) in the box under B for NO.

Dina: Hi, Jason. How are you?

Jason: Hey, Dina. It's good to see you. I've got a job just near here. But what are you doing in this part of town?

I thought you worked in the city centre.

Dina: Yes, I do. And it's really hard work.

Jason: Yeah?

Dina: Yeah. It's a hotel and we're in the middle of the holiday season, so I'm always busy. But I work on Sundays so it's my day off today. I'm going to see Jessica. You know she has a flat just up the road from here?

Jason: Your sister? What's she doing these days? Is she still sitting at home waiting for the perfect job?

Dina: Well – that's not quite fair.

Jason: Why's that, then?
Dina: She studied really hard at school.
Jason: We all did, in my opinion.
Dina: She's been very unlucky. She has to ask my parents for money, but she hates doing it.
Jason: Perhaps.
Dina: Yeah, it's true. Anyway, she told me something strange on the phone.
Jason: What?
Dina: Well, she said she'd seen a ghost in the road near her flat.
Jason: And you think she did?
Dina: She saw it three times. It was a woman in a long skirt. She walked along the road about seven o'clock and then disappeared near the park gates. I hope I'm going to see her too. I think it's exciting.
Jason: Well, I think you're both mad. Seven o'clock? That's exactly when it begins to get dark at this time of year.
Dina: So?
Jason: You can't see clearly. It's probably someone going home from work in a long coat.
Dina: No, she said she was quite sure it wasn't a real person. What about coming to Jessica's place with me? Then we can all watch.
Jason: Thanks for asking me, but actually, I prefer watching TV to waiting for ghosts.
Dina: OK.
Jason: Let's meet next week. We can go to a film or something. We can have a laugh about your ghost.
Dina: OK, let's meet. But you'll be embarrassed when I tell you I've seen the ghost.
Jason: I doubt it. See you next week. Say hello to Jessica from me.
Dina: Yeah. See you.
Jason: Bye.

Conversation 1

Samantha: Alex, I'd like you to meet Monica. Alex, meet Monica. Monica loves rock climbing like you. I'm sure you're going to get on really well.

Monica: Hi, Alex. You don't go to this college, do you?

Alex: No, I don't – Samantha's my cousin. She often invites me to parties here. But actually I'm not very keen on the music. In fact, they usually play the kind of music that I hate.

Monica: Oh, I love this music. I'll never get tired of listening to it. Anyway, even if you don't like the music you can talk to people.

Alex: I've never met anyone here who I'm really interested in talking to.

Monica: What about that girl I saw you with just now?

Alex: She's not my type.

Monica: But this room is full of interesting people. Come on, I'll introduce you to some people that you'll like.

Alex: I'd rather not.

Monica: OK. Have a good evening then. I'm going to enjoy myself.

Alex: Wait a minute. I'm sorry I was rude about everyone here. You see – the truth is, I'm just a bit nervous of people I don't know.

Monica: I see. Why didn't you say that? Well, let's go over there where it's less crowded. We can have a chat about climbing. Where do you usually go?

Conversation 2

Neil: Hi, I'm Neil. This is my first day here.

Francis: Hi, I'm Francis. I've been here for a week. It's not a bad place to work, this restaurant.

Neil: Yeah?

Francis: It's very different from the job I had last summer on a building site. That was really heavy work. At least here we only have to carry a few plates.

Neil: Is everybody friendly here?

Francis: Well, the older waiters aren't really interested in the same kind of things as students doing a holiday job like us.

Neil: Oh.

Francis: But they'll chat to you when they have time. That waiter over there used to play football for Arsenal when he was young.

Neil: Did he?

Francis: Well, he played for them a few times. He's got a friend who sometimes gets free tickets. I'm an Arsenal supporter.

Neil: Really? Me too. There's a match on Wednesday evening which will be really good. I'm quite excited about it because I haven't been to a match this season yet.

Francis: They're playing Chelsea, aren't they?

Neil: That's right.

Francis: I'm not sure if I can go. What time does it start?

Oh, there are some customers over there who are waiting for a table. Come on, we'd better start work.

Conversation 3

Peter: Ah, there you are, Kate. Carla wants to meet you.

Carla, this is Kate. Kate, this is Carla.

Carla: Hi, Kate.

Kate: Hi, Carla.

Carla: Peter says you're looking for someone to share your flat with.

Kate: That's right. I am actually.

Carla: Well, I'm going to come to university here and it's too far for me to travel to my parents' house every day. Anyway I'm fed up with living there. So could I share your flat?

Kate: Why not?

Carla: Oh, that's great. Does anyone else live there or will it be just the two of us?

Kate: There's one other person who is studying biology.

Carla: Great. It'll be really good to live with people my own age. I want to find a place where I can have parties and my friends can come and stay. My parents don't like me making any noise, but you won't mind, will you?

Kate: What kind of noise? Music is fine. I always have a CD on when I'm in the flat.

Carla: Good, because I play in a band. I play the guitar and I also play the violin, but not in the band.

Kate: Oh, well I do need to study.

Carla: Oh, don't worry. I play an electric guitar which has a volume control and I'm quite good at it.

Kate: That's good news!

Carla: I saw a flat which is very near the university. But it was so tidy I decided I couldn't live there. My parents are always getting angry with me because I'm untidy but I don't expect you're tidy either, are you?

Kate: Well, I do prefer to keep the flat tidy ...

Carla: Oh, we're going to be such good friends. Thank you for inviting me to live with you.

- 1 It's round and it's made of plastic, or it might be made of glass. It's like a ball but there's a man inside. He's holding something and turning it. It's used for moving across water but it also works on land.
2 It's a kind of railway line which is on a dinner table. It's made of metal. It's used for carrying food around the table.

4

The following have been successful: the first camera, the first dishwasher and the first computer. The electric serving train and the velocipede were not successful. The C5 electric car was not successful because it might be dangerous on busy roads and was very slow. The wheelchair is a new invention and the inflatable bicycle is unlikely to be successful!

You will hear a man talking on the radio about a museum. For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

Radio presenter: And today we are looking at things to do in the Weston area. One of the big attractions is, of course, the Museum of Science. It's in South Avenue – it's been there since 1951 but before that it was in a smaller building in Market Square for nearly 100 years. // Weston's had a Museum of Science since 1859. So that's something to be proud of.

The museum is open from Saturday to Thursday from 9 am until 5 pm. // It has longer opening hours on a Friday, when it stays open until 9 pm. The museum shop is open from 10 until 5 every day except Monday, when it closes early.

There's plenty to see in the museum. You can cross a desert or travel through the human body. And there's a new gallery opening this week with a new exhibition. // Go there to find out more about the planets – imagine landing somewhere a million miles away from Earth. What would it feel like?

Every week there's a different children's activity – this week // the subject is photography. Children can take their own photographs. That's for children between the ages of eight and fourteen.

The museum is on four floors. On the ground floor are the shop and the cloakrooms. The permanent exhibitions are on the first and second floors. By the time you've visited those you'll be thirsty, so carry on to the café // on the third floor, which is open all day for drinks and snacks.

One important piece of information. If you visit the museum before 24 July // you won't be able to use the car park. It's closed for repairs. But you are allowed to park in the hotel car park opposite.

Now the phone ...

Darren: Well, it's a bit late. I want to eat.

Andy: Oh, come on. I've just had a really bad experience.

Darren: What? What's going on?

Andy: It's, like, I was just nearly arrested.

Darren: What for? You only went to buy some clothes! What have you done now?

Andy: Well, first I went into Tempo, you know, the big clothes store?

Darren: Yeah.

Andy: And I looked at the pullovers, and I got one. And then I decided to get a shirt too, but after I'd looked at them I wasn't sure, so I went to a couple of other places to see what they had. A friend told me they were selling some quite cool ones in the market. But when I asked about them, the man who runs the stall said he'd sold them all already. And I bought some shoes and went to the burger bar because it was time for lunch.

Darren: OK.

Andy: Then I went back to Tempo and found some shirts I liked and I said to the assistant I wanted to try them on and he said that was OK. But they weren't any good, so I told the assistant they didn't fit and he put them back on the shelf. They didn't have any other sizes in stock. Then, when I was going out of the shop, this woman came up to me. She asked me if I was leaving the shop. I said I was. She asked me if I'd paid for everything in my bag. I said I had because I knew I'd only got the pullover I bought earlier, and the shoes.

Darren: Right.

Andy: She said she was the store detective and then she asked me if I would come to the manager's office with her and I agreed, although I added that I wasn't very happy about it. Everyone was looking at me. It was really bad.

Darren: I believe you!

Andy: In the manager's office, the store detective showed the manager the pullover and the manager asked me how long I'd been in the shop and how many things I had bought. So I told him I'd bought a pullover at about 9.30 but I hadn't bought anything else. I was getting a bit angry and I asked what was going on. Then he asked me whether I had a receipt for the pullover. And of course I couldn't find it. And I tried to explain I'd thrown away the Tempo bag and had put the pullover in the shoe shop bag.

Darren: Oh, Andy.

Andy: Well, I didn't know. But anyway they didn't believe me. They asked me a lot more questions.

Darren: Like what?

Andy: They asked which assistant had served me. I said I didn't remember who had served me. It had been early in the morning. Then the store detective asked the manager if he wanted her to call the police and he said yes.

Darren: Oh, no.

Andy: But then my luck changed. One of the assistants came into the room and I recognised her. She was the one that served me in the morning. I asked her if she remembered me and she did. I've never felt so happy in my life.

Darren: Yeah, I'm sure. OK. So where are you now?

Andy: I'm in the manager's office. He said he was sorry for troubling me and he told me I was welcome to use his phone. Can you come and give me a lift home? There are too many people at the bus stop at this time. I'm really tired and I haven't got enough money for a taxi.

Darren: Sure. I'll be ten minutes. See you outside Tempo.

Andy: Thanks, Darren.

Recording script 320

Host: Hi, everyone, and welcome to International Chat, our phone-in programme for students everywhere. Today's subject is working abroad and we'd like to hear from anyone who's done this. Many employers and universities say that before you start a course or a job at home, it's a good idea to spend some time travelling in other countries. Some students are helped by their parents, others have to find a job. We'd like to hear about your experiences.
And our first caller is Joe. Joe, tell us about your experience.

Joe: Well, I had a great time in Ireland. I stayed on a traditional farm where I picked potatoes and looked after the cows. I did repairs to the farmhouse too. I was given a room and my food and every evening the old farmer played his accordion and sang Irish songs and told stories. His wife was a wonderful cook. Her home-made bread was out of this world.

Host: Well done, Joe, you obviously enjoyed yourself there. And now we go to Natasha. Where did you work, Natasha?

Natasha: I'd reached Finland, and I was in Helsinki. I earned about £110 each week for five days' work. I was employed as a nanny. I helped the older children get ready for school in the morning and then looked after the little one all day.

Host: And did you find the job by yourself?

Natasha: Well, luckily, a Finnish friend helped me to write a little notice about myself in Finnish and we put it in some playgroups. Lots of families like to have some help with the children and they prefer someone who can speak English, but you need to advertise in Finnish.

Host: Thanks for that tip, Natasha. And now we go to Owen from Lancashire. Did you earn money abroad too?

Owen: No. I wasn't paid, I was a volunteer. I wanted to do something to help the environment. I was in Canada and I helped to build boardwalks on Vancouver Island. These allow more people to walk in the forest.

Host: Is that good for the environment?

Owen: Yes, it'll help prevent the forest from being destroyed by people who want to cut down the trees.

Host: And did you have a good time?

Owen: Obviously, I liked helping to save the forest. It was fairly wet there, it rained nearly every day, and it was hard work, but it was fun. I liked all the people there and the forest was wonderful – the big trees, the wild fruit and the mushrooms and the mist.

Host: Well, that sounds magic, doesn't it? And let's hear from Jennifer, who worked in very different weather, I think.

Jennifer: That's right. I was in the desert, in the Middle East, helping archaeologists. Of course, the sun was really hot during the day, but it was very cold at night.

Some people might think it's very romantic to dig up old buildings which were buried for hundreds or thousands of years, but unfortunately digging is very hard work. Actually, we needed to be quite fit and know how to look after ourselves. You quickly get sore hands and backache.

Host: And what about the accommodation?

Jennifer: Oh, the camp was great. Each of the workers had a small tent. There were people from every part of the world and after we finished working, there was normally a campfire and a couple of musicians. But most of all, it was wonderful to spend time in the desert which was so beautiful and empty. Very different from Manchester, where I'm studying now.

Host: Yeah, I can believe that. Thank you, Jennifer. And we have time for one more caller. And it's Martin, who found ways of earning money in Los Angeles, in the USA.

Martin: Hello. Yes, I was staying with my uncle. He knew an old man who wanted some help in his house and arranged for us to meet. He gave me free food and I was paid $12 an hour. I painted some rooms for him, which I hadn't done before. Surprisingly, his landlady was so satisfied with the job I did that she asked me to paint her basement and then a friend asked me as well. I was employed by lots of people. Each person told their friends about me. I had a wonderful time and earned quite a lot of money. In fact, I had an email from someone last week offering me work there next summer.

Host: Well, that's great. And that's all we have time for. But I hope our listeners will be encouraged by those stories and start making their own plans for travelling and working abroad.

Recording script 3/25

You will hear an interview with a young actor called Paul. For each question, put a tick in the correct box.

Interviewer: This week we're interviewing Paul Mason, who became famous for playing the good-looking teenage son called Frank in the soap opera, Along our street. Paul, when did you first join the soap opera?

Paul: I started playing Frank (in the soap opera in 2007). (I was just 15 years old). I'd been on TV a couple of times before. I was in a children's drama series when I was about ten years old but I didn't actually say anything and (I appeared on a quiz show, again for children's TV, when I was about 13).

Interviewer: So, did you enjoy acting in the soap opera?

Paul: I did – the boy I played, Frank, was very much like me – he had a (nicer personality than me) though. But I played Frank for four years and I really needed to get experience and have the chance to play (lots of different parts). After two or three years it was time to move on. But Frank was such a big part in the soap opera, it was difficult for me to leave.

Interviewer: You became very popular, especially with teenage girls.

Paul: I had lots of girlfriends, yes. And (I loved people coming up to me in the street), wanting my autograph. I was always busy, (never tired) – I didn't need much sleep. Everyone wanted to be my friend but it was only because I was rich and famous. They weren't real friends. I didn't know who I could trust and I wasn't ready for that. I was too young.

Interviewer: So what did you do next?

Paul: I was in a play in a London theatre and because I'd spent so long in front of a TV camera I did everything wrong on the stage – I'd never acted in front of an audience before and (it frightened me). I got better but it was (much more difficult for me than TV).

Interviewer: And what about the future?

Paul: (I'm giving TV a break). I've made a film called The Last Journey, which will be in the cinemas in two months. But I'm hoping to do more plays in theatres. I intend to be one of the actors people will remember – not just on TV but for playing serious parts on the stage too.

Interviewer: How do your parents feel about your success?

Paul: Neither of them are actors but they knew that was what I wanted to do and (they've always supported me). (They're very proud of me). They're anxious, though, that suddenly one day I won't have any work or it will change me – it's not like working in an office, which is what they both do.

Tina: Hi! Sorry I'm late. I got lost.
Brigitte: So did I. It's hard to find, isn't it? Never mind. Come and sit down. We're just getting some drinks.
Tina: I'll have a mineral water, I think.
Greta: So will I.
Graham: Still or sparkling?
Tina: Still, please.
Graham: Thank you. I'll bring the menu in a moment.
Greta: Thank you.

Conversation 3

Bob: Now, what are we going to have?
Carl: What do you recommend?
Bob: They do home-made soup, that's usually very nice. And there's always a hot dish.
Carl: Oh, yeah. I see. 'Today's special', it says on the board. Can you explain what that is?
Bob: It says underneath, look. Lancashire Hotpot.
Carl: It sounds a bit funny. I'd like to know if it's got meat in it.
Bob: It's made of lamb with potatoes and onions, cooked for a long time. A traditional dish from the north of England. Very good on a cold day like today.
Carl: Oh, right. I'm a vegetarian so I won't have that.
Bob: OK. We'll ask for a menu. Would you like a starter?
Carl: No, thanks. I'll just have a main course. I don't want to fall asleep this afternoon.
Bob: No, neither do I. OK, now, where's the waiter?

Conversation 4

Gary: Yes?
Tammy: One burger, one milkshake, one veggieburger and one cappuccino, please.
Gary: What flavour milkshake?
Tammy: Oh, sorry. Rosie, do you know what flavour milkshake your friend wants?
Rosie: Oh, she didn't say.
Tammy: Oh, typical.
Rosie: Can you tell us what flavours you've got?
Gary: Chocolate, strawberry, banana and vanilla.
Rosie: She'd like strawberry, I think.
Gary: OK. Now do you want to eat in or take away?

Tammy: Take away. Oh, and one portion of chips.

Gary: OK. That's thirteen pounds twenty.

Tammy: Here you are.

Gary: Enjoy your meal.

Rosie: Thank you.

Conversation 5

Nigel: Excuse me!

Marco: Yes? Can I help you?

Nigel: I hope so. You see, we ordered a tuna salad and a baked potato with cheese fifteen minutes ago! Can you find out if there's a problem?

Marco: I'm sorry, we are very busy, as you see.

Nigel: But we said we were in a hurry and the waitress promised to be quick.

Laura: Can you find out if we're going to get our food soon? We have to catch a train at one fifty-five.

Marco: OK. Can you remember what your waitress looked like?

Nigel: Oh, here she comes now.

Anna: I'm ever so sorry. Someone else took your order by mistake.

Nigel: All right. Thank you. Now we can eat.

Laura: This potato isn't properly cooked. Part of it is almost raw!

Nigel: Oh, no. Well, that's it. I'm going to see the manager.

Recording script 3/31

Lucy: Monday. Met Jake in the library and he was so sweet and funny and shy and clever and gorgeous! He talked a lot about Gary Smart. I thought maybe he was missing a football practice with him or something but then I realised that he thought Gary was my boyfriend! I told him that wasn't true and we had a great time after that talking and laughing. We did hardly any maths and then we walked home together.

Jake: Monday. I didn't ask Lucy to go out with me after we finished working in the library because I didn't want to spoil things. She said she likes smart, funny guys, so that means I'm not the one for her. But I can't forget her. Maybe a short note would be best ...

Lucy: Tuesday. Wow! I got a letter from Jake!! After handing back my maths book at school, he walked away. When I opened it, there was a letter from him, saying he liked me and inviting me to go bowling. We're meeting after school tonight. I don't know what to wear or say, but I can't wait!

Jake: Wednesday. We went bowling and we had a drink in the café afterwards. I really think she likes me and wants to go out with me. I can't believe it. Life is great.

Lucy: Wednesday. We went bowling and then sat in the café talking. When we sat down I told him that I had been so pleased to get his note and that I felt the same as him. We both laughed. I'm meeting him tomorrow too.

Look at the six sentences for this part. You will hear a conversation between a boy, Andy, and a girl, Sarah, about dancing. Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, put a tick in the box under A for YES. If it is not correct, put a tick in the box under B for NO.

Sarah: Hi, Andy. Are you coming to the drama class?

Andy: Sorry, I'm busy.

Sarah: Not another computer class. You ought to do something different occasionally.

Andy: I only do that class on Thursdays now. I'm going to a dance class today.

Sarah: Really? I didn't know you were interested in dancing. Why haven't you ever said anything?

Andy: Well, nobody knows really, except my parents.

My friends would think it was a huge joke. They prefer playing football.

Sarah: But there's nothing wrong with boys dancing, you know. I read somewhere that dancers are often fitter and stronger than footballers. It would be good for your friends to know – why not invite them to watch you dance one day, then they might understand.

Andy: I'm not sure.

Sarah: When did you start dancing?

Andy: When I was seven. My auntie, who's a ballet teacher, used to look after me, so she had to take me to her classes. I had to sit and watch. Then one day I persuaded her to let me join in. She wasn't very keen on the idea but I loved it.

Sarah: So, you've done classes ever since?

Andy: I stopped when I was about eleven. But three years ago I decided to join another class. Usually I'm the only boy but there are two other boys who sometimes go.

Sarah: That's nice for you.

Andy: I actually prefer it when they're not there because they're not really serious about it and I can't concentrate.

Sarah: So, you're really serious about it.

Andy: I want to go to the Dance Academy in London next year.

Sarah: Wow! And what do your parents think?

Andy: They're not keen. They don't think it's a good career. It only lasts a few years and it's difficult to get jobs. But I want to do it.

Sarah: Well, you must persuade them. If that's what you really want to do, you'll never forgive yourself if you don't try.

Andy: Thanks. I'll let you know what happens.

Writing Part 3

Sample answers

Dear Kim,

Thank you for your letter. You're very lucky because you can choose your holiday. Both places are good, I think, but in different ways.

If I had your choice, I would go to the seaside with your friend's family. You will be with your friend, so that will be fun. Also, you will see a new place. It would be great to be at the seaside in the summer weather.

On the other hand, if you don't go away with your family, perhaps you will miss them. Have you talked to your parents? What do they say?

Love,
Nancy

When we set out, the sky was blue and the sun was shining. My friends owned the boat and they went sailing every weekend. At first, I enjoyed it. The water was calm and the sun was hot. But suddenly the sun was covered by clouds and it started to rain. It also became windy. I was very frightened but my friends were pleased because sailing was boring without the wind. After two hours we could see the beach again. I decided that I didn't really like sailing but my friends went again the next day.

Dear Lizzie,

Thanks for the beautiful scarf. It's perfect. I had a great birthday with Emily and Paul. At lunchtime we tried the Mexican restaurant in the shopping mall. Have you ever been there? The food was delicious but it was terribly crowded. I look forward to hearing from you.

Cornelia

Objective PET Second edition is a lively course designed to guide students towards success at the Cambridge Preliminary English Test (PET).

Its unique approach combines solid language development with systematic exam preparation and practice, while its short units cover a wide variety of motivating topics.

The second edition has been revised and updated to include a range of new features including Grammar and Corpus Spots, a Grammar Folder for reference, a CD-ROM and accompanying website.

Key features of Objective PET:

- 30 short units integrate language skills and exam training.
- 30 Exam Folders cover each exam task in depth and provide practical advice.
- 15 Writing Folders develop writing skills and give practice in exam tasks.
- 5 revision units reinforce what has been learned.
- Fun activities help to make learning enjoyable.
- Grammar Spots focus on key grammar points.
- Corpus Spots use examples from the Cambridge Learner Corpus to target areas that cause difficulties for PET candidates.
- A free CD-ROM includes further practice activities for vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, reading, listening and writing. It also includes a complete photocopiable PET test (with audio) for self-study or classroom use. A printable wordlist includes key vocabulary from the Student's Book units and teaching tips on how to exploit these wordlists.
- An additional free photocopiable PET test with audio is available on the accompanying website at www.cambridge.org/elt/objectivepet

CAMBRIDGE LEARNER CORPUS

The Cambridge Learner Corpus (CLC) is a unique collection of over 30 million words taken from student exam papers from Cambridge ESOL. It shows real mistakes students make and highlights the parts of English which cause problems for learners. The CLC has been developed by Cambridge University Press with University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations to help in writing materials for learners of English.
